PROSPEROUS.—We understand, says an exchange, that contracts have been let for between 30 and 40 new houses to be completed this season at Lunenburg, N. S. Lunenburg is one of the most important fishing towns in Canada and the fact that it is prospering now as it never has in the past shows that the abrogation of the reciprocity treaty in fish has not worked ruin to our fishing interests. As a matter of fact, our fishermen are doing as well as ever they did.

During his pastorate in Summerside, Mr. Chappell has made many warm friends among all denominations, his genial and gentlemanly characteristics making him a general favorite. The congregation over which he was placed will be sorry to lose him, but will congratulate Campbellton on securing as pastor a gentleman of broad, liberal views, of culture and ability.—Summerside Journal.

The bride looked beautiful in pale blue satin, decorated with orange blossoms, and was attended by Miss Josephine McDonald, Montague. The groom was supported by Mr. John A. McDonald, of Orwell. At the close of the ceremony, the happy couple, together with a number of friends, were entertained at the residence of Wm. P. Lewis, Esq., father of the bride, after which they left for their new home attended by the good wishes of all for their future happiness.—Com.

Dominion Day.

"Dominion Day" to me that name

Such painful thoughts recall,

For then it was I suffered much,

My heart seemed lost to all.

My dearest son—my only boy—

That day was drowned at sea;

Yes, taken with his last farewell

For ever, far from me.

Oh, when I think again of him

My suffering it is keen—

My boy, so taken from me then,

Was scarcely seventeen.

The little boat that carried him

Was suddenly upset;

He bravely tried to save a friend

But safety could not get.

The three young men who with him sailed

Were rescued, but alas!

My boy was gone—no more on earth

With me his days to pass.

But with my sorrow comes a joy,

He happiness has won I

While I, with fervent heart, do say:

"Father, Thy Will be Done."

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

Another View.

Sir,—The moans and the groans uttered over the arrival of Mr. Watts, the Secularist, are, to my thinking, sadly out of place. Is not our city abundantly furnished with Christian ministers? And are we to believe that they qualify at the advance of this Goliath of Socialism, Secularism, or what you like? I, for one, will not believe such cowardice even possible. Mr. Watts, I understand, invites discussion, and surely some Christian minister will be found ready to do as much by him as Father Lambert did by the "blaspheming Ingersoll."

"A Citizen" deprecates that Watts has been brought here; yet the doctrine which Watts inculcates from the platform has been percolating through our community for many years in the baneful cheap literature of Reviews, Magazines and Novels. Should not our Christian ministers rejoice to think that this Hydra of Secularism has opportunely come before them in the person of Watts, with only one head to dispose of? Who is to strike the blow? The doughty deed will be duly chronicled by
