

SATURDAY

CAR RALLY

Left? Right! Up this street! Stop! we're lost! Help!

Yes, that's right once again we're giving you the chance to tour the beautiful city of Charlottetown and its outlying areas (depending on how lost you get) during the UPEI car rally. At 11:00 a.m. Saturday, Feb. 7th you're all invited along with your cars down to the Barn. Pat Kelly is now planning the route you'll take and it should be a fun time for all so get an application form at the Barn and who knows, you might win some prizes for coming in first, last, or just finding your way home.

Scavenger Hunt

For those of you without cars, we've planned a special event known as a scavenger hunt. Our expert scavenger hunter, Anne Know, has graciously said she'll arrange the hunt and with Annie at the controls heaven only knows what you'll be hunting for. So get involved and plan to come out on Saturday, Feb. 7 at 11:00 a.m. Get your application forms at the Barn and we'll see you then.

Kloset Queen

Beauty is only skin deep but ugliness goes to the bone!! Well, when you see these beauties you'll see the real reasoning behind this phrase. If your unfamiliar with our Kloset Queen Contest then just ask any guy and he'll tell you what its about. You see, underneath all that make-up and female clothing is really some sweet guy who wants to see whats its like on the other side of the fence (i.e. being a female). Prizes will be awarded to the guy who best imitates his image of the ideal woman. As well, there will be a Miss Congeniality Award. So girls, if you have any old clothes you'd like to see modelled by real bruts, I mean beautes, then contact Grace in 312 Bernadine or Jackie in 120 Blanchard. Applications for prospective Kloset Queens are available at the Barn.
