The upper flat of the Orange Hall here has been completed. The sheeting was done by Mr. Alexander McFarlane and the painting by Mr. McKenzie of Tryon. The workmanship reflects credit on the contractors. The hall has been furnished and heated similar to the Mechanics Institute, Charlottetown, and is a credit to the brethren of Prince Arthur Lodge, L. O. A. The lower flat will be fitted up for a public hall and be capable of heating in the vicinity of two hundred and fifty. The dedication ceremony will take place some time in March, when a lecture will be given at the same time. Kindly put away in one corner of your wallet twenty-five cents for this occasion to help defray expenses.

Mr. W. T. Wadman was hauling hay a few days ago, and thinking the horse could get along at a faster clip gave him a kick. The horse returned the compliments with result that Wesley is laid up for a few days.

The concert to have taken place here tomorrow evening by members of the Epworth League is postponed until Monday evening March 6th. The postponement is due to the prevalence of measles and grippe.

A lunch is to be served this evening at the Dawson House to the brethren of the I. O. F. The weather at the time of writing is very unfavorable, but we hope that the proprietor will not be discouraged that his most sanguine expectations will be realized and that every chair at the festive board will be taken up. We also hope that the examining physician will have ample time to dispose of the turkey before midnight.

The auction sale of six thousand gallons of cider to take place at Westmoreland on the 9th March is the topic of the day. The general opinion is however that our local retailers will purchase the whole business previous to the day of sale.

It is rumored here that McLeod & Williams, merchant tailors, intend entering into partnership in the near future. If such is the case the public may rely on artistic cutting, good fits and neat workmanship.

P. E. I. ISLAND CLUB.—The Prince Edward Island club of Boston, at a meeting held at the residence of Misses Euta and Alice Sinnott last week, voted to limit the membership, as applications were being received too rapidly. The quarterly meeting and dinner is to be held April 6 at the United States hotel.

AN EGG FAMINE.—Boston narrowly escaped an egg famine this week, according to the St. John Sun's correspondent. The market however, was relieved by the fine weather in the country districts. Eggs have not been so scarce and high in price for six years. They sold as high as 48 cents for the best and at 35 and 40 for old eggs. Dealers expect the high prices will continue for at least three weeks.

A LARGE FAMILY.—At Mooseland road, near Newcombe corner, Halifax Co., N. S., there is a man named Mitten working in the woods with seven sons, all in the same employ, while two strapping young fellows are left at home as kind of "nest eggs." The father is one of 31 of a family. The girls of the neighborhood do not object to have it recorded that they have "got the mitten."

AN ISLANDER KILLED.—The Summerside Journal has received a letter from Nuncamanti, dated February 22, and signed by John T. Dyer. The letter says: There was a man killed here very suddenly by a load of logs, living only a few minutes after the accident. His name was Joseph Babineau, and he claimed to have a wife and two children in Kildare, Prince Edward Island. Being an Islander myself, I thought I would inform you of the matter.

Seems as if consumption always picks out the brightest and best. Fully one-sixth of all the deaths that occur in the world are caused by consumption. Many things were once considered impossible. It would be strange if medical science did not make some progress. The telegraph and telephone, the phonograph, the electric light—all were once impossible, and at once it was impossible to cure consumption. That was the time before Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. "Taken according to directions, this standard remedy will cure 98 per cent of all cases of consumption. Consumption is caused and fostered by impurity in the blood. It is cured by purity and richness in the blood—surely, certainly cured by the "Medical Discovery." It builds up solid healthy flesh and vigorous strength.

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, a 1008 page medical work profusely illustrated, will be sent free on receipt of 31 one-cent stamps to cover postage only. Address: World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

The Ghost In "Hamlet."

Not many years ago at the Queen's theater, Dublin, during one of the late T. C. King's engagements, "Hamlet" was being played to a densely crowded house. The actor portraying the part of the Ghost solaced himself during his long wait from the first to the third act by perusing the evening paper, using his spectacles in so doing. Being interested in some article (probably the "weights" for an important handicap), he delayed leaving the greenroom until the moment of hearing his cue, when, hastily snatching up his truncheon, he rushed upon the stage without his beard of "sable silvered" or removing his spectacles.

A bitter greeted his appearance, but still the solemnity of the darkened stage and the fine acting of King as Hamlet prevented any great outburst until the queen, replying to Hamlet's question, "Do you see nothing there?" answered, "Nothing at all. Yes all that is I see," when a voice from aloft exclaimed, "Lend her your specs, old boy," followed by another: "Hold your row. Sure he's put them on to see to shave himself."—Cornhill Magazine.

SCRAPS OF NEWS FROM Sentner, McLeod & Co

That line of pretty silks at 25c a yard is leaving us about as fast as the snow is under the strong March sun.

One of our local merchants not many miles from Charlottetown, saw an Indian passing his store with a Black Fox Skin.

He hailed the chief and asked him if the Fox was for sale. He answered in the affirmative. He then asked the Indian where did you get him, the chief answered, "O Him dyed" and then he asked him what price he wanted for it, he says $10.00.

The merchant paid down the money, congratulating himself on his bargain; but he hung the skin out at the door, when a heavy rain came and the dye began to run, it was then he realized that "him dyed."

The Most Popular and Best Seller in Canada.

Imported Direct from the Tea Gardens

It challenges comparison with any other Tea now offered here regardless of price. Hundreds of letters praising Brahmin have been received of which the following are a few samples:—

NEW YORK, October 20

Would it be too much trouble for you to send me a chest of that India Tea that we are so fond of? If you can send it to Boston it will be forwarded to me.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., 4th December.

We liked the tea purchased from you last summer so well that I should like to order the same kind again if we can get it without too much trouble.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., 26th May.

I like the Brahmin Tea, so do my friends. I would like an 80 lb. box same as before; but I don't want any other.

OTTAWA, November 4th.

The Tea you sent is excellent, so much do we like it that I want you to send another box before navigation closes.

TORONTO, December 26.

We are simply delighted with the Tea; if anything, it is better than the sample sent. I may have a larger order for you next time, as friends who have tasted it here thought it very fine.

MONTREAL, April 20.

Do you remember sending me two boxes of tea last September. Kindly send me six boxes. I would like exactly the same quality as we had before, which would be very difficult to beat. Do you want an Agent here. I believe I could do a good business for you.

ST. JOHN, N. B. October 30.

Enclosed please find the amount of your bill for the Tea which was most satisfactory and much liked by my family. I will send for another box when this is finished.

MONROTON, N. B. November 2.

Sample of Brahmin Tea received. Please send me one box. I enclose P. O. order for the amount.

HALIFAX, N. S. November 6.

Please send me four chests of Tea, same quality and size as previously sent me, and oblige.

WINDSOR, N. S. February 1st

The two boxes Tea which you advised having shipped have arrived. The Tea gives much satisfaction, and is also approved by friends who have tasted it.

The originals can be seen on application.
