S., are guests of the Riverview, Lower Montague. — Mr. and Mrs. John Bell, West Royalty, P. E. I., were visitors to Montague on Wednesday, attending the wedding of Mrs. Bell's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Clements.

CORRECTION — In a report of a fire Friday evening, it was stated that a small fire started on Wednesday morning at the sawing plant of Art MacSwain, Peeters Road. This should have been that the factory was engaged in cutting only. There was no fire on that day. The plant was destroyed Friday evening.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER — A miscellaneous shower for Mrs. and Mrs. Joseph Osewicz of Cape Bear, formerly Vonda Munn of Murray River, was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Fraser, Montague, on Thursday night. The room was tastefully decorated for the occasion with pink and white streamers, and cases of roses and honeysuckle. Master Garnet MacIntyre and Miss Dianne Shaw, dressed as bride and groom, brought in the gifts, which were opened by Miss Joan Johnston and the verses read by Mrs. Fraser. Following this a wish-you-well, an advice to the bride and groom, was presented, the verses being read by Stephen Heenan, Jr. The evening was spent in dancing and playing games, after which a delicious lunch was served by the hostess assisted by the ladies.

Going Away Party Held — Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Coffin were entertained by their immediate family on Friday evening at the summer cottage of Mr. and Mrs. Cryus Shaw, Brudenell. The occasion was a going-away party for the couple who are leaving the following day on the "Overlander 1953" for La Fleche, Sask., to visit with Mrs. Coffin's mother. The evening began with a clam bake, after which a social time was enjoyed with jokes and stories. A delicious lunch was served, Mrs. Douglas Coffin and Mrs. James Dewar assisting the hostess. Large parcels were then presented to Mr. and Mrs. Coffin and an original poem read by Mrs. Shaw. After the numerous wrappings were removed, amid gales of laughter, two articles of used clothing were retrieved, which had special significance to the family. When the laughter had died down a beautiful box of chocolates was presented to them, followed by a gift of money, with all the best wishes from the families. Mr. Coffin responded with a speech expressing their sincere thanks and closing with a very humorous

Clements-MacLure Wedding — A pretty wedding was solemnized in the Church of Christ, Montague, Wednesday afternoon, July 8, when Mr. Kenneth Norris united in marriage, Wilma Catherine, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. C. MacLure, Montague, and Gilbert Ralph, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Clements, also of Montague. The church was decorated with baskets of peonies and guest pews were marked with tiny bouquets and white satin bows. The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a ballerina-length gown of white nylon net over taffeta, and fashioned with a fitted lace jacket with peplum waistline and long pointed sleeves. She wore a nylon three-quarter length veil held in place with a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of red roses, and her only ornament was a pearl necklace, a gift of the groom. The bridesmaid was Miss Barbara Beck who wore a ballerina-length gown of blue nylon net over taffeta, with matching headress, and nosegay of white carnations. The groom was attended by Mr. Paul Jenkins, Charlottetown, and the ushers were Master Errol MacLure, brother of the bride, and Master Donald MacLure. The guest soloist was Mrs. Ralph Beck, who sang, "O Perfect Love". The wedding music was played by Miss Anna MacLaren. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. MacLure chose a two-piece dress of navy corded crepe with which she wore white accessories and a corsage of red roses. Mrs. Clements, mother of the groom, wore a pale blue dress with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations. A reception for immediate relatives of the bridal couple was held in the Rainbow Room of the Bison Restaurant. The bride's table was centered with a three-tier wedding cake. Assisting in serving were Mrs. George Reynolds, Charlottetown, Mrs. Malcolm Patterson, Sussex, N. B., and Miss Edith Clay, Montague. The toast to the bride was proposed by Mr. Norris. A toast to the groom was proposed by Mr. Cleve Craswell, and a toast to Mr. and Mrs. Craswell, who were celebrating the 28th anniversary of their wedding was proposed by Mr. Clements. The couple left on a wedding trip to Ottawa and Toronto. For travelling the bride wore a grey wool suit with mauve accessories and a corsage of white carnations. Prior to their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Clements were guests of honor at two showers by their friends and were the recipients of many lovely gifts, including china, linens, silver and cheques. On their return they will reside at their cottage in Lower Montague before taking up residence in their new home on River Road. Mrs. Coffin also conveyed thanks in her charming manner to the group. The evening came to a close with a rousing sing-song ending with "Auld Lang Syne" and "For They are Jolly Good Fellows".

ELECTORS OF KINGS COUNTY SUPPORT THIS POLICY MAJOR JOHN A. MacDONALD, your Progressive Conservative Candidate for King's County, and his supporters, have pledged themselves to strictly adhere to all the provisions of the Dominion Election Act, including those forbidding illegal and corrupt practises. Corrupt and illegal practises have increased alarmingly in recent Elections, both Provincial and Federal, in this Province. The situation has developed to the stage where the faith of many of our people in Canada's political institutions has been undermined. THIS IS SERIOUS The PROGRESSIVE CONSERVATIVE CANDIDATE in your County does not sanction it and his campaign will be conducted strictly according to the Election Act right up until the last vote is polled on Election Day. Such a Policy is deserving of your approval. HOWEVER YOU VOTE — OBEY THE LAW Inserted by the King's County Progressive Conservative Association
