PUBLIC OPINION.

The Meeting at High Bank.

A meeting of the electors of the High Bank Polling District, to protest against the iniquities of that obnoxious piece of legislation attempted at the last session of the Legislature, known as the Reserved Bill, at which Mr. M. J. Munn, Esq., was appointed chairman and the undersigned Secretary, was held at the High Bank hall on Friday evening, 3rd inst.

Owing to the inclemency of the weather, the attendance was not as large as would otherwise have been the case, though it was a good representative meeting from all sections of the district. Among others present we may mention James Clow, Esq., our respected and popular representative, Alex. Martin, Esq., Valleyfield; A. P. Prowse, Esq., Murray Harbor South, and S. S. Peterson, Murray Harbor North, all of whom in brief but pithy speeches explained and denounced the different iniquitous provisions of the proposed bill, the latter with the aid of two diagrams of King's Co., one showing the constituencies as at present arranged, the other showing how they would appear after an application of the carving process of the Peters Government, making it especially clear to all present that the evident intention of the gerrymander is to hive all the large Conservative majorities in the Georgetown District, thereby enhancing the chances of the Grit party obtaining power at the forthcoming elections. After considerable discussion, in which many of the electors took part, the following resolution was moved by Donald McLeod, Esq., High Bank, seconded by Mr. A. B. McNeill, Little Sands, and unanimously adopted:

Whereas, at the last meeting of the Legislature a bill was passed which contained among other things, the right of a mortgagee to vote in any and every Electoral District in P. E. I. in which he has loaned money to a certain amount, thus practically disfranchising the borrower and giving extraordinary political power to the money lender; and also the disfranchisement of all men employed by the Federal Government, thus depriving hundreds of worthy citizens of having any voice in making laws for the education of their children and the taxation of their property; and also that four of the five Electoral Districts of King's County have been so altered and distorted in their boundaries, as to completely nutralize the political influence of very large numbers of the honest, industrious and intelligent yeomanry of the country; and

Whereas, The Bill failed to become law only through the reservation of the Lieutenant-Governor; and

Whereas, There seems to be an indisposition on the part of the Government to re-enact those obnoxious measures at the approaching session of the Legislature;

Therefore, Be it Resolved, that this meeting enters its most decided protest against those iniquitous measures as subversive of the rights of British freemen, curtailing the liberties of the people, preventing a fair and free expression of public opinion at the polls, bringing obloquy and scorn on our fair Island Province, and worthy only of the darkest days of the Star Chamber.

Further Resolved, That a copy of this Resolution be forwarded to THE EXAMINER, Patriot and Guardian newspapers.

I may add that among the many good things said by the different speakers during the discussion on the above resolution, that the speech of Mr. Thomas Hayter, of High Bank, an elderly gentleman and a life-long supporter of the Liberal party, is worthy of special mention. In the most scathing terms he denounced the clause in the bill giving the mortgagee the right to vote on property on which he held a claim, doubting if it would not be well for the country if that class of men were not allowed to vote at all. "As for that thing there," he added dramatically, pointing with the finger of scorn at the diagram hanging on the wall opposite, "it looks like something stuck together with pins, or like a few March crows seeking shelter in a tree, and I can scarcely believe the party that I have always supported capable of such a dastardly piece of business." He resumed his seat amid the loudest applause, after which, with a vote of thanks to the chairman, the meeting adjourned.

J. McPHEE,
Secretary.

Little Sands, March 5, 1893.

Meeting at Cambridge Cross.

According to notice, a large and intelligent meeting of the electors of the Fourth Electoral District of King's County was held at Cambridge Cross Schoolhouse on the 4th inst. Mr. Isaac Buers was appointed chairman and the undersigned secretary. In a few appropriate remarks the chairman explained the object of the meeting, which was to hear the views of the electors on the Gerrymander-Franchise-Deprivation-Mortgage-Vote Bill of the Peters Government.

After a few remarks from the Hon. James Clow (who wished first to hear the electors' opinions), S. S. Peterson, Esq., spoke at some length, condemning the Government in general, and by means of diagrams showed the electors the electoral districts of King's County as they are at present and as they would be if the gerrymander took place.

Alex. Martin, Esq., being present, was called on and spoke for some time, agreeing with the previous speaker in his remarks. He was followed by John G Graham, Esq., who spoke in defence of the Government, after which the following electors spoke in condemnation of the above bill, viz.: John Jamieson, Daniel McKiernan, Augustine McInnis, and Wm. Reid.

The following resolution was proposed by William Reid and seconded by Neil McDonald:

Whereas, At the last meeting of the Legislature, a bill was passed which contained, among other things, the right of a mortgagee to vote in any and every electoral district in P. E. Island in which he had loaned money to a certain amount, thus practically disfranchising the borrower and giving extraordinary political power to the money-lender; and also the disfranchisement of all men employed by the Federal Government, thus depriving hundreds of worthy citizens of having any voice in making laws for the education of their children, or the taxation of their property, and also that four of the five electoral districts of King's County have been so altered and distorted in their boundaries as to neutralize the political influence of a very large number of the honest, industrious and intelligent yeomanry of the County;

And whereas, The bill failed to become law only through the reservation of the Lieutenant-Governor;

And whereas, There seems to be a disposition on the part of the Government to re enact these obnoxious measures at the approaching session of the Legislature.

Therefore be it Resolved, that this meeting enters its most solemn and decided protest against these iniquitous measures as subversive of the rights of British freemen, curtailing the liberties of the people, preventing a fair and free expression of public opinion at the polls, bringing obloquy and scorn on our fair Island Province, and worthy only of the darkest days of the Star Chamber.

Further resolved, That a copy of this resolution be forwarded to THE EXAMINER, Patriot, Guardian and Watchman newspapers for publication.

On the above resolution being put to a vote it was carried almost unanimously, only two or three voting against it.

NEIL MCDONALD,
Secretary.

On Friday, the 3rd inst., a meeting was called at High Bank for the purpose of getting the ideas of the electors on the Gerrymander Bill. The meeting was a grand one. Alexander Martin, Esq., of Valleyfield, kindly attended and gave his mind on the infamous measure.

On the following evening a similar meeting was held at Sentner's Cross, at which Mr. Martin also attended along with Mr. Peterson, Mr. Clow and other prominent men of the district. The schoolhouse was filled, and we had an enthusiastic meeting. Of course the meeting was called simply to get the people's opinion on the gerrymander, and that opinion was given in the most emphatic manner. The audience was unanimous in its condemnation and its indignation. Mr. Peterson, with the aid of diagrams, clearly and brilliantly showed up what the grits have to do when they can't hope to change public opinion. It is a lamentable thing when a political party must try to retain power, not by benignities but by despotism, not by moulding public favor but by slashing up boundary lines. The honest electors of Murray Harbor think it the meanest and most despotic trick ever yet attempted by the "Party of Purity."

Entertainment at Clifton.

The musical and literary entertainment in connection with the Singing Class at Clifton, came off as announced on Thursday evening, 2nd inst. George B. McKay, Esq., occupied the chair. The large Hall was filled to its utmost capacity by a most appreciative audience. The programme was lengthy, the music and readings of a high order, and rendered in splendid form. the young people of Clifton are to be congratulated on the able manner in which the programme was carried out. The choruses "Merrily Goes our Bark," "The Merry Mountaineers," and "The Sailor's Glee,"—all new and first-class choruses—were given in splendid form. The duet, "Oh Let the Angels In," and "Ise Going Close to Eighty Years," by the Misses Smith and Higgs, of Stanley, were tastefully rendered, as were also the quartettes, "Beautiful Twilight," and "Rocking on the Billows," "Give the Boy a Chance," by Messrs. John Sutherland, John T. Ferguson, and Miss Maggie Smith elicited prolonged applause. The several selections rendered by the little Misses Warren McKay and Henderson received well-merited applause. The organ selections were much appreciated. The dialogue "Meeting in the Parlor," brought down the house. The characters in the play acquitted themselves admirably, particularly "Mr. and Mrs. Higgins." The readings by Mrs. John Jardine, T. Ferguson and the Misses Maggie Smith and Katie Higgs were well selected and well delivered. Mrs. Annie C. Henderson, music teacher of Cape Traverse, presided at the organ, and it is needless to say this part was in the hands of one of the best organists on the Island. The musical part of the programme was under the direction of Mr. John T. Ferguson, teacher of vocal music. Great praise is due to all the parties concerned for their efforts to make this entertainment one of the best ever given in Clifton.
