Imports Touch All-Time High But Canada Has Trade Surplus

OTTAWA (CP)—Imports shot up to an all-time monthly high in April but Canada still had a greater trade surplus for the first four months of this year than in the corresponding 1963 period, the Dominion Bureau of Statistics has reported.

This year's four-month trade surplus—excess of exports over imports—was $86,100,000 against $45,300,000 in the January-April period of 1963.

But in April there was a trade deficit of $39,400,000, compared with one of $26,800,000 in April last year, as Canada's purchases from other countries reached a one-month record of $709,400,000.

This was an increase of 27.9 per cent from the 1963 April total of $554,500,000 and up 9.1 per cent from the previous record for a month of $650,200,000 in May, 1962.

This brought the value of imports in the January-April period to $2,367,800,000, up 20.2 per cent from $1,968,700,000 in 1963.

EXPORTS HIT RECORD

Meanwhile, exports attained a record April high of $670,100,000, up 27 per cent from that month's former peak of $527,700,000 last year. This brought exports for the first four months of the year to $2,453,800,000, an increase of 21.8 per cent over the January - April figure last year of $2,013,900,000.

Trade figures for the first four months of the year compared with the corresponding period last year, in millions of dollars:

Exports	1964	1963
United States	1,338.4	1,195.3
United Kingdom	364.7	279.0
Commonwealth	143.7	125.0
Others	607.9	414.5
Total	2,453.8	2,013.9

Imports
United States	1,710.0	1,413.6
United Kingdom	187.2	151.1
Commonwealth	93.3	91.3
Others	377.1	313.3
Total	2,367.6	1,968.7

The bureau said the unusually large increases in both exports and imports in April were influenced by two basic factors, which resulted in the spring peak in trade coming a month earlier than usual.

CITES FACTORS

One factor was the increase in the number of working days in the month, some 10 per cent more than in 1963, and the other was the early date at which the St. Lawrence River ports opened.

The usual trade deficit with the United States was nearly double last year's in April at $130,000,000 against $65,900,000 a year earlier while the customary trade surplus with Britain was slightly larger for the month, $54,700,000 against $21,200,000 in April, 1963.

Canada's export balance in April with other Commonwealth and preferential-rate countries was more than double that of a year earlier at $18,600,000 versus $9,000,000 and the trade surplus with all other countries as a group was more than quadruple that of April last year at $37,400,000 against $8,800,000.

April imports from the U.S. increased 31.7 per cent to $504,200,000 from $382,800,000 a year earlier, boosting the January-April total 21 per cent to $1,710,000,000 from $1,413,600,000 in the previous year.

Exports to the U.S. in the month were up 18.1 per cent to $374,100,000 from $316,900,000, and for the four-month period increased by 12 per cent to $1,338,400,000 from $1,195,300,000. Thus the four-month trade deficit with the U.S was $371,500,000 this year against $218,300,000 in 1963.

UK PURCHASES UP

Purchases from Britain advanced by 31.4 per cent in April to $62,600,000 from $47,200,000 a year earlier and by 29.9 per cent in the fourth-month period to $187,200,000 from $151,100,000.

Sales to that market climbed by 41.4 per cent in the month to $96,700,000 from $68,400,000 and by 30.7 in the January-April period to $364,700,000 from $279,000,000. Canada's trade surplus with Britain in the first four months was $177,400,000, against the 1963 period's $128,000,000.

Purchases from other Commonwealth and preferential rate countries declined 16.2 per cent in April to $23,200,000 from $27,700,000 a year earlier but rose 2.8 per cent in the January-April period to $93,300,000 from $90,800,000 in the 1963 period.

Exports to this group of countries were up by 15.9 per cent in the month to $41,800,000 versus $36,700,000 and by 14.2 per cent in the cumulative period at $41,800,000 against $125,000,000. Thus the four-month trade surplus for Canada was $49,400,000 against last year's $34,300,000.

RED STUDENTS ARRESTED

SINGAPORE (AP) — Police have arrested 54 persons in a crackdown at the Chinese-language Nanyang University, for Communist subversive activity, informed sources said Monday. The roundup began Saturday and another 20 left-wing students are still sought, informants said.

SUPPORT CUBAN TRADE

LONDON (Reuters)—A House of Commons motion supporting trade with Cuba was signed by 33 of the 261 opposition Labor party members of Parliament Wednesday. The motion also urged the British government to uphold the right of British ships to trade with Cuba against intimidation by another state.

Opening lead—three of clubs.

Probably the most brilliant card player in the recent World Bridge Olympiad was Benito Garozzo of Naples, Italy. He and his regular partner, Pietro Forquet, contributed outstanding service to help bring the Italians their seventh world championship in eight tries.

Here is a sample of Garozzo at work. The hand occurred in the match between Spain and Italy, the Spanish declarer reaching six spades on the bidding shown.

Garozzo was West and led a club, south taking the queen with the ace. Anxious to get rid of dummy's clubs, declarer cashed the K-Q of diamonds and ace of hearts and ruffed a heart to come back to his hand.

South now played the ace of diamonds, discarding a club, and then ruffed a club with the three. After cashing the king of hearts and discarding the eight of clubs, declarer led the jack of hearts. This was now the position:

North
♠ A 9
♥ J 8 4

West
♠ K J
♥ 7
♦ K 5

East
♠ 8 5 2
♥ 10
♣ 10

South
♠ Q 10 7 6

Forquet discarded the ten of clubs and South ruffed with the ten of spades. Garozzo overruffed with the king!

It is hard to blame declarer for assuming that East had the jack of spades, since West presumably would have overruffed with the jack if he had had it. So when Garozzo now led the king of clubs, declarer ruffed with the ace and led the nine of spades, finessing against East's assumed jack for down one.

Had Garozzo overruffed with the jack, South would surely have made the slam. He would have ruffed the club return with the nine, cashed the ace of spades and caught the king, and would thus have brought home the contract.
