

Personals Campus Comm

To the tall, good-looking blond at box 14. You know I will always be there for you. Remember the party? All you have to do is say yes.

Hey MM, where the heck are you? Come back soon. AK

FUR: I hear you have a new man -- friendly, well-built, and very, very hairy. I hope you have a fun three week affair. AL

Attention members of I.W.L.C. society. All future meetings will be moved from the Pit to the back door of Main. The Prez.

Don't forget: B.Y.O.S.

Michaudlot: Have you saved any damsels in distress lately? I'm having one heck of a bad week. Gwen.

Tall, dark, green man looking for a mate. Ideally she is 6' tall, has a great sense of humour, and enjoys nights out on the town. Contact Frank at Box 5 at the newspaper office.

S.R.: I saw you at the Pit, you looked like you wanted a smoke. Why don't you and I go for coffee in a smokers only area? Sincerely, the girl with the red beret. Talk to me next time.

So, P.R. I didn't know you were one of us. Let's meet at the spot. Ducky.

This week's question: "What do you think of the new Non-Smoking Pit?"

Chad Thompson, 1st year science: "I think it's great, because I can hang out there any time I want while I wouldn't have been able to before, because I am allergic to tobacco smoke."

Jennifer James, 1st year education: "I think it could be divided into two sections: one for smokers and one for non-smokers. Or make another Pit and call it "The Other Pit" or "The Deeper Pit."

Allison Lampert, 1st year science: "It lacks some atmosphere and what will the smokers do in the winter? The clean air does, however, make for a cleaner environment."

Joanne Duckworth, 3rd year business: "It doesn't bother me. Even if it wasn't smoking it wouldn't stop me from going there."

Randy Burrows, 4th year Business: "They sell donuts at the Pit, don't they?"

Tom Beveridge, 2nd year arts: "It looks neater and cleaner and you can walk past without having to smell the bad air."

Judy MacIntyre, 4th year science: "I think it's very discriminating. Smokers and non-smokers have equal right to sit where they want, but I still don't want to intrude on non-smokers"
