

FERRY ON SLIP AT GEORGETOWN

The Newport 2nd, the ferry that operates between Georgetown and Newport is shown on the slip at Georgetown. The slip is operated by the Department of Industry and National Resources. It was officially opened on August 15th of last year. The slip was designed primarily to service draggers at a lower rate than they would have to pay on a commercial slip and to provide facilities for necessary repairs without going to another province.

BEAUTIES AIR BEEFS

Latest post-mortem on the highly criticized Miss Universe pageant involves Sonia Hamilton (Miss England), left, who has hotly denied rumors that she was over the age limit of 28. Like many of the disgruntled contestants, Sonia complained that the judges didn't place enough emphasis on the face. Other contestants grumbled that Gerti Daub, centre (Miss Germany) should have won, while Canada's Gloria Noakes right, termed the whole contest a "rat race." She turned down four movie offers to return to her fiancé in Toronto and wedding bells. "They can have all that glamour," she sniffed.

Hundreds of persons who tried to beat the above 70-degree temperature during the night by camping out in waterfront parks were caught unawares by an unexpected down-pour early Tuesday.

CARD OF THANKS

Mrs. William Johnston and family wish to thank all neighbors and friends for their many acts of kindness during the illness and death of Mr. Johnston also all those who sent flowers, cards, and messages of sympathy.

WILLIAM JOHNSTON

The community of Sturgeon and surrounding districts were shocked and deeply grieved to hear on June 26th of the death in the P.E.I. Hospital of William Johnston in his 66th year.

He was the son of the late William Johnston and Elizabeth Clary of Milltown Cross, P.E.I.

He leaves to mourn his passing his wife (nee Elizabeth Llewellyn) and two sons Gordon of Sturgeon and Sgt Albert of Kingston, Ontario and five grandchildren; also one half brother and one half sister both of Boston Mass.

His funeral which was one of the largest in the community was held on Saturday June 29th at the home and was conducted by the pastor the Rev. W.A. Paterson assisted by Rev. Bryer Jones, New Glasgow, P.E.I. The Hymns sung were 23rd Psalm What a Friend We Have in Jesus and He Leadeth Me. The Beautiful Land was very feelingly rendered by the Brooklyn Trio.

Pall bearers were Richard Llewellyn, William Llewellyn, George Clary, John Clary, Russell Moore, and Gavin MacLeod.

BRISTOL

Very Rev. O. J. McInerney, Winnipeg, left last week on return to the Island. Father McInerney spent most of his boyhood in Bristol. He attended the old St. Peter's Harbour School. His mother was Alice Sinnott, a sister of the late Archbishop Sinnott. She moved back to the old home from the U.S.A. to reside until her son now Father Owen was ordained. She then moved to Winnipeg to be near him and other members of her family. Many of the father's old school mates are still here.

A welcome visitor here last week was Mr. Vince Lund, from Ottawa, on his annual vacation. It was very pleasant to see Vince around again and especially looking so well. He stopped over in Moncton for a few days with his brother Bill, C.N.R. policeman there and Mrs. Lund. He leaves again this week for the capital city to resume his duties.

Mrs. Bernard MacDonald has returned home from the Charlottetown Hospital after being a patient there for more than a month.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter McLellan, Indian River, were visitors here last week guests of Mr. and Mrs. P.R. Sinnott.

Some changes have been made around the dominion government work at Red Head Harbour. Mr. Herb Hawbolt, foreman on the job under the Liberal government and Mr. Roy Cairns have both been relieved of the positions and replaced by other men.

Mr. Gordon McEwen, has joined the Government boat Saurel, and it is understood Mr. Charlie Mosher, is slated for a job on one of the government boats.

Mr. Clement Sinnott, who gave up his banking career a few years ago after quite some time to join the Singer Sewing Machine Company is going back to the banking career in the near future. He will join one of the city branches. His years of experience in meeting the public will be valuable to both him and the bank.

Mr. Leo Daveaux, has returned to his home in Halifax, after spending his vacation with his sister and brother-in-law here, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Kenefick.

3 Building Permits Are Approved

At a special meeting of the Montague Town Council held in the council chambers last night, permits were issued to three citizens, one for building, one for moving a building and renovating, and the other for extending and enlarging a garage. All were in compliance with the town of Montague by laws.

Councillor Fraser expressed the opinion that a notice should be posted in the Post Office so that people would know that a permit is required before moving a building, building or renovating.

Present were Councillors: Green, Clements, Vanierstine, Nicholson, Fraser, with His Worship Bruce H. Yeo presiding. Also present were five interested citizens who received congratulations from His Worship on their interest in town affairs. Mayor Yeo expressed the desire that it should become a more common practice

Y Delegates Are Hostile

TORONTO (CP)—Three Israeli delegates and one from Egypt sat Monday night at the head table of a convention aimed at promoting world fellowship. They ignored each other.

They are attending the 33rd annual international convention of the Y's Men's Clubs, service club of the YMCA.

During the convention one of the Israelis, George Haddad, an Arab, approached the Egyptian, Ayad Morgan, and offered his hand. But Mr. Morgan walked off when he saw the word Israel on Mr. Haddad's name tag.

"They won't even talk with us at a YMCA meeting which is non-political," said another Israeli, Samuel Shirlinsky.

Mr. Morgan refused to pose for a picture with the Israelis. "Our countries are at war," he said.
