PRESENTED KEYS TO PRINCESS - During the royal tour, Princess Elizabeth and Prince Philip visited various air stations across Canada but their visit to Training Command at Trenton was the official visit to the Royal Canadian Air Force. One of the highlights of this visit was the presentation of the keys to the ceremonial gate to the Princess and this high honor was bestowed on an officer from the Summerside Airport who had been sent from the local port for the occasion. He was P/O Val Burdett, who has been stationed in Summerside for the two and half years-S.

ROTARY MEETING - The regular weekly luncheon meeting of the Summerside Rotary Club was held yesterday with the president, Mr. Ben Taylor, presiding. Mr. Frank Daley of the Summerside office of the Canadian Oil Company was the guest speaker and gave a highly interesting address to the members on the development of the oil industry in Canada since the discovery of oil in the Province of Alberta. Mr. Daley covered various phases of the industry, the pumping of the oil to the Great Lakes, refining of the oil, etc. in a most instructive way. Mr. Ray Stull of Charlottetown was present as a guest of the club-S.

R.C.A.F. Colors Arrive For Royal Visit

On the occasion of the royal visit on Friday, the Royal Canadian Air Force colors will be carried by P/O L. Leboldus and P/O C. R. Foster. The two flags arrived by air at the Summerside Airport on Sunday from Training Command at Trenton and were escorted here by F/L W. H. Morley. On arrival they were presented to Group Captain A. G. Kenningham, officer commanding the Summerside R.C.A.F. Station, on behalf of Training Command and will remain in his custody until used on Friday after which they will be returned, with proper ceremonial, to Training Command.

Bedeque and Vicinity

Miss Mildred Smith, Tryon, is spending a few days in Bedeque, visiting relatives and friends.

Miss Peggy Sherren, Moncton, spent the weekend of Nov. 4th at her home in Central Bedeque.

Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Haslam, Springfield, attended service in Bedeque United Church on Sunday morning, Nov. 4th.

Mr. William Montgomery, Lower Bedeque, left on Monday, Nov. 5th to attend the Amherst Fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Goulding Reeves and daughter, Eleanor, South Freetown, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Doull and son John, and Mrs. Carrie Reeves spent Sunday, Nov. 4th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Frizzell, Baie Verte, N.B.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reeves and Mr. and Mrs. Percy N. Tucker, North Bedeque, left on Saturday morning, Nov. 3rd, by auto for Toronto where the latter plan to spend the winter. Mr. and Mrs. Reeves will return by way of Boston where they will visit Mr. Reeves' sister, Mrs. Stowell.

At the close of the Bedeque United Church service on Sunday morning, Nov. 4th, the congregation considered the advisability of making some provisions for taking care of a refugee family in Europe, as suggested by the "Council of Churches in Canada." A committee composed of Mr. Harrison MacFarlane, Mr. Vernon Craig and Miss Louise Callbeck was appointed to see what arrangements could be made.

H. WELLINGTON, N. Z.-(CP) - The state-owned railways of New Zealand now are carrying more passengers by road than by rail. They operate 6,000 miles of motor-ous routes compared with 3,000 miles of railway, but scheduled bus trips are generally much shorter.
