Prince County Fish, Game Ass'n Meeting The regular monthly meeting of the Prince County Fish and Game Association was held at Kensington on Friday evening with the president, Mr. Omer Bernard, Tignish presiding and with a good attendance of the members. On motion the meeting passed a resolution that the goose shooting season commence on October 15th and also that all other seasons for migratory birds and non-migratory birds open on the same date. Several members spoke on the matter of game protection and the secretary advised that the management committee of the Provincial Association would be waiting on the Attorney General very soon in regard to this matter. The secretary advised that the Provincial Association were purchasing crests which will be sold to any member wanting one of them. The matter of guides for tourists wishing to locate angling areas was discussed at some length by the members present and it was recommended that pamphlets be given to all non-resident anglers when they purchase their license. The pamphlets will state the location of all government approved angling areas. The meeting recommended that work be done to improve the condition of Leard's Pond at Burlington on a Wright's stream at New Annan. The matter of young people being allowed to use 22 calibre rifles was given considerable discussion and it was urged that the Provincial Fish and Game Association take the matter up at once and press the government to set up some educational programme for the young people who will receive instructions in the use of firearms and that this training be a requisite before they are allowed to use or purchase a firearm. It was recommended that the R. C. M. P. qualified instructors from the Fish and Game Association and service clubs, cooperate with the government in any such programme. Through the courtesy of Mr. Robert Palmer recordings were played of duck and crow calls and the members expressed themselves as very appreciative of Mr. Palmer's instructive explanations along these lines. The next meeting will be held at Borden the last Friday in January, the December meeting will not be held due to the Christmas season.

Mr. J. W. Waugh Passes Away At Alberton Mr. J. W. Waugh passed away at his home in Alberton early Sunday evening following an illness of only three days. He was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Waugh of Summerside and was seventy-seven years of age. AAs a young man of twenty years he came to Alberton where he was employed at Dyer's Drug Stores. Later he became proprietor of the business which is now known as Waugh's Drug Store. Until his retirement three years ago he served the public faithfully and capably in his capacity as druggist. He was a public spirited citizen and a loyal member of the United Church of Canada. He served on the Town Council and was a former mayor of Alberton. Very recently he donated the lot on which Alberton public library has been built. He was always in the place of worship on the Lord's Day and took an active part in the life of the congregation. For a number of years he was chairman of the Board of Stewards and at the time of his death he was church treasurer. Of a quiet and retiring disposition, many of his good works were not known to the general public. He is survived by his wife, the former Elizabeth Dyer, who has been his partner in life for fifty-one years, and by one daughter, Miss Beth Waugh of Alberton.

HUNTER'S RIVER W.M.S. The regular monthly meeting of the Hunter's River Auxiliary of the W.M.S. met on Thursday, November 6 at the home of Mrs. C. B. Matheson. The meeting opened with members reading in unison two verses of Hymn 183, "Father of Mercies." Following this Hymn 184 "The Spirit Breathes Upon The Word" was sung. The meditation for this meeting was "The Bible is the Book of Life, one of the chief means of Grace." Mrs. J. L. LePage led in this worship period and was assisted by two of the members. All joined in the circle of prayer, following which Hymn 187, "Break Thou the Bread of Life" was sung. Chapter III of the study book was taken up being led by Mrs. O. Sellar assisted by Mrs. E. Seaman, Mrs. E. Newman, Mrs. J. MacLeod and Mrs. J. Craswell. This dealt with the various means of "Education" and the roll called, there being 21 members present and two guests. Subscriptions for the Missionary Monthly were received and one tion for Living in Angola where the churches' missionaries are at work. Mrs. W. Patterson is to be in charge of the study book period for January. The minutes were read and apportioned to $2.55, a donation of $2.00 was received from Mrs. Cecil Haslam and mite boxes amounting to $29.43, totalling $34.48. Social calls numbered 41 home and three hospital. The December meeting is to be at the home of Mrs. J. Andrews and the lunch committee is: Mrs. C. B. Matheson, Mrs. J. L. LePage and Mrs. W. I. Bowman. Mrs. Seaman read a clipping on Temperance, "The Most Destroying of Evils" Roll call next month is to be an address by Bible verse beginning with the letter "Y", which finishes up the word "Missionary". The meeting closed with the Lords Prayer and lunch was served.

Burlington and Vicinity —Friends will be glad to know that Mr. H. R. Profit is making a good recovery following a heart attack of several weeks ago, and is resting comfortably at his home, the Orient Hotel, Victoria. Following his doctors orders, he will continue to rest for another week or longer. High School For Borden Discussed A meeting of school trustees from the districts within 10 miles of Borden was held in the Borden School on Wednesday, November 26th for the purpose of discussing the establishing of a regional high school in this district. Mr. Frank Dorsey was chairman of the meeting. Dr. Shaw spoke of the benefits to be derived from a school of this kind. School Inspector Jelly was present and with the various trustees discussed the project. Further discussion will take place at a meeting to be held on Wednesday, December 12th in the library of Summerside High School to which all the trustees have been invited.

Burlington Couple Honoured By Friends —A reception for about 35 guests was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. MacLeod, Burlington, on Monday evening, November 17th, in honour of their marriage which took place in Charlottetown on the previous Saturday. Mrs. Clayton Stavert and Mrs. Robert Stavert acted as hostesses for the evening and received the guests. A feature of the evening was the presentation of a well filled purse, presented on behalf of the guests of Mr. Herbert Profit, nephew of the bride. Lt. Col. E. W. Johnstone acted as chairman and in the course of his remarks, subtly complimented Mr. MacLeod on his choice. An address read by Mrs. Walter Moase, welcomed the bride "home" again as she is returning from Charlottetown to her former home community; approved the choice of the groom and wished the couple every happiness. Both responded suitably and all joined in singing "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows." Lunch was served by the acting hostesses assisted by Mrs. Elmer Moase, Mrs. Earle Campbell, Mrs. Wallace Adams and others. Organ selections by Mrs. Walter Moase were enjoyed by the guests. In addition to the invited guests, the police couple were accompanied by some 40 to 50 friends intent on extending good wishes and congratulations on this auspicious occasion, and gotten up in masquerade costume which showed the result of considerable thought and fine attention to detail.—Bur.
