

THE DAILY EXAMINER.

OCTOBER 17, 1892

The Northumberland Tunnel.

We note that some of the papers are... The fact that the borings, so far as they have been made, have proved beyond a doubt that the bed of the strait is pre-eminently suitable for tunnelling.

The Straits Tunnel.

THE party working on the borings have dispersed for the season. Mr. Hendry, C. E., has been ordered to Ottawa. The cores were carefully arranged, marked and packed in cotton, so as to stand transportation safely.

Bengough on Missions.

Yesterday the spacious basement of the First Methodist Church was literally packed when Mr. J. W. Bengough appeared on the platform. At half-past three o'clock the exercises began with a solo—"The World is Growing Better," rendered by Mr. James R. Davison.

Wedding at St. Peter's.

At St. Peter's Church, in this city, was celebrated this afternoon at 2 o'clock, the marriage of Mr. D. A. McKinnon, barrister of Georgetown, to Miss Louise Owen, the eldest daughter of Charles Owen, Esq., Collector of Customs, at the same place.

The Railway.

As the nights grow longer and colder, the complaints of the people concerning the present arrangement of trains become louder and stronger. With the fall traffic, the trains are tardier than ever.

News Notes

Colorado has already had a snowstorm. Cholera has appeared in Warsaw, Russia. Up to date 106,011 barrels of apples have been shipped from Montreal this season.

We announce to-day with great regret, the death of H. M. Churchill, Esq. The sad event took place at Rustico last evening.

The monthly statement of exports of farm products from the United States shows that the decrease in exports exceeded $14,000,000 for September, and $26,000,000 for the quarter ended with the month of September.

The Australians are perhaps the most enterprising people in the world. In spite of a terrible all-prevailing trade and financial depression they are just now talking about the opening up of the arid interior districts which form a sort of Australian Sahara.

SUICIDE AT CRAPAUD.

Man and Wife Found Dead.

(Special by telephone.) Dr. Byrne and his wife were found dead in their house at Victoria to-day. The cause of death is said to be "poison." It is thought they suicided. The unfortunate couple formerly lived in Charlottetown where Dr. Byrne practiced his profession, that of a veterinary surgeon.

Boston Markets.

BOSTON, Oct. 13. POTATOES.—Receipts have been much larger this week and for a day or prices eased off a little, but at the close there is a good demand for choice Aroostock Hebrons at 88c. White stars and Burbanks are moving rather slowly at 70 and 75c.

EGGS.—Receipts have been a lighter this week and strictly choice fresh stock in good demand, with prices showing some improvement towards the close. Eastern extras have been in limited supply and are firm at 23c. Best Michigan in steady demand, some fancy marks at 28c.

FISH.—Codfish continue in steady demand and are held for full prices. Box herring remains quiet. Bil. herring steady. Mackerel keep well sold up and the market is firm at quotations:

Table with 2 columns: Fish type and Price. Includes items like Cod, dry shores, large; Haddock, Bay shore gibbed; Mackerel, extra, 1/2 bil.

Personal.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Parker Carvell are staying at the Queen Hotel. The Misses Murphy have returned from their trip to Massachusetts. Mr. T. B. Grady, station agent at Summerside, was in the city yesterday.

The Ottawa evening papers state that James O'Regan, nephew of Archbishop O'Brien, has been appointed assistant bishop of the supreme court.

Mr. James McIsaac, of the Herald, arrived home from his holiday trip to the Pacific Coast on Saturday evening. He had a pleasant trip and saw many of his countrymen in the West.

A Winnipeg despatch says: Hon. D. Ferguson, of Prince Edward Island, is here to select a large tract of land on which a company, of which he is the head, proposes establishing a colony of Prince Edward Island farmers.

Mr. Geo. W. Swinburne, jr., of Newport, R. I., Colonel Waring's Engineer, arrived here on Saturday evening to make estimates, etc., on sewerage for the city. He will begin work to-morrow. Mr. Swinburne is registered at the Hotel Davies.

Temyson was fond of his "churchwarden" clay pipe, his bird's eye tobacco, of fair women and pretty girls, of shorthorned cattle, of dairy management and of harvest homes, and he was never more happy than when riding from the meadow to the rick-yard on the last load of sweet new-mown hay.

At the Queen Hotel on Saturday there were registered F. H. Dixon, St. Peter's; W. Dixon, Kollo Bay; F. M. Ely, Boston; Thomas Dixon, Magalloway; F. J. Macdonald, Glenaladale; Mrs. McLean and son, Georgetown; Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Carvell, Miss Carey, Miss Palmer, City; Jos. Demers, St. Catherine's, Ont. To-day: S. C. Clarke, Mt. Stewart; J. G. Toombs, M. D., do; Hattie McLaren, Montague; Lillian E. Poole, do.

Delay is Dangerous.

When the kidneys are out of order delay is dangerous. Any disease may follow and become so well established that months of suffering will follow. A gentle tonic like Dodd's Kidney Pills is always acceptable to the kidneys and protects them from disease. They are a kidney food.

THE GULFARRIVE arrived in port on Saturday. STALLION RACE.—We are informed that the owners of the well known "wing stallions" Elmo, Parkside, Golden and Harry C, have entered their horses for the big stallion race on the Georgetown Driving Park on the 24th inst.

SHIPPING NEWS.—The steamer Gulfarrive arrived here from Glasgow on Saturday afternoon about five o'clock, after a summer work surveying. Captain Aylward, of Southport, is loading two schooners at that place for the Newfoundland market.

THE COLLEMBISH ANNIVERSARY.—By order of His Lordship Bishop Macdonald, a solemn High Mass of St. Andrew, commemorating the discovery of America by Columbus was celebrated yesterday in the Roman Catholic churches of this diocese. In St. Dunstan's Cathedral His Lordship the Bishop officiated, assisted by Rev. Fathers Morrison, Reid and Hoggan, with Rev. Father McAnlay as director of ceremonies. Rev. Dr. Morrison, rector of St. Dunstan's College, preached an able sermon on the occasion, and special music was furnished by the choir. There was a large congregation.
