

CHRISTMAS GIFT IDEAS

Natural History Society Crests. These large and attractive blue, gold and white crests depict the official society logo (shown on front cover of newsletter). Available from Margaret Mallett (53 Fitzroy St., Charlottetown).

Natural History Society Memberships. Invite a friend to share in society meetings, field trips, outings and newsletters. Gift memberships available from Margaret Mallett. $3 Regular, $4 Family, $1 Student.

Winds of Sea and Wood. A collection of notes, articles and sketches reflecting nature through the seasons on P.E.I. Available from Margaret Mallett.

The Island Magazine (Spring-Summer 1979). This issue features an article on Francis Bain, an early Island naturalist from York Point. Available from the Heritage Foundation or at news stands and book stores.

Canadian Nature Federation Memberships. Membership in CNF includes a subscription to four colourful issues of Nature Canada, Canada's national nature magazine. Available from CNF, 75 Albert St., Suite 203, Ottawa K1P 6G1. $12 Individual, $15 Family.

Nature Canada Bookshop. Offers a large variety of books on natural history and related topics, plus binoculars, bird feeders, nature recordings, stationery, etc. Catalogue available at Natural History Society meetings.

Owl and Chickadee. Two excellent Canadian magazines on wildlife and the outdoors. For children 4-8 (Chickadee) and 8-12 (Owl). Available from The Young Naturalist Foundation, 59 Front St. East, Toronto, M5E 1B3. $7 per subscription.

Our Adventures at Warren Grove. Written by elementary school students, this book illustrates and records the children's field trips to Warren Grove. Available from Margaret Mallett.

