Social Evening At Margate Parsonage

The Rev. and Mrs. Samuel Haslam entertained at the Margate United Church Parsonage on Friday, March 20th, at a social evening sponsored by the Margate Y. P. U. In spite of the softening conditions of the roads there was a good attendance, and a pleasant evening was had by all with the following program of musical numbers, games and contests. Mr. Heath Mayhew capably played the role of Master of Ceremonies.

Snowshoe Race put on by Mrs. George Mayhew. Piano Solo — Valerie Woodside, (encored). Murphy's Patchwork Quilt and Irish Bingo — Mrs. Arthur Proffitt. Xylophone Solo — Mr. Haslam, (encored). Riddle Contest — Mrs. Hillard Woodside. Piano Accordion Solo — Ross

Eden, (encored). Balloon Race — Mrs. George Mayhew. Vocal Duet — Margaret and Jean Murray, (encored). Piano Solo — Ross Davison, (encored). Solo — Margaret Murray, (encored). Sing-song led by the Rev. Mr. Murray. The chairman, on behalf of the Y. P. U., thanked all who took part in the program as well as Mr. and Mrs. Haslam who opened their home for the occasion. A delicious and bountiful lunch was served.

EDEN SENDS REGRETS

TORONTO (CP)—Anthony Eden will be unable to open the 1953 Canadian National Exhibition, J. A. Northey, ONE president, said Tuesday. Mr. Northey said he had received written regrets from the British statesman that, because of the pressure of other engagements, he won't be free for a visit to Canada this year.

St. Patrick's Day In Kensington

For the past fifty years St. Patrick's Day has been celebrated in Kensington by the time honored custom of the presentation of an amateur play, staged by the Indian River Dramatic Club. Each year sees several young people making their debut in amateur theatricals.

1953 was no exception and the annual event looked for by everyone in Kensington and vicinity, was an outstanding success. Miss Roma McCloskey, Mr. Andrew Turner and Mrs. Allan McLellan, the new comers this year, combined with such well known performers as Mrs. Hilda Ramsay, Miss Agatha McLellan, Mr. Bernard McLellan, Mr. Allie McNeill and Mr. Gerald Glover to present a play with a heart warming story and just enough comedy to please the sons of Erin on St. Patrick's Day. Specialties between the acts included instrumental music by Mr. and Mrs. Willard Brown, vocal numbers by Mrs. Roscoe Walker and the four McDonald sisters of Charlottetown and the even popular step-dancing by Miss Myrtle Perry.

Piusville And Vicinity

Mr. and Mrs. Lance Dalton and family of Miscouche were visiting on Thursday March 14th at the home of Mrs. Dalton's mother, Mrs. Ambrose Corcoran.

Miss Anita Gallant, employed in the Western Hospital, Alberton, spend a day recently at her home in Piusville.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin McGregor and Mr. Johnny Griffin were in Piusville on March 20th.

Quite a few from Piusville attended the variety concert held in St. Mark's Hall Lot 7 on St. Patrick's night.

Mr. Dale Corcoran spent March 21st week-end in St. Louis, the guest of his sister, Mrs. William O'Brien and Mr. O'Brien.

Mr. Robert Arsenault, Howlan, was through this district on Saturday March 21st on business.

The good sleighing of the week of March 16th was very much appreciated by those who had hauling to do. A lot of lumber has been hauled to the mill, as well as firewood.

Friends and relatives of Mr. Howard O'Halloran, Brocton, are sorry to learn he is a patient in the Western Hospital, Alberton.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Corcoran and Cheryl motored to Charlottetown on Sunday March 22nd.

Kensington Lady Celebrates Birthday

The neighbors and friends of Mrs. Catherine Goodwin, Kensington, gathered on Saturday March 21st, to celebrate with her the 81st anniversary of her birth.

The festivities began early in the evening with Mrs. Roy McArthur as pianist playing some of the old favorite songs, with several singers harmonizing. Others who took a leading part in the musical program were Mrs. Willard Brown and Mrs. Fred Parker, pianists, and Messrs Allan Murphy and Fred Parker, vocalists.

During an interlude Mr. James Pendergast expressed the sentiments of those present, congratulating Mrs. Goodwin and wishing her many more years to enjoy her secret of perpetual youth. A shower of gifts was then presented to the happy celebrant who expressed her gratitude in her own charming way.

The ladies served a bountiful lunch, including a beautiful birthday cake baked by Mrs. Roy McArthur. In the sing-song which completed the program the whole assembly joined hands and sang "Happy Birthday to You," "For She's A Jolly Good Fellow," and finally, "God Save the Queen."

Shower To Honour Bride-Elect

A very enjoyable evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Mayhew on February 11th when a host of friends and relatives gathered to tender their daughter Mary a miscellaneous shower and best wishes in honour of her approaching marriage.

During the playing of "Here Comes The Bride," by Mrs. Wallace Reeves, the bride-to-be, prettily attired in a navy taffeta dress was escorted to the seat of honour which was gaily decorated under an arch of pink and white streamers, by Miss Mildred Reeves. The gifts were opened by Mrs. Wallace Reeves, Mrs. Ira Nicholson and Mrs. Stanley Mayhew, while Mrs. Gordon Cotton read the accompanying verses and passed them to the bride. The gifts were then arranged on a table by Mildred Reeves. The many and lovely gifts included china, glassware, blankets, electrical appliances, towels and a sum of money. Mary immediately rose to the occasion with a very fitting reply thanking one and all for their kindness and inviting everyone to visit her at her home in Summerside whenever they had an opportunity. A dainty lunch was served by the ladies and a social hour was enjoyed after which all departed to their homes wishing Mary every happiness in the future.

School Debate At Kensington

The Grade X pupils of Kensington School were heard in an interesting debate on Thursday, March 19th, at the monthly meeting of the Home and School Association.

The subject of the debate was "Resolved that travelling is more educational than reading." Speakers in favor of the resolution were: Ruth Cameron, Rebecca Jardine, Marion McArthur and Thane Mann. Speakers against the resolution were: Reggie Pendergast, Helen MacMillan, Charlie Cooke and Myrna Cousins.

The judges, Mrs. Carrie Kennedy, Rev. Mr. Haslam and Dr. J. L. Higgins, gave their decision in favor of the Con speakers. All of the youthful debaters were congratulated by Rev. Louis Murray on the splendid way in which they delivered their first speech in public.

Mr. Murray offered several suggestions to help the speakers in future debates. Mrs. J. L. Saunders added her congratulations and commendation. All of the speakers were awarded tokens of appreciation by the Home and School Association.

A delicious lunch was served by the lunch committee during the social hour which featured a sing-song with Rev. L. Murray as pianist.

Routine business during the regular meeting period included the reading of a letter from the provincial president and the voting of $10.00 towards the provincial budget.

It was decided to invite the travelling International Art Display for showing in Kensington. Discussion on the approaching Musical Festival resulted in the selection of date for pre-festival concert, with further arrangements left for next meeting. A very enjoyable meeting closed by singing "God Save the Queen."
