School Paper

The Guardian, Montague, has received the second edition of "The Monitor" a publication compiled and edited by the students of Montague High School. As a result of a great deal of work, much thought, and careful selection, it has reached the mark of a good school paper, the standard of which is commensurate with other publications in the same field.

For this edition the editor has stressed the importance of Book Week for Young Canada, and has made several important observations, and drawn several more important consequent conclusions. With due awareness, he has noted the fact that reading of good books by the younger generation is becoming lessened by the encroachments of other types of entertainment, and he is quick to point out that although these have their place, it should not be to the total exclusion of good reading.

The ten-page paper is well set up with many interesting articles, notes and comments, all of which, although of specific interest to the student body, is nonetheless, also of considerable interest to parents and teachers for on these pages one may see what student life is, what problems these boys and girls face, and their efforts to solve their own problems in their own way; all of which is part of the process of growing up and becoming a useful citizen in a community.

Besides the heavier editorial matter and other articles, there are several pages in lighter vein which is of primary interest to the students. The sport page has been well done, and brings under discussion matters of immediate concern. Special mention has been made of high school curling, and the article is in very good taste, well worthy of being read by all who are interested in curling.

The staff of "The Monitor", its reporters and contributors may well be congratulated on having turned out another fine paper, and this office will be looking forward with keen anticipation to the next edition.

Series Of Services At Whim Road

As in other years, a series of week night services and one Sunday evening service have been held in Whim Road hall this season by Rev. J. M. Fraser. These meetings have been featured by a good attendance and by hearty singing of favorite hymns with Mrs. Colin MacDonald as pianist.

Three special services were held. Rev. A. T. MacDonald, New Glasgow, N.S., who was supply pastor at Murray Harbour, was guest speaker at one service, and stressed the grace of God amid the inevitable trials and problems of life. A harvest thanksgiving service was held when vegetables, fruit and other gifts were given to Rev. and Mrs. Fraser. Another service, Rev. F. MacKinnon of Valleyfield gave a helpful message, and at the close of the meeting he showed a series of beautiful slides which he had taken in Cape Breton, Western Canada, and Prince Edward Island. A friendly hour was held, and lunch was served by the ladies. The final service for this season was held Friday evening.

with seven deer Harold R. Moores of Trecscott told about Wednesday's expedition. With him were his four brothers, Gordon, Caymond, Albert, and Clifton; their father, Levi, and his 12-year-old nephew, Harold L. Moores. They spotted a herd of deer at Bog Brook. Seven rifles banged. Seven deer fell.

DISCUSSION GROUPS

The Conference was divided into discussion groups under the leadership of Rev. D. Sharpe, Souris, Rev. W. A. Paterson, Georgetown, and Rev. R. A. MacLeod, St. Peter's Bay. On Saturday Rev. F. MacKinnon, Valleyfield, took over Mr. Paterson's group. The theme for the discussion sessions was, "One Fellowship in Christ."

Saturday evening the ladies of the church, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Edson Rose, provided a banquet for the boys and their leaders in the Kingsboro Hall. The program opened with a number of toasts to the Queen, to the entertaining church, proposed by Merrill Wigginton, responded to by Mr. Fred Rose; to the ladies and the entertaining homes, proposed by Lloyd Walker, responded to by Mrs. Edson Rose; and to the leadership of the Kingsboro Hall, proposed by Rev. F. MacKinnon. After several songs led by Mr. McClare, and group games introduced by other leaders, each of the discussion groups put on a stunt or Biblical drama for the entertainment of the other groups.

SUNDAY WORSHIP

On Sunday afternoon the worship was conducted by the presidents of the discussion groups: Chairman, Gordon Ching; Scripture by Sheldon Rose, and reading by Douglas White. Each of the group secretaries, Edgar Dewar, Lloyd Walker, and Weston Rose presented the findings of their discussions. These were summed up as follows: Fellowship is being in company with others and being in company with God. We need fellowship for peace in the world and to promote the work of the church. A ballot was taken to elect two delegates to the Maritime Tuxis and Older Boys' Parliament. Those chosen were Donald MacPherson, Bellevue, and Stanford Jardine, St. Peter's Bay. The evening service was cancelled due to the bad weather.
