Dr. W. J. P. MacMillan, O.B.E., K.C.S.G. and Dr. G. D. Steel, retired Principal of the College, who were among the first five Alumni to be honored, received their awards last night.

The other award winners were: Dr. Cyrus MacMillan, Mrs. Annie McGrath Robertson and Dr. H. H. Shaw, Charlottetown.

Local Play Cast Considers Trip To Cape Breton

The question of whether the cast of "Papa Is All", the Little Theatre Guild production recently returned from London, Ontario, would consider going to Cape Breton is invited to appear there, was one of the main subjects of discussion at an executive meeting of the Little Theatre Guild last evening.

It is understood that Cape Breton is holding a week of Festival in August and inviting an opera and a ballet to appear during that week. While the local group were in London they were approached to see if they would be interested in appearing, all expenses paid, and the meeting last evening decided to look into the question further before calling the cast together for a final decision.

The meeting was held at the home of the President, Mr. T. Harry Morris, and other items of interest which were discussed at length were the forthcoming children's production of "Hansel and Gretel", and the musical revue, "Feelin' Festive", which is to be the L.T.G.'s contribution to the Charlottetown Festive Week.

Rebe Scantlebury, director of the children's play announced her production was progressing favorably, with tentative dates set for the middle of June.

Memberships for the forthcoming season were discussed and it was decided these should be on sale at the door on the evenings of the performances of "Hansel and Gretel".

Before adjourning the meeting, Mr. Morris expressed the sincere appreciation of the executive to the cast of "Papa" for the excellent work they had done when competing as a Dominion Drama finalist.

Chief Justice Deplores Deterioration Of English Language Study In Prov.

Chief Justice Thane A. Campbell deplored the deterioration in English language studies in this Province in addressing the ninety-first convocation gathering at Prince of Wales College yesterday morning.

Speaking as the President of the newly-formed P.W.C. Alumni Association, Chief Justice Campbell urged the graduates, especially those who have chosen teaching as a profession, to emphasize the study of the English language in their classes.

He continued by saying his criticism did not reflect on the College, as all fundamentals in this subject should have been learned by the students previous to their entering P.W.C.

He also told the large audience that the elimination of Greek and Latin from certain schools in the Province did not, in his opinion, work out as the sponsors or advocates of such elimination had maintained it would. He stated their purpose in the elimination of these subjects was that it would enable the students to gain a more thorough knowledge of the English language, but that it had not worked out this way.

Chief Justice Campbell warned the students they must not fall victims to the belief expressed in some quarters that P.W.C. students were wasting their time in taking two years of study in preparation for University work. He said that when he was Premier province men had approached him advocating the construction of a high school in Charlottetown, and using as their argument that students attending high schools in this Province only spent one year there after grade ten in order to gain entrance to university. He stated he had replied to this argument by stating that Charlottetown, in Prince of Wales College, already had a fine high school as there was in Canada and was privileged in having an institution where students might remain for a further two years' study.

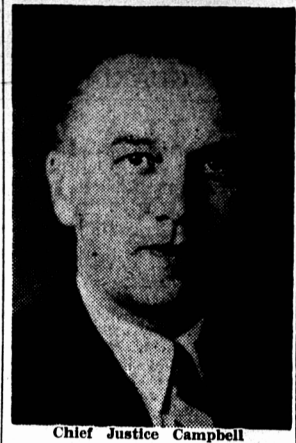

Referring to various scholarships and bursaries available to students of P.W.C., Chief Justice Campbell said the people of this Province have not become scholarship conscious. He cited the fact that no student studying in the Province had secured a Rhodes scholarship since 1926, and that two Island students, studying in mainland colleges, had obtained Rhodes scholarships in that time.

He continued by saying it was one of the purposes of the new Alumni Association to remedy this apparent lack of interest in scholarship and bursaries. The speaker referred to the great and enduring work done for the College and the people of the Province by two previous principals, the late Dr. S. N. Robertson and Dr. G. D. Steel, recently retired, and congratulated Dr. F. A. MacKinnon, the present principal, on the excellent work he was doing.

Congratulations were also extended by the speaker to Lieutenant Governor T. W. L. Prowse on his first public appearance as the representative of the King, and Valedictorian, Bruce Wood, of Pownal, on the high quality of his valedictory.

Following an address by Dr. Frank A. MacKinnon, earlier in the program, Valedictorian Bruce Moore delivered a speech of inspiration and encouragement to his fellow graduates and other students of the college. He referred to the friendships made during the years at P.W.C., and of memories which will be cherished by the students down through the years.

He commented on the forward strides in student life during the past four years, and expressed the gratitude of the graduating class to the members of the faculty for their untiring efforts. In closing he addressed his fellow graduates, and urged them to recognize God their teacher until such time as they should reach their final graduation.

Former Island Woman Dies In Montana, U.S.A.

Mrs. W. M. Flynn, Charlottetown received the sad news of the death of her sister, Mrs. Frank J. Reyleck in St. Joseph's Hospital, Lewistown, Montana on May 9.

Mrs. Reyleck was the former Grace Patterson Lewis, daughter of the late William Patterson Lewis formerly of Cardigan, P. E. I., and Dumfries and Glasgow, Scotland, and Agnes Smith of Edinburgh.

She went to the Dakotas many years ago, at first visiting her brothers Thomas and John Douglas Lewis, contractors in those states. She later married Mr. Reyleck who at that time was a wholesale shoe dealer.

Following the death of their son Benedict they moved to Winifred, Montana where they were among the first settlers and set up in general retail business. Mrs. Reyleck was one of the pioneers in the oil business in that area and the owner of several grain elevators on her ranches.

She was always a leading citizen and was widely known for her activity in the community in which she resided. She was a devout member of the Roman Catholic Faith and together with her husband was instrumental in commencing the construction of the first Catholic Church in Winifred. Several times she was recognized by the Pope for her zeal and charity.

Mrs. Reyleck was buried in New Prague, Minnesota, by the side of her husband, who predeceased her a number of years ago, and their son, Benedict.

Mrs. W. M. Flynn, Charlottetown is the only surviving member of the family. Misses Bernadette and Grace Lewis and Mrs. Andrew S. MacDonald, all of Cardigan and Mrs. W. J. MacDonald of Charlottetown are nieces.

New Temperance Secretary Welcomed

"A rising tide of interest in the problems of alcohol on the part of leaders in business, education and public life is evident in all parts of Canada," said Rev. John Linton in his address to the Welcome Banquet held in his honor at the Baptist Church Hall at Charlottetown last evening.

Mr. Linton has just completed a tour of New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and Newfoundland, and in his address stated that the problem is greater today because of the increased amount of alcoholic beverages available, and the greater tension under which people are living today. The new approach to the problem is to realize that there is no easy solution, that a very real challenge exists, and that only the moral and spiritual emphasis that the Christian Church can give will enable man to rise to the level of the truth as he knows it.

Nearly sixty men and women from various parts of the Province gathered to welcome Rev. Mr. Linton as he opened his itinerary in Prince Edward Island. Mr. Linton is to preach at the Charlottetown Baptist Church Sunday morning. In the afternoon he will be on the Hunter River charge, and in the evening at Summerside United Church. Other appointments will be at Bedouque on Monday and Malpeque Tuesday.

The supper was tastefully prepared by the ladies of the Baptist Church auxiliary and was presided over by Rev. J. D. Davison, minister of the church, in the unavoidable absence of the Federation president, Mr. Gordon MacMillan. Mayor Marie B. MacDonald welcomed the company on behalf of the City, and Rev. J. T. Irwin thanked the ladies' representatives, Mrs. A. K. MacPhee and Mrs. Spurgeon MacNeill, for their kindness.

His Honour The Lieutenant Governor And Mrs. T. W. L. Prowse will hold a Public Reception at Government House, Charlottetown, from three o'clock until six o'clock, Wednesday, June 13, 1951.

Note:—This inaugural reception is intended for both ladies and gentlemen. All callers are requested to enter their names in the visitors book. Calling cards need not be provided.

Surgeon Commander L. E. Prowse, R.C.N.(R) Private Secretary.

Awards Presented To Queen Square Cadets

Queen Square School Cadet Corps yesterday received from Brig. W. W. Reid the big Strathcona Trust Trophy awarded annually to the best cadet corps in Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island for general proficiency. The local boys won the trophy last year.

In addition they were also presented with the Strathcona Trust Shield for general proficiency as the best cadet corps in Prince Edward Island.

The occasion of the presentation was the annual inspection which was carried out by Brig. Reid, accompanied by Lt. Col. A. W. Rogers, Officer Commanding the P.E.I. Regiment with which the Queen Square Corps is affiliated, and Capt. G. F. Halliwell, Command Cadet Officer, Eastern Command, Halifax.

Held at Memorial Field there was a large crowd on hand, many of them members of other cadet corps. Drawn up facing the main grandstand the corps came to smart attention as the inspecting party moved on the field. There was the usual ceremonial drill of the general salute, followed by the inspection by Brig. Reid and his party; then the march past in column of platoons and again in column of route.

Fine Demonstration The boys then gave a demonstration of physical drill under direction of C.S.M. Mullins. Afterwards came Bren gun drill, map reading, first aid drill and an exhibition of woodcraft. Once again forming ranks the corps advanced in review order to face the inspecting officer and hear his remarks. Brig. Reid reminded them that they had won the trophy last year and expressed the personal opinion that although he did not know what marks they had compiled this year he felt certain they would again be up near the top.

"You have made a splendid turnout, and your appearance is well suited to the armoured corps with which you are affiliated."

Col. Rogers privately stated he was more than satisfied with the work of the boys and the showing they had made. In the presentation of prizes and awards by Brig. Reid, the Strathcona Trophy was accepted for the corps by Cadet Major J. Revell, while the shield was accepted by Cadet Capt. D. Soper. The award of the Queen Square School Cup for the best platoon went to Number 1 this year and the cup was accepted by Lieut. W. Purcell.

Other prizes awarded yesterday afternoon were as follows: Best officer on parade, Lt. David Doyle; best N.C.O. on parade, C.S.M. Arnold Mullins; best sergeant on parade, Sgt. Brian Willoughby; best cadet corporal, Edward Kays. The award of Master Cadet was conferred on C.S.M. A. Mullins. Sniper pins were fastened to the tunics of Leo Doiron, Arnold Mullins, William LeClair, Gerald Monaghan, William MacDonald. Special shooting prizes awarded by the P.E.I. Regiment were won by Arnold Mullins, Leo Doiron, William LeClair, Gerald Monaghan, William MacDonald, Edward Kays, B. Connelly, D. Doyle and Joseph Revell.

Liguorian Club Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of the Liguorian Youth Club of Holy Redeemer Parish was held on Sunday, May 20th, in the Parish Hall. There was a large attendance.

The election of officers for the new year took place at this meeting and the results are as follows: President, Carl Proude; Vice-President, Alice Hennessey; Secretary, Lois Hennessey; Treasurer, Joyce McCarville; Auditor, Fred MacPhee.

It is interesting to note that this is Mr. Proude's third term as president, and also that he took office with a large majority of votes over his opponents. This just proves that Carl is a mighty popular with all members and that he is the man for the job.

A vote of thanks was then extended to the retiring officers and a business meeting then took place. Plans were discussed for the visit of the St. John (N.B.) C.Y.O. Group who will visit us in July, and for the opening of the tennis court and the baseball diamond.

The Moderator of the Club, Rev. Father McGillivray, C.S.R., spoke to the members on their duties as Club members and urged each and every one to do his bit towards making and keeping our Club a success.
