WAR NEWS.

[By Telegraph to Reading Room and Daily Examiner.]

ATHENS, Feb. 19.

The Thessalian insurrection is increasing. 7,000 Turks were defeated near Volo, with a loss of 600, after desperate fighting. A similar despatch says that Riskics, the Servian Prime Minister has drawn up a memorandum to the Czar, claiming the whole of old Servia, and the Servians are resolved not to give up or evacuate the conquered territory, unless forcibly compelled to do so.

A collision between Russia and Servia is now probable.

The London Post's leader says that relative to the possible advance of our fleet, the Russians turned their positions and are now apparently disposed to occupy Gallipoli, unless we agree to give guarantee against further advance.

ERZURUM, Feb. 17.

The Russians are suffering severely from epidemic and they are short of provisions. Negotiations for the surrender of this city are now proceeding. They are expected to be concluded to-morrow.

OUR OTTAWA DESPATCH.

(Special Despatch to Daily Examiner.)

OTTAWA, Feb. 20.

Cartwright laid estimates on the Table to-day. He asks $2,344,005,135 for ordinary Expenditure and $1,589,433,110 to be expended on capital account; for Souris Breakwater $20,000; for Malpeque Breakwater, $3,500; New Eondon, $1,500; Railway, $20,000.

New Independence Parliament Bill provides that no official of the Local Government or superannuated Dominion Government official shall sit in Parliament. It also applies to Senators.

Decosmos charged the Government with defrauding British Columbia of $28,000 and entailing a loss upon the Dominion of $310,000 in an effort to checkmate and embarrass British Columbia; he said the Government seemed to forget that there are Maritime Provinces on East and West to whom they owe a debt as well to old Canada. He loudly called upon the Government to fulfil its obligations and to pay the Provincial loss.

Cartwright said he was contesting an election when the money alluded to was demanded and refused. He also said British Columbia had failed to show how that money was to be applied, as required by agreement between the two Governments.

Decosmos states positively that British Columbia had fulfilled her part of the agreement and charged the Dominion Government with breach of faith.

Langevin spoke of bungling mail arrangements in Grete.

GENERAL NEWS.

HALIFAX, Feb. 18.—The steamer "Circassian" arrived at 1 a. m. with Liverpool dates to 7th inst.

The Government steamer "Newfield," from France, which arrived at 2 p. m., fell in, on Tuesday last, with the steamer "Hibernian" disabled, the shaft having broken the previous Friday. She took off fourteen cabin passengers and the mails and brought them here. The "Hibernian" was under sail making for Queenstown—all well. No passengers on her for St. John.

MONTREAL, Feb. 16.—Bewernick's fur establishment was damaged by fire to-day; loss $15,000. Miller's stationery and bookstore, situated on the flat above the fur store, was also injured; loss $1,000. Both were insured in English and Canadian offices.

Boston, Feb. 17.—At 1 o'clock this morning, when the steamer "Old Colony," from New York, was about 20 miles from Newport, her walking beam broke, smashing the engines badly and exploding the cylinder. Fortunately no lives were lost. The "Old Colony" was towed into Newport.

London, Feb. 16.—A special to the Times from Berlin says: "Not only is it unlikely Germany will undertake the part of arbiter by declaring against any power attempting to interfere with Russia, but the indications are that Russia's action is regarded here as at variance with her understood programme, viz., the liberation of Christians and nothing more."

The interpellation on the Eastern question comes on in the Reichstag on Tuesday.

The coasting steamer M. Palmer was sunk in a collision near Harwick and 14 persons were drowned.

London, Feb. 17.—Advices from Cape Town, January 20th, say: "There were numerous encounters between the volunteers and the insurgent Caffres during last week. The Caffres were defeated, and many were killed and wounded."

Athens, Feb. 17.—The Thessalian insurgents took Platamona to-day, but it is supposed they will not be able to hold it. Hostilities are breaking out in all the districts of Crete, where the insurgents are taking possession of block houses and strongholds under the flag of union with Greece.

There were small engagements between the Turks and insurgents in Thessaly. It is announced that several thousand Turks have left Volo to prevent further insurgent advances. The Greek Government have decided to immediately call out the second reserves of 10,100 men, and also to form twenty battalions of light infantry.

Athens, Feb. 16.—The official Gazette announces that a strong body of insurgents is besieging Platamona in Thessaly and that a body of Turkish reinforcements from Armigos had been repulsed. Seven hundred Greek volunteers crossed the frontier yesterday and considerable numbers left Epirus for Lania at the head of the gulf of Volo, near the Turkish frontier.

Vienna, Feb. 16.—According to intelligence from trustworthy sources, a Congress, and not a Conference, is certain, probably to be held at Baden-Baden, which place Austria has proposed.

London, Feb. 17.—Negotiations for the Congress at Baden-Baden have been concluded, and all the Powers, including Germany, have assented.

A Vienna telegram says notwithstanding the prospect of a Congress, the situation is still considered grave. It is rumored that England has made overtures for an understanding and arrangement with Austria.

The "Observer" believes that Russia has represented to England that the United States, as a great maritime power, should participate in the Congress. England has not objected, but has taken advantage of the proposal to suggest that Greece also should be allowed to take part in the Congress.

Last night was the coldest we experienced the present winter. The thermometer fell fourteen degrees below zero.

The smoke of the Northern Light was visible last night from Souris. It was probably caused by cooking operations, as she calmly drifted along the shores, surrounded by a pan of ice of very tiny dimensions.

On St. Peter's Road, at 11 o'clock to-day, a countryman had his face terribly disfigured from being run over by a horse attached to a small box sleigh. He was taken to Dr. Beers', where his wounds were dressed.

At the Stipendiary Magistrate's Court, this morning, the case of Augustine Coombs, for selling liquor without license, was again under the consideration of the Court. Four witnesses were examined and the matter was postponed until Monday next. The case of Martin Carroll, for assaulting Mr. Henry Hall on Queen Street, was postponed until to-morrow.

On returning from the funeral of the late John Walsh, Mr. Richard Lockett, barber, Pownall Street, met with a very serious accident. He was walking on the road in front of the residence of Mr. L. C. Owen, when a horse attached to a heavy sleigh was driving towards him at a rapid pace, and, when a few yards off, Mr. Lockett attempted a slip to one side in order to let him pass, but slipped and was falling towards him. He attempted to catch the bridle; this he missed, and the right shaft struck him a most violent blow on the temple. He instantly fell to the ground and the sleigh runners partly passed over his head, inflicting a very large cut on his temple, which bled very freely. He remained for some time unconscious, but we are glad to hear he is recovering under the treatment of Dr. Jenkins.

The Masonic Entertainment held in the Reform Club Hall, on Tuesday evening, by the members of King Solomon Lodge, was in every respect a success. The Hall—which was tastefully decorated—was well filled by a very select audience, and the well arranged programme was carried through in a manner that was highly satisfactory to the audience. His Worship the Mayor presided, and the officers of the different Lodges occupied seats on the stage. After a few introductory remarks by the chairman, the opening ode was rendered in excellent style by the brethren. It was followed by a tastefully executed instrumental trio which reflected much credit on the performers. The lecture on "Masonry and its principles," by Rev. Mr. Osborne, was very fluently delivered and he fully sustained his reputation as a lecturer on technical and delicate subjects.

He traced Masonry back to the earliest ages, described its introduction into England, how it was therein practiced by the Druids, and quoted Scripture to prove its existence in the most ancient times. At the finish the lecturer was loudly applauded. The vocal solo by Mr. G. C. Cunningham, and the reading by Mr. George Peake, were well received, while the splendid solo of Mr. F. H. Beer called forth an encore. Mr. F. S. Longworth's humorous recitation was very pleasing to the audience. The cornet solo by Mr. Fletcher, and the recitation of Mr. T. A. McLean brought the entertainment to a very nice close.
