Bedeque UC Men's Ass'n Has Speaker

BEDEQUE — The Bedeque United Church Men's Association held its July supper meeting in the church hall, Tuesday evening. There was good attendance with Arnold Henderson presiding. Grace was said by Rev. E. W. Cameron.

Following the supper a hymn singing was led by Ralph Callbeck with David Murray at the piano. William Callbeck conducted the devotional period. Charles MacFarlane, on behalf of the group, thanked the ladies for the food.

It was agreed to invite the Men's Association of the North Bedeque United Church to attend the August meeting.

Rev. R.M. Cameron introduced the guest speaker, Rev. Alvin O'Brien, pastor of the Tryon United Church.

Mr. O'Brien chose as his topic: "Who Am I?" He dealt with his topic using Bible quotations to answer the question. "Each of us is a distinct personality, created in the image of God and accountable to God for the use he makes of his talents," he said.

Ralph Callbeck expressed the thanks of the association for the address.

The meeting closed with the benediction by Mr. Cameron.

annual meeting Wednesday and had passed a resolution urging by-election.

"We have an excellent representative in the district in the person of Dr. Hubert MacNeill," said Premier Shaw. "A lot of work has been carried out (there) and it is certainly not being neglected."

Rose, high commissioner to Canada for Trinidad and Tobago, has left hospital and expects to return to his desk next week, his office said Thursday. Mr. Rose entered hospital July 9 with bursts.
