A LUNCHEON meeting of the Fisheries Research Board of Canada was held at the Charlottetown Hotel yesterday.

FISHERIES FEDERATION MEETS

By GAIL REDDEN
Lobster conservation was the topic of guest speaker, Dr. D.G. Wilder, of the Fisheries Research Board of Canada, at the luncheon meeting of the P.E.I. Fisheries Federation in a Charlottetown hotel yesterday.

Conservation Of Lobsters Is Discussed By Speaker

Although the dictionary definition of "conservation" is "to save," Dr. Wilder says he likes to think of it more in the terms of "the wise use of natural resources." He noted that most of those connected with the problem agree that conservation and wise use are needed, but what they do not agree on is what constitutes wise use of the lobster fishery.
