SUDDEN DEATH AT VICTORIA.—Mr. Wm. A. McQuarrie, a lobster packer, died last evening. He was down on the wharf yesterday afternoon about two o'clock taking out a schooner, when some friends noticed him stagger and they immediately took him home. He gradually grew worse and died at 10 o'clock last night from paralysis of the brain. He was 32 years of age and leaves a wife and two children. He was a sober and industrious man. LET BROTHERLY LOVE CONTINUE.—Yesterday, at the eastern end of the city, two brothers quarrelled, as brothers sometimes do. From words they came to blows. In the midst of the altercation the mother came to the rescue of the younger brother and smote the elder one with a poker over the eye, inflicting a wound and putting a damper on his pugilistic ardor. The wind-up will probably take place in the police court with a magistrate as referee.

THE OWNERSHIP of the medal presented by T. B. Mathers, Esq., is not yet decided. In the aggregate, three competitors are equal, viz., R. C. Dewar, W. W. Jenkins and W. A. Jenkins, each scoring 81 points. They will fire off at it such time as the Association Council will decide.

At Nabua, N. H., on Friday, Edith H. made an attempt to break the state record of 2.12, but failed by four seconds. There will be special fare to and from Summerside in connection with the races to be held there on Wednesday. Particulars will be found in another column. The mare Beulah, owned by J. H. Laney, of Amherst, captured the first prize in the three minute class at Moncton on Saturday. The lay mare Minnie, also owned by Mr. Laney, won in the 2.45 class. The first race was won in straight heats, and it took six heats to decide the matter. At Bangor, on Friday, Louise, ch. m. pacer, owned by R. D. Waite, of Fairfield, won the 2.35 class, trot and pace, purse $100, in straight heats; Panchon second; Little Miss third; Tidemarc fourth. Time, 2:31, 2:31, 2:30. The 2.25 trot did not fill, and its place was trotted a match race between Camille, b. m.; W. A. Dering, Orland and Orono Boy, blk. g., C. T. Page, Orono. Camille won in four heats. Time, 2:29, 2:27, 2:31, 2:30.

In the 2.15 trot at Old Orchard, Me., on Friday, Lynn Bell got the heat at 2:10 and Vega won the second by a neck. To the astonishment of everyone Caprice won the next three heats hands down and came in an easy winner. Best time 2:13, made in the last heat. In the 2.30 pace Templeton, who got the first two heats, was distanced in the third. Pilgrim won the next three and the race. The best time was 2:17 made by Templeton in the first heat. The best time in the 2.25 trot was 2:10, made by Vitello who captured the race. The purse for each race was $500.

At St. John, on Friday the firemen and police played a match game which was witnessed by upwards of 2,000 persons. Score, 24 to 23 in favor of the firemen. Cleveland leads in the National League series with per centage of 612, 53 games won and 35 lost. Boston stands sixth, and New York ninth.
