

An Irish Landlord and His Tenants

The Earl of Rosse has issued a circular to his tenants in Tipperary and Queen's County, in which he promises to do his share in finding remunerative work for the people, should distress arrive during the winter through want of employment. He also engages to make allowances in the half-quarter's rent due November 1st for drainage, building, fencing, or any such improvement approved by him before being undertaken, and which shall be completed before the rent-call next spring. Lord Rosse adds: "I am anxious to say to my tenants how gratified I feel that in no single instance have they shown any disposition to lend themselves to the political agitation which has disturbed the country for some months, and which, if continued, can only end in causing a separation of interests which ought to be identical."

Mr. Ruskin to Young Ladies.

Do you want to be better dressed than your schoolfellows? Some of them are probably poor and cannot afford to dress like you; or, on the other hand, you may be poor yourself, and may be mortified at their being better dressed than you. Put an end to all that at once, by resolving to go down into the depth of your girl's hearts, where you will find, imaid by Christ's own hand, a better thing than vanity—pity. And be sure of this, that although in a Christian land every young girl would be dressed beautifully and delightfully, in this entirely heathen and Baal-worshipping land of ours not one girl in ten has either decent or healthy clothing; and that you have no business now to wear anything fine yourself, but are bound to use your tulle strength and your resources to dress as many of your neighbors as you can. What of fine dress your people insist on your wearing, take and wear prettily and proudly, for their sakes; but, so far as in you lies, be sure that every day you are laboring to clothe some poorer creatures. And if you cannot clothe, at least, help with your hands. You can make your own bed, wash your own plates, brighten your own furniture—if nothing else. "But that's servants' work?" Of course it is. What business have you to hope to be better than a servant of servants? "God made you a lady?" Yes, He has put you, that is to say, in a position in which you may learn to speak your own language beautifully; to be accurately acquainted with the elements of other languages; to behave with grace, tact and sympathy to all around you; to know the history of your country, the commands of its religion, and the duties of its race. If you obey His will in learning these things, you will obtain the power of becoming a true "lady," and you will become one if, while you learn these things, you set yourself, with all the strength of your youth and womanhood, to serve His servants, until the day comes when He calls you to say: "Well done, good and faithful servant; enter thou into the joy of thy Lord."

The Wife.

How ready is she to adapt herself to all his ways! and with whims sometimes as many as the stars, yet for every one she has her own sweet spell, and then the thousand capacities never called out before! And how well pleased she is to find that, as the task is sent, so is the strength sent with it. How ready is she to unlearn courtship, and to learn content, perhaps the hardest and least ready of her tasks, but she does learn it. And the workday of life comes, which, cling to it as she will, must make her give up the angel and take to the woman. She has to "box the compass" of domestic cares; "Nor-Nor-East" and "Nor-Nor-West," and God speed her if she do it conscientiously. No point must be past; the drawing-room, the nursery, the kitchen and luck the larder; all must as by magic be the rule of her own clear steady rule. She knows that unless she manages, all will go wrong, and she knows as surely that if she seems to manage all will not go right. "She who never answers till a husband cools And if she rules him, never shews she rules; Charms by accepting, by submitting always, Yet has her humor most when she obeys."

A sensible woman knows all this. And she knows more; she knows how to have smiles ready in the midst of her toil, and sometimes her care smiles for husband and good humor for her friends. The tears are all her own, and almost all that she can well nigh call her own; for a woman will cry at things, that men pass by with indifference; and if she keeps her tears to herself, surely they are her perquisites—her privileges. All these capabilities and soothing powers are expected, ay, and found in a woman. Women ever have, and ever will have, if they do their duty, these duties to perform; and to do them with cheerful patience and a smiling face is the best charm for consistency. Can we fancy man, only for one day, in their position? The servants would all be discharged, the children whipped and sent to bed, and himself by nightfall just fit for Bedlam.

Astonishing Success.

It is the duty of every person who has used Boschee's German Syrup to let its wonderful qualities be known to their friends in curing Consumption, severe Coughs, Croup, Asthma, Pneumonia, and in fact all throat and lung diseases. No person can use it without immediate relief. Three doses will relieve any case, and we consider it the duty of all Druggists to recommend it to the poor dying consumptive, at least to try one bottle, as 40,000 dozen bottles were sold last year, and no one case where it failed was reported. Such a medicine as the German Syrup cannot be too widely known. Ask your Druggist about it. Sample Bottles to try sold at 10 cents. Regular size 75 cents. For sale by all Druggists.

LORNE HIGHLAND WHISKY. THE ANALYTICAL SANITARY INSTITUTION, 54, Holborn-viaduct, E. C., London, Aug. 18, 1879, report on the "Lorne Highland Whisky" of Messrs. Greenlees Brothers:—"We have visited the bottling stores of Messrs. Greenlees Brothers, at Gresham-buildings, London, and have selected from the vats, samples of their Lorne Highland Whisky, and have subjected them to careful examination and analysis. The samples were pale, showing their freedom from added coloring matter, very fragrant, mellow and of pleasant flavor; in fact, they possessed all the characteristics of pure and well-matured Scotch Whisky of the first quality."

ST. MARGARET'S HALL.

HALIFAX, N. S. SEMINARY FOR YOUNG LADIES.

VISITOR: The Lord Bishop of Nova Scotia

PRINCIPAL: The Rev. John Padfield.

THIS SCHOOL offers, at a very moderate cost, the advantages of a comfortable and pleasant home together with a thorough and refined education.

The course of instruction is the same as that of the best Schools in England and is founded upon the University Examinations for Women. Eight young ladies from this School passed the Local Examination of the University of King's College in June last. This is the only School in Canada that has passed pupils at a University Examination.

The number of pupils is limited, rendering the School select, and while it possesses all the educational advantages of a large public school, each pupil is enabled to receive that individual care and oversight which is so important, and which cannot be given in a large establishment.

Mr. and Mrs. Padfield are assisted by a staff of four resident governesses, besides visiting masters.

Parisienne French is taught conversationally. There are two resident French Governesses.

References given to parents of pupils. For further particulars address the Principal. Sept. 19, 1878.

CATARRH.

Constitutional Catarrh Remedy CURES CATARRH.

Hear what a Reverend Gentleman says of the Constitutional Remedy.

T. J. B. HARDING, Esq., Brockville, Ont.:—"DEAR SIR—It is now two years since your "Constitutional Catarrh Remedy" was introduced to me. I have waited this long to see if the cure would remain permanent before doing this, my duty, to you, as at first the happy effects seemed to me to be "too good to be true."

I was afflicted in my head for years before I suspected it to be Catarrh. In reading in your Circular I saw my case described in many particulars. The inward "drop" from the head had become very disagreeable, and a choking sensation often preventing me from lying long. I would feel like smothering and be compelled to sit up in the bed. My health and spirits were seriously affected. When your agent came to Walkertown in August, 1876, I secured three bottles. Before I had used a quarter of the contents of one bottle I found decided relief, and when I had used two bottles and a third, I quit taking it, feeling quite clear of that ailment, and have not used any since until of late I have taken some for a cold in my head.

A sense of duty to sufferers from that loathsome disease, Catarrh, prompts me to send you this Certificate, unsolicited, with leave to make what use of it you may see proper. Yours truly,

W. TINDALL, Methodist Minister. Port Elgin, Ont., Aug. 24, 1878.
