

Bacon Literature.

"I am getting up in the world," as the gudgeon said when dragging out of the water. "Setting a man-trap" is the title given to the picture of a pretty young lady arranging her curls at a mirror.

A Youth, with a turn for figures, had five eggs to boil, and being told to give them three minutes each, boiled them a quarter of an hour altogether.

A Western editor must be in a bad fix. Having dunned a subscriber for his subscription, he not only refused to pay, but threatened to flog the editor if he stopped the paper.

An enterprising quack has contrived to extract from sausages a powerful tonic, which he says contains the whole strength of the original bark; he calls it the "sulphate of canine."

An old bachelor gives the following as a toast:—"The ladies, the only endurable aristocracy, who rule without laws, judge without jury, decide without appeal, and are never in the wrong."

An old Scotchman having been asked her opinion as to "the minister," said he was a particularly powerful preacher:—"He had na' been in th' place a week before he kicked th' pulpit a' to pieces, and banged the in'ards out o' sax Bibles."

When an acquaintance says, "How are you?" and pushes by you without waiting for a reply, I wouldn't, if I were in your place, follow him more than a mile to tell him you are well.

A convenient way of testing the affections of your intended is to marry another woman. If she don't love you you will know it at once.

Do to other men as they would like to do unto you, and they won't have enough money in two weeks to have a shirt washed.

The song "Dear mother, I've come home to die," always struck me as a happy illustration of American assurance. Our young people go abroad to spend the hard earnings of the old folks, and when they are dead broke, return home to be buried at the expense of their impoverished parents.

Why is the letter "u" of more value than cream? Because it makes better butter.

An unmistakable case of "black balling"—A crying negro baby.

A (H)ODIDEA.—A man carrying a bucket of lime on his head must be a sub-lime character.

PEOPLE WHO ALWAYS DO A DRIVING BUSINESS.—The proprietors of Livery Stables.

"To-morrow" is the day in which idle men work, and fools reform.

Bad place for a box—on your ear.

PASSION.—The boiler, of which common sense is the safety valve.

PERTNESS.—The wit of the ignorant.

PIMPLE.—The bud of the blossom grown on a rum shrub.

Better black boots than character; but by far the largest number engage in the latter art.

The kind of tooth powder young ladies should use who object to being kissed—"The O-don't-oh! (Odonto).

An Illinois paper says there is a man in Olney so dirty that the assessors put him down as real estate.

An editor in Illinois gives notice that "there will be no paper this week," as his wife is using the scissors.

Moral Gems.

One of the most touchingly simple wills was left by the German pastor Holy zaphel, of Reinfritz. It consists of this one line only:—"My soul to God, my body to earth, my money to my deaf and dumb hospital."

On returning from church a boy remarked to his mother, "Well mother, I shall never forget that preacher—he is the best of all I ever heard!" "Why so, my boy?" "Oh, mother, because he was so funny." "Do I joke in my pulpit, and am I more notorious for "fun" than for my piety?"

A New England merchant who had accumulated a vast property by care and industry, yet still as busy as ever, in adding vessel to vessel and store to store, though considerable advanced in life, being asked by a neighbor, how much property he supposed would satisfy a human being—after a short pause replied, "A little more."

Ask no one to be surety for your debts, neither be surety for debts. God forbids. "He that hateth suretyship shall be sure."—Prov. 6-1, 2, 3 and 4; also 11th chap. and 15th.

The rich may dress, and feed, and ride and live in ways of their own choosing; but as to getting to heaven, there is only God's way—the way of the poor. They may fare sumptuously every day, but there is only one sort of Manna.

Never insure your life for the benefit of your wife for a greater sum than ten thousand dollars. A widow with more money than that is a dangerous legacy to leave posterity.

The "game of life" is very much like a game of cards. Time deals, death cuts, and everybody is waiting for the last trump.

I think men drink in crowds because they are afraid to drink by themselves. It requires considerable courage to stand up alone and pour a glass of whisky down your throat.

There are some inconsistencies in this world that I don't exactly understand. A body is anxious to get to heaven, and is in a hurry about it.

Without enemies, I would not be his friends. The body hasn't got anybody.

Startling, but True! THE dark age of medication now draw to a close. Dr. Maggell's two grand specifics—PILLS and SALVE—have a ruck at the root of the cruel idea that make it necessary for a man to pour masses of dead and effete drugs down his throat to aid the cure of his disease.

ONE TO TWO PILLS are enough at an time for any man to take if the pills are made of pure, unadulterated drugs. MAGGELL'S PILLS and SALVE are superseding all the stereotyped specifics of the day, because they are made of the finest materials in the laboratory, and never fail.

FOR DISEASES OF THE Kidneys, Retention of the Urine, &c., Maggell's Pills are a perfect cure. One dose will satisfy any one.

FOR FEMALE DISEASES, Nervous Prostration, Weakness, General Lassitude, Want of Appetite, Maggell's Pills will be found an effectual remedy.

MAGGELL'S PILLS and SALVE are almost universal in their effects, and a cure can be almost always guaranteed.

£3 17s. 6d. THE CELEBRATED COMMON SENSE FAMILY SEWING MACHINE. Improved and Perfected.

EVERY MACHINE WARRANTED FOR FIVE YEARS. For elegance of Finish it has no Rival, High Price or Low.

Simple, Durable, Compact, and Cheap. The Celebrated Common Sense Family Sewing Machine is now presented to the public, with all the improvements that can well be combined in a Sewing Machine. Great labor and pains have been bestowed to bring this Machine into the very highest state in the scale of Sewing Machines. It is acknowledged by the best Judges to stand entirely above and beyond any cheap Machine ever produced before.

It will sew anything that can be sewed on any high priced machine in the land, just as nicely and just as rapidly. It will sew from Swiss Muslin up to Beaver Cloth, at the rate of twelve hundred stitches per minute.

This machine has a new style of feeding apparatus, which makes the Machine self-guiding. The cloth, without the aid of either hand, will run nearly as true as when guided by Barum's self-sewer. This is an advantage not possessed by any other machine in the world, high price or low. This is one reason why this machine is so easily managed by children. A girl with only one hand can use it more successfully than she could ordinary machines with two hands.

This Machine will Sew, Hem, Fell, tuck, Quilt, Cord, Bind, Braid, and Embroider in a most superior manner. Printed Instructions, German or English, Screw Driver, Hammer, Oil Can, Four Needles, and Table Clamp, accompany each Machine without extra cost. These Machines can be seen at Harvie's Book Store.
