

be an interval of not less than twenty-four hours between the departure therefrom of any such vessel (whether a ship-of-war or a merchant-ship) of the one belligerent, and the subsequent departure therefrom of any ship-of-war of the other belligerent; and the time hereby limited for the departure of such ships-of-war respectively shall always, in case of necessity, be extended so far as may be requisite for giving effect to this proviso, but not further or otherwise.

And it is further Her Majesty's pleasure that no ship of war of either belligerent shall hereafter be permitted, while in any port, roadstead, or waters subject to the territorial jurisdiction of Her Majesty, to take in any supplies, except provisions and such other things as may be requisite for the subsistence of her crew, and except so much coal only as may be sufficient to carry such vessel to the nearest port of her own country, or to some nearer destination, and no coal shall again be supplied to any such ship of war in the same or any other port, roadstead, or waters, subject to the territorial jurisdiction of Her Majesty, without special permission, until after the expiration of three months from the time when such coal may have been last supplied to her within British waters as aforesaid.

And it is further Her Majesty's pleasure that armed ships of either party be interdicted from carrying prizes made by them into the ports, harbors, roadsteads, or waters of the United Kingdom, or any of Her Majesty's colonies or possessions abroad.

And I do hereby command and enjoin all Her Majesty's loving subjects within this Island and the territories thereunto belonging, strictly to conform to the said rules and to give their aid and assistance to all Ministers and Officers of the Law in maintaining and carrying the Rules into effect.

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of this Island, at Charlottetown, in the said Island, this Twenty-third day of July, in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, and in the twenty-ninth year of Her Majesty's reign.

By Command,
T. H. HAVILAND, Col. Sec'y.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN.

TENDERS FOR CONVEYANCE OF WINTER MAILS.

SEALED TENDERS will be received by the Subscriber at the General Post Office, Charlottetown, until THURSDAY, the 16th AUGUST next, at the hour of 12 o'clock, noon, from persons willing to Contract for the CONVEYANCE of the MAILS of this Island, twice or three times in each week, (at the option of the Postmaster General of this Island,) during the WINTER SEASON, for the ensuing three years, between CAPE TORMENTINE and CAPE TRAVERSE. The person contracting to be at all times provided with at least three suitable and safe ICE BOATS, and crews of four men to cross each trip upon such days as may be appointed, if the same be practicable. The outward Mail to be received at the Post Office in the settlement of Cape Traverse, and delivered at Cape Tormentine; and those coming to the Island to be received at Cape Tormentine, and delivered in Charlottetown at the Post Office.

TENDERS will also be received at the same time from persons willing to convey MAILS twice or three times in each week, (at the option of the Postmaster General of this Island,) between CAPE TORMENTINE and AMHERST. The person tendering to agree to have a crew at Amherst, to leave there with the Mails for this Island upon such days as may be directed, and to attend to the instructions he may receive, from time to time, through the Postmaster at Amherst; and the Contractor also to be prepared to attend at Cape Tormentine to aid the Ice Couriers on their arrival and departure with the Mails.

As the duty thus required to be performed is of some importance, the Government will not be bound to accept the lowest Tender.

Sufficient security will be required, and the names of two responsible persons as sureties must be given in each Tender.

Tenderers are required to express on the cover the service tendered for.

P. DESBRISAY, Postmaster General.
