

MRS. PERCY DAWSON

Crapaud and vicinity were shocked to learn of the passing away of Mrs. Percy Dawson at the Craupaud Island Hospital on Thursday, May 5th. Even though she had been in poor health for the past year, her passing came as a great shock to all.

Mrs. Dawson was born in North Tryon in 1889 and in 1908 she married Percy Dawson who survives. In 1915 they moved to Craupaud where she resided until her death.

Besides her husband, four daughters and two sons are left to mourn her passing. Lea, in Ottawa; Mrs. Arthur Johnston (Jessie), in Charlottetown; Robert, at Craupaud; Mrs. George Clark (Jeanette), in Halifax; Mrs. John Colebrook (Ethel), in Revelstoke, B. C.; Mrs. Kenneth Paynter (Mildred), at Craupaud; also eleven Grandchildren.

Card of Thanks

The Dawson family wish to say a sincere thank you to the nurses and staff of the P. E. I. Hospital, Dr. Mackenzie, Dr. MacDonald, Mr. Heath Chisholm of Tryon, and to their friends and neighbours for their many acts of kindness, also to all those who sent flowers and cards of sympathy, during their recent sad bereavement.

Ellen's Diary

A fine cake you will have! The machine was still now, the batter in the pan on the way to the oven. "And now for the frosting!" Jeanie smiled.

"Is there to be frosting made? Oh boy!" Mack chuckled in nice anticipation.

"Then remember, if there's any left over it belongs to..." "It's... well, as you say, it may be finer, but I wouldn't say it tastes one bit better than that made by hand..."

All went well however. And as it happened it was a "fair-good" cake, it's making instituting, we would venture to say, a new era of food mixing at this old house at Alderlea...

Today it was a gift from bygone days that Jeanie brought us: a pair of pillow shams which had come to her in a play of circumstance.

"For the spare room!" she chuckled. "I wouldn't know what to do with them in the House across the Lane."

"How does one use them?" Granddaughter asked. Jeanie shook her head. "I'm sure I don't know!" she said.

Happy Holidays! IF YOU DRIVE... Stop for TEA
