HOLD CHURCH TALKS
LONDON (Reuters)—The Archbishop of York, Dr. Arthur Ransley, left by air Friday for Moscow leading a Church of England delegation of eight to an Anglican-Orthodox theological conference there. "We are going to discuss the extent of unity in belief and practice between our two churches. We shall be working towards a goal where we hope for the mutual recognition of one another as portions of one church of God," the archbishop said.

MORE MEASLES
The number of reported cases of measles in Canada rose to 56,922 in 1955 from 36,850 the previous year.
