GATHERING OF THE CLANS.

ON Wednesday last, agreeably to previous announcement, the third annual gathering of the Caledonian Club, for Competition in Highland Games, came off in a delightful field on Government House Grounds, kindly appropriated for the purpose by His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor. The ground was all that could have been desired, being surrounded on all sides by thick groves of trees, and forming a sort of amphitheatre. On the grounds were erected large edifices, one denominated the "Grand Stand," for the accommodation of the "fair sex," His Excellency the Lieut. Governor and suite, visitors, &c., &c. The others for Refreshments. The day was exceedingly fine, and as a consequence, a large number of people were on the ground, from the neighboring Provinces and all parts of this Island. The Caledonian Club assembled at Masonic Hall in the morning, at about 10 o'clock, where they were soon after joined by the Officers and Members of the Benevolent Irish Society of the City. From the Hall they proceded to the grounds, in marching order, preceded by a number of pipers, flags, &c., &c., &c. Arrived at the grounds the games soon after commenced; and at the close in the evening all departed, evidently well pleased with the day's amusement. The prizes were distributed as follows:—

A PLEA FROM THE U. STATES FOR THE FENIAN PRISONERS.

The action of Congress in asking the interference of the United States Government for the purpose of securing the release of the Fenian prisoners captured during the recent raid in Canada, and also requesting prosecutions instituted against the Fenians in the United States Courts be abandoned, exhibits both the degrading subserviency of United States politicians, and the weak point in republican institutions. On this matter the Toronto Globe thus reasons:—

But although a respectful consideration is due to a request of the American Government, we cannot for a moment imagine that Mr. Seward expects any tangible results from his interposition on behalf of the Fenian prisoners. Their crime is one to which all laws human and divine, agree in attaching the heaviest penalty. A murderous attack on the inhabitants of a country, in profound peace with its neighbours, wholly unprovoked, and utterly incapable of any results except rapine and bloodshed—affording no inducements to its perpetrators beyond excitement and plunder, is of too serious a nature to be passed over leniently. And aside from the miseries already inflicted on a large number of our people, in addition to the murders committed, the organization is still at work—is still plotting attacks on unprotected points of our country—is still cherished and nurtured by the people and Congress of the United States—is still collecting arms and munitions of war and, it is even stated, has by some hocus-pocus received back those seized by the United States Government. And under these circumstances we are asked, forsooth, to let loose the vipers who have once stung us, and would only too readily do so again, if the opportunity were afforded them. Clemency under such circumstances and towards such culprits would be not only a folly but a crime. Nor do we fancy that the American Government is very anxious to have back again its citizens now confined in our goods. They well know, as their organ in New York, the Times stated, "that the rascals if not raiding in Canada, would be robbing and stealing in the United States." But Mr. Seward must, as a politician, court the favour of those whom, as a member of the Government, he felt it his duty to crush. * * * *

As regards the action of Congress in the matter, we will say but little. Its official wishes are entitled to the same degree of respect from Canadians as those of Roberts and Sweeney, and to far less than we might pay to a request from C O. I. R. Stevens. The members have been practising salaams to the Fenian leaders till their heads are dizzy, and their backbones so bent that they cannot raise their eyes so as to see anything beyond the ragged regiments of voters that Roberts & Co. are marshalling to garrison the polling booths. We doubt not that some way will be found to maintain the dignity of law and still assent to the prayer of Congress; that the prosecution against its "Fenian idols" will be abandoned; and better thus, than have the courts again overawed by the mob, and the "patriots" triumphant over law and its ministers, as well as over politics and politicians. Now that Congress has adjourned, we may hope that when it is again called together, after a season of repose, it will have acquired some moral strength and courage, and that it may find some higher aims than conciliating and legislating for the Fenians.

CITY COUNCIL.

The annual meeting of the Civic Board took place on Tuesday last at the City Hall at the hour of eleven o'clock. His Worship the Hon. T. H. Haviland, Mayor, in the Chair.

Present: Councillors
A. H. Yates and John Morris, Esq., for Ward 1.
Jas. Reddin and A. Mitchell, " " 2.
John Brecken and R. Heartz, " " 3.
Mark Butcher and G. R. Beer, " " 4.
Theo. DesBrisay and A. Brown, " " 5.
John Lawson, Esq., Q. C. Recorder.

The Minutes of the previous meeting were read and unanimously adopted, after which the annual election of officers took place. The result being the re-election of all the officers of the past year, and the adding of one Policeman, namely Mr. Angus McKinnon, to the Police force. Upon motion the following Standing Committees were appointed for the current year, viz: 1st, Public Accounts and Finance, Councillors Morris, Beer, Reddin. 2nd, Streets and Squares, Councillors Mitchell, Yates, Brecken, Butcher and DesBrisay 3rd, Carriages and Trucks, Councillors Yates, Brown, Butcher. 4th, Markets and Market House, Councillors DesBrisay, Morris, Reddin, Heartz, Beer. After the transaction of a considerable amount of routine business the Council adjourned.

CANADIAN NEWS.

MR. GALT'S RESIGNATION.—Our surmises as to the cause which led to the resignation of the Finance Minister of Canada, were correct. The Montreal Gazette epitomizes the whole in the following succinct paragraph:—

"The French Canadian members led by Mr. Cauchon demanded the dropping of the Lower Canada School Bill, or the pushing on of the U. C. bill of Mr. Bell, pari passu with it, backed by Government influence and votes. The Government could not do the latter, and adopted the former alternative. Mr. Galt found himself so pledged to the bill that he resigned rather than consent to its abandonment. Mr. Dorion intimated that he was opposed to the L. C. bill; but if the Government went on with it, he would move the U. C. bill as additional amending clauses. The Upper Canada members declared if that were done they would vote the whole thing down. The Government were thus forced to yield. Great regret is felt at the result."

The Government of Canada have provided $250,000 for the purchase of improved fire-arms for Volunteers. Communications have been addressed to the Home authorities with a view of getting a supply of breech-loaders.

The following is from the Montreal Gazette—Ministerial paper:—

"The public will probably learn with satisfaction, after the declaration by Ministers that another attack on the frontier is shortly expected, that a supply of breech-loaders for the regulars and volunteers has been telegraphed for to England.

An Ottawa despatch in an American paper announces that the Canadian mind is becoming much exercised over the prospect of another Fenian invasion on a more formidable scale than that of June last. There is a settled conviction that it will be attempted. The volunteers are to be called out in full force next month, ostensibly for the purpose of drilling in camp, but really to meet the expecting emergency. Notice is given in Parliament that the Minister of Militia will be asked how they are to be armed.

MEETING OF CITY COUNCIL.

AUGUST 18th.

His Worship the Mayor in the Chair. Minutes of last meeting read by the Clerk and approved. On motion of Councillor Morris, the Bill to be entitled a Law relating to Slaughter Houses, was read a third time, and unanimously passed. The purport of this Law is to prevent Slaughter Houses being built within the limits of the City so as subsequently to become nuisances or injurious to health. Permission to erect Slaughter houses must hereafter be petitioned for, and the petitioner or petitioners must state with precision and accuracy the locality in which it is proposed to build such Slaughter house, and also point out clearly and definitely the means to be adopted for ensuring cleanliness. On complaint being made that any slaughter house, already erected, and in use in the City, is a neusance or injurious to health, the City Council is authorized to order its removal, its being cleansed or rebuilt, as they in their wisdom may think proper. His Worship the Mayor announced to the Board that His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor has been pleased to give his assent to the law passed by the City Council relative to vagrants, mendicants, and street beggars, and called upon the Clerk to read a communication from the Clerk of the Executive Council, notifying the City Council that said Law had received the approval of the Government. The object of the law relating to vagrants, &c., is to prevent all idle, or disorderly persons, and all prostitutes, or other characters of ill-fame from loitering or wandering either by day or night, in any field, yard, on wharfs or other places, and from lodging, lying, or sleeping in any barn, shed or other unoccupied building or in the open air, within the limits of the City. Police officers, and Constables are authorized to apprehend on view, or by command of the Mayor or any City Councillor, such vagrants not giving a satisfactory account of themselves, and to cause them to be brought before the Police Court for conviction and punishment. Upon complaint of any householder that persons of the description alluded to, are a nuisance or annoyance to such householder, or the neighbourhood, a summons shall be issued from the Police Court, commanding the accused to appear and answer to the charge of vagrancy, and if convicted to be punished by fine or imprisonment. The City Marshall reported to the Council Board that a Slaughter house owned by Mr. Brydges was in a very filthy condition, and that the owner had refused, or neglected, to have the filth removed. Upon motion it was ordered that immediate action be taken on said Report, with the view of removing the nuisance complained of.—Ordered that Policeman White, guilty of getting intoxicated when on duty, be dismissed from the Service.—Matters relating to the Fire Department were then deliberated upon; during which Councillor Beer observed that it would be necessary to give a name to the new Steam Engine about to be inported for the Fire Department. Several names were then spoken of, among them that of the Mutual, suggested by his Worship the Mayor, seemed to meet general approval. Councillor Yates spoke of the want of prudence displayed by some of the Night Watch Guard, against whom complaints had been made for unnecessarily molesting and disturbing peaceful citizens. Councillor Brecken said that young boys had been constituting themselves Night Watches, whose conduct was highly improper, and calculated rather to irritate and create disturbances than to detect crime or villiany.

Several Councillors then followed and remarked on the necessity of those placed on duty as Night Watch Men, exercising caution and moderation, in the discharge of their onerous offices.

Several accounts were then ordered to be paid and the Council adjourned sine die.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE EXAMINER.

SIR:—

The well intended editorial call of the influential "Patriot" upon the Steam Boat Company to make an excursion trip by one of their boats to Picton or any other where, on the day of the meeting of the Caledonian Club and Gathering of the Clans, commanded no general favor, and was not entertained by the Steam Company, notwithstanding that the Influential's amiable editorial was hopefully republished as a communication in the Examiner. The generous writer of the Excursion Editorial, however unflagging in his zeal for victory, has found in the defeat of his object the practical force of the aphorism of "the schemes of men and mice," and he also will have learned, doubtless, with gratification, that the Gathering of the Gael, on the 15th instant, was a positive success.

That charitable excursionist, who pointed out a path leading away from the field where the Celts gathered to wage prowess in the noble games of their ancestors, knew when he wrote the Editorial, that the Caledonian Club, by public advertisement, had stated to the effect that the pecuniary result, after payment of expenses of the gathering, was intended to be, and will be, appropriated towards the relief of the unfortunates amongst us, who have become houseless and destitute by the fires which recently devastated a part of our city.

With this knowledge before him, he penned the benevolent Editorial which has induced this communication.

THISTLE.

To the Editor of the Patriot.

A LAW

to restrain and punish Vagrants, Mendicants and Street Beggars.

Passed 6th August, 1866.
Approved 14th August.

BE it enacted by the City Council of the City of Charlottetown, as follows:

It shall be lawful for any Police Officer or Constable to apprehend on view, or by command of the Mayor, or a City Councillor, all Vagrants, that is to say, all loose, idle or disorderly persons, whom he shall find lying, loitering or wandering, either by day or by night, in any field, yard, highway, wharf, or other place; and all prostitutes, or other persons, found lying lodging or sleeping in any barn, shed or other building unoccupied, or in the open air, or in or under any wagon or other vehicle within the limits of the City of Charlottetown, not giving a satisfactory account of themselves, and to detain such persons until he, she or they can be brought before the Police Court; and the person so offending shall, on conviction, forfeit and pay a fine not exceeding twenty shillings, or be imprisoned for a term not exceeding fourteen days.

Upon complaint of any householder, either personally or by writing, that persons of the above description are a nuisance or annoyance to himself, herself or the neighbourhood, a summons shall be issued from the Police Court commanding the person or persons so accused to appear at the said Court forthwith, or the next day, to answer to the charge of vagrancy; and the offender or offenders, if convicted, on the oath of one or more credible witness or witnesses, to be punished as aforesaid.

The Police Officers or Constables are hereby commanded on view of any person openly begging in the streets of the City forthwith to apprehend the same, and detain him or her until he or she can be brought before the Police Court; and upon conviction the said Court may order the offender or offenders to be imprisoned for the first offence for a period not exceeding forty-eight hours, and for the second or other subsequent offence for a period not exceeding ten days.

On the complaint of any householder personally or by writing, complaining of any person being a mendicant or common street beggar, a summons shall issue as aforesaid; and on conviction upon the oath of one or more credible witness or witnesses, the party offending, on conviction shall be imprisoned for the same periods mentioned in the foregoing clause.

St. Dunstan's College;

Under the patronage of His Lordship the Bishop of Charlottetown.

THIS INSTITUTION is situated on the Princetown Road, a mile and a quarter north of Charlottetown. The site is peculiarly beautiful, healthy, and far removed from the distractions and moral dangers of the city.

The halls and rooms of the building are spacious, airy and comfortable.

The College Grounds are large, affording ample room for games and athletic exercises.

The course of studies embraces all the branches necessary to prepare young men for the study of the learned professions or fit them for mercantile pursuits, such as History, Geography, the English, French, Latin and Greek Languages, Rhetoric, Mathematics, Philosophy, Chemistry, &c. Music, vocal and instrumental—is also taught.

The College possesses a large and well selected Library, as well as an extensive Philosopky Apparatus.

The Professors and Teachers reside in the Institution, forming but one family with the students, and exercising a constant supervision favorable to discipline, decorun and good morals.

Catholic students are carefully and frequently instructed in their holy religion, which they are required to practise. The most solicitous attention is paid to the morals of all; and whilst within the College enclosure they are constantly under the watchful eye of one of the Teachers or Prefects. Perfect discipline is strictly but kindly enforced.

Students when entering must produce satisfactory testimonials of good character.

The College is visited regularly once a week by a Physician.

TERMS:

Per Quarter of 11 Weeks.

	£	s	d
Board and Tuition,	£6	0	0
Use of Library,	0	1	6
Physician's Fee,	0	1	6

Payments to be made half-yearly in advance.

The College furnishes bed-steads and mattrasses; the students must provide their own beds and bedding, brushes, basins, towels, &c.

The Scholastic year commences on the first* Wednesday in September and ends about the middle of July. Students are requested to enter the College on the first day of the opening of the classes.

For further particulars apply to
A. McDONALD.

St. Dunstan's College, Aug. 6th, 1866.

*The classes will be re-opened this year on the 5th September.

BRITISH PERIODICALS.

VIZ:

The London Quarterly Review (Conservative.)
The Edinburgh Review (Whig).
The Westminster Review (Radical),
The North British Review (Free Church)
AND
Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine. (Tory.)

THE foreign PERIODICALS above enumerated are regularly published by us in the same style and with the same promptness as heretofore. Those who know them and who have long subscribed to them, need no reminder from us; those whom the civil war of the last few years has deprived of their once welcome supply of the best periodical Literature, will be glad to have our publications again brought within their reach; and those who, residing far inland, remote from the centres of commerce and literature, may never yet have met with them, will assuredly be well pleased to have the means pointed out of bringing accredited reports of the progress of European science and literature to their homesteads in the Western prairies of the Southern plantations.

Blackwood's Magazine also continues to run its race ably. Equalling the more sedate quarterlies in its literary and scientific departments, its pages are enlivened with well-told narratives and clever sketchy papers, which, by their occasional republication in book form, have been stamped as far superior to ordinary magazine literature. Bulwer and Lever and Mrs. Oliphant have written much of late in its pages. At present the Chronicles of Carlingford by Mrs. O., the O'Dowd Papers by Lever, and the Memoirs of the Confederate War for Independence, by Von Bork, of J. E. B. Stuart's Staff, are favorite serials running on from number to number.

We again request the reader to run his eye over the partial list of subjects given above, and observe how varied are the contents of these periodicals, and how well they are adapted to keeping their readers informed of the progress of the various branches of knowledge in which the mind of man puts forth its powers. Their pages teem with the records of research, invention and discovery; and the copious list of Contemporary Literature in the Westminster, gives a long catalogue of works recently published at home and abroad, which every reader will find a great advantage in having at hand.

To prevent misunderstanding, it may be as well to observe that we have annexed the terms "Conservative," "Whig," "Free-Church," and "Tory," to the the proper names of the respective periodicals, with no intention to initiate a political classification of customers and subscribers; but simply to intimate that when social and political subjects are taken hold of, they will be discussed on the principles of that political party of which the Review is the acknowledged organ. The great majority, however, of all the articles in all these Reviews are addressed to the world in general, and not to party. The Tory reads the Edinburgh review, for its literature and science, omitting or not its political portions according to the humor of the moment; and is not regarded as any the less a Tory because he takes a Whig periodical. And so with the others. Even the reader of the Westminster would not consider that he forfeited his fame as an advocate of freethought by subscribing to the more orthodox North British. The daily or weekly paper which is brought to our doors, is, like the flag which we raise aloft and march under, the index of our political opinions; but the Quarterly Review or monthly magazine is like the friend of years, with whom, though of different politics, we may associate freely without the slightest danger of compromising ourselves.

We therefore present our publications freely to men of all parties, as a common literary ground on which they may mingle with cheerful thoughts, and friendly feelings, and expanding minds; and though we cannot aver that the theologian, the lawyer, the physician, or any learned or scientific man, will have all his wants satisfied in his particular department, yet he will doubtless pick up many suggestions by which he may profit, and he will certainly acquire a very correct idea of what is going on in all those branches of human knowledge unconnected with his own province, which he has not time to study in detail, but of which it is very important for every man of education to possess some general ideas.

The Four Reviews and Blackwood, comprising the series above described, are republished at the following rates, viz:

For any one of the Reviews	$4 00	per annum.
For any two of the Reviews	7 00	"
For any three of the Reviews	10 00	"
For all four of the Reviews	12 00	"
For Blackwood's Magazine	4 00	"
For Blackwood and one Review	7 00	"
For Blackwood and any two of the Reviews	10 00	"
For Blackwood and three of the Reviews	13 00	"
For Blackwood and the four Reviews	15 00	"

Considering that the cost of printing has more than doubled since 1861, these prices are extremely low. The original English Editions would cost, in U. S. Currency, more than treble these rates at the present time.
