

THE PRESS.

THE GRANDEST TEMPORAL BLESSING—HOW TO SINK A FORTUNE AND KEEP IT SUNK.

Dr. Talmage gives the press great credit for its reforming influences, and is a passionate burst of feeling, he exclaims, 'I tell you, my friends, that a good newspaper is the grandest blessing that God has given to the people of this country—the grandest temporal blessing.' And then he says:—

'Our newspapers are repositories of knowledge and are constantly lifting the people into the sunlight. Newspaper knowledge makes up the structure of the world's heart and brain, and decides the fate of churches and of nations. Adams, Jefferson, Franklin, Clinton, all had their hands in the printing press. Stung by some fabrications in print, we talk of the unbridled press. Our new book is ground up by the unjust criticisms, and we talk of the unfair press. Through some indistinctness of our utterance, we are reported to say just the opposite of what we did say, and we talk of the blundering press. We take up a newspaper with a social scandal or a case of divorce, and we talk of the filthy and scurrilous press. But this morning I address you on a subject you have never heard presented—the immeasurable, everlasting blessing of a good newspaper. Thank God that their wheels are full of eyes. I give you this overwhelming statistic; that in the year 1870 the number of copies of literary and political newspapers published in this country was 1,500,000,000. What church, what reformer, what christian man, can disregard these things? I tell you, my friends, that a good newspaper is the grandest blessing that God has given to the people of this century—the grandest temporal blessing. The theory is abroad that anybody can make a newspaper with the aid of a capitalist. The fact is that fortunes are swallowed up every year in the vain effort to establish newspapers. The large papers swallow up the small ones. The big whale outs about fifty minnows. We have 7,000 dailies and weeklies in the United States and Canada, and only thirty-six are half a century old. The average life of a newspaper is five years. Most of them die of cholera infantum. (Laughter.) It is high time that it was understood that the most successful way to sink a fortune and keep it sunk is to start a newspaper.'

An Undeniable Truth. You deserve to suffer, and if you lead a miserable, unsatisfactory life in this beautiful world, it is entirely your own fault and there is only one excuse for you—your unreasoning prejudice and skepticism, which has killed thousands. Personal knowledge and common sense reasoning will soon show you that Green's Angut Flower will cure you of Liver Complaint, or Dyspepsia, with all its miserable effects, such as sick headache, palpitation of the heart, sour stomach, habitual constipation, dizziness of the head, nervous prostration, low spirits, etc. Its sales now reach every town on the Western Continent, and not a Druggist but will tell you of its wonderful cures. You can buy a Sample Bottle for 10 cents. Three doses will relieve you.
