

Hampton and Vicinity

Miss Elvira Villett, while vacationing at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Villett, has assumed care and management of home duties during her mother's illness in the P. C. Hospital.

Relatives and friends of Mrs. George Villett, South Melville, are pleased to learn from recent reports that Mrs. Villett's condition is improving following a major operation in the P. C. Hospital.

Hampton School re-opened for another term under Mrs. Ferguson, principal, and Mrs. Cameron, assistant.

Following the skillful operation of a bulldozer, Albany Village School grounds present a most pleasing appearance to all passers-by.

Grain fields throughout the district, just ripening for harvest, are being cut by a period of heavy rain storms, has brought haying and harvesting closely merging together.

Mrs. G. Victor Ferguson and son Merrill, have returned by rail from a brief but enjoyable visit with relatives and friends in Halifax, N. S.

Mr. Frank Burt, Alberta farmer and rancher, is enjoying his annual visit among relatives and friends of his native Province. Mr. Burt has been the successful owner and operator of a fertile section of land in the northern part of Alberta for many years.

On August 19 at Trinity Church, Clarence Elliot MacPhail, son of Mr. and Mrs. Neil MacPhail, and Helen Marie Whitlock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Edgar Whitlock, were married by Rev. T. J. MacLennan, former pastor of Trinity Church. Following the reception at Villa Waters the couple left on a wedding trip through the Maritimes. Gifts from the many guests testified to the popularity of this young couple, who will reside in Charlottetown where the groom has a position with the Massey-Harris Co.

The Women's Institute of this district, held a successful pantry sale at Messrs. Douglas Bros. and Jones, in the City, on Aug. 22.

Hampton Sunday School picnic on Argyle Shore on Aug. 22 provided an afternoon's enjoyment to pupils, teachers, parents and friends. Cars and light delivery trucks transported everyone to the beautiful MacDougall spacious, shady grounds facing a grand beach in a beautiful grove of trees, and a housed spring of gurgling drinking water. Keenly contested games, followed by a bounteous and delightful luncheon, were participated in by all, and accompanied by merry laughter, all returned to their respective homes feeling that "it was good to be there."

Mr. Howard MacKinnon, of the Experimental Station, was a weekend visitor among relatives and friends, guest of his father Mr. Dugald MacKinnon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Acorn, Toronto, accompanied by Mrs. Acorn's sister, Miss Sarah MacQuarrie, have arrived by motor car to their native province, where Mr. and Mrs. Acorn will enjoy their annual holiday season visiting relatives and friends.

For First Time Canada's Quints Will Be Separated

The five famous Dionne sisters of Callander, Ont., are about to be separated for the first time since their birth 19 years ago. Marie, centre, slimmest and most serious of the quintet, will enter a contemplative order in Montreal this fall. Yvonne, at left, long the artist of the group, will enter Notre Dame Congregation at Montreal in September to specialize in art. The three others—Emilie, second from left; Cecillie, at right; and Annette—will return in September to the Institute Familial at Nicolet, Que., college, where the five studied last year. Since infancy the girls have lived, travelled, attended school and played together. This summer, holidaying at the family's Georgian-style mansion, 10 miles south of North Bay, the girls have rarely been apart.

York And Vicinity

Many friends regret to hear that Mr. Rens Newton has entered the P. E. Island Hospital for treatment. His friends wish him speedy recovery.

Mrs. Ramsay Auld, Covehead, is visiting Halifax, the guest of her son and daughter-in-law, Dr. Benson Auld and Mrs. Auld.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred McLeod and children were visitors to York on Wednesday, guests of Mrs. Elmer Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Vessey and family leave this week for their home in Ottawa. They spent their holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Vessey, York, and Mr. and Mrs. Webb, Cavendish.

Mrs. Mabel Wagner and Mrs. George McLeod of Bridgewater, arrived Friday at the York Manse.

atives and friends, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Boyd MacQuarrie.

Mrs. George Hennessey, her mother, Mrs. Thomas and aunt, Mrs. Dawson, are enjoying summer holidays at the summer cottage on Birchwood estate, facing out on Northumberland Strait.

Very heavy rain was somewhat prohibitive to large church attendance at the various places of worship in this field on Aug. 23. The evening service in Hampton Church was under supervision of the W. M. S., and was largely attended. A fine description of the progress of the work of the W. M. S. in Canada, fine congregational singing of old familiar hymns, led by a choir, supplemented by the Bonshaw Quartette and Miss Baxter as guest singer, with Dr. MacDonald as organist, all combined to make this service uplifting and enjoyable. Following the service of worship, the choir and guest singers were entertained at the manse, lunch was served by W. M. S. members, and an enjoyable period of singing was given, followed by "Blest Be The Tie That Binds."

Mr. Howard MacKinnon, of the Experimental Station, was a weekend visitor among relatives and friends, guest of his father Mr. Dugald MacKinnon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Acorn, Toronto, accompanied by Mrs. Acorn's sister, Miss Sarah MacQuarrie, have arrived by motor car to their native province, where Mr. and Mrs. Acorn will enjoy their annual holiday season visiting relatives and friends.

Correspondence From Royal Family To Queen Mary Needlework Guild

Members and friends of the Queen Mary Needlework Guild will be interested in the following correspondence. Mrs. Prowse, wife of His Honour, the Lieutenant-Governor, and Patroness of the Guild had the honour and pleasure of meeting the Princess Royal and discussing plans for the work of the Charlottetown Branch. Her Royal Highness told of the great interest taken by members of the Royal Family when her late Majesty Queen Mary supervised the opening of the Charlottetown box, and expressed a strong wish that nothing would interfere with the work as it was so much needed and so deeply appreciated.

The following are extracts from several letters received through the summer by the secretary: Marlborough House, 13th July. Lady Constance Milnes-Gaskell has passed on all the correspondence to me of the Charlottetown Branch, Queen Mary Needlework Guild.

If you are going to be kind and send a parcel would you address it to me at Marlborough House, Her Majesty, Queen Elizabeth, and expressed a strong wish that nothing would interfere with the work as it was so much needed and so deeply appreciated.

The following are extracts from several letters received through the summer by the secretary: Marlborough House, 13th July. Lady Constance Milnes-Gaskell has passed on all the correspondence to me of the Charlottetown Branch, Queen Mary Needlework Guild.

If you are going to be kind and send a parcel would you address it to me at Marlborough House, Her Majesty, Queen Elizabeth, and expressed a strong wish that nothing would interfere with the work as it was so much needed and so deeply appreciated.

The following are extracts from several letters received through the summer by the secretary: Marlborough House, 13th July. Lady Constance Milnes-Gaskell has passed on all the correspondence to me of the Charlottetown Branch, Queen Mary Needlework Guild.

If you are going to be kind and send a parcel would you address it to me at Marlborough House, Her Majesty, Queen Elizabeth, and expressed a strong wish that nothing would interfere with the work as it was so much needed and so deeply appreciated.

The following are extracts from several letters received through the summer by the secretary: Marlborough House, 13th July. Lady Constance Milnes-Gaskell has passed on all the correspondence to me of the Charlottetown Branch, Queen Mary Needlework Guild.

If you are going to be kind and send a parcel would you address it to me at Marlborough House, Her Majesty, Queen Elizabeth, and expressed a strong wish that nothing would interfere with the work as it was so much needed and so deeply appreciated.

The following are extracts from several letters received through the summer by the secretary: Marlborough House, 13th July. Lady Constance Milnes-Gaskell has passed on all the correspondence to me of the Charlottetown Branch, Queen Mary Needlework Guild.

If you are going to be kind and send a parcel would you address it to me at Marlborough House, Her Majesty, Queen Elizabeth, and expressed a strong wish that nothing would interfere with the work as it was so much needed and so deeply appreciated.

The following are extracts from several letters received through the summer by the secretary: Marlborough House, 13th July. Lady Constance Milnes-Gaskell has passed on all the correspondence to me of the Charlottetown Branch, Queen Mary Needlework Guild.

If you are going to be kind and send a parcel would you address it to me at Marlborough House, Her Majesty, Queen Elizabeth, and expressed a strong wish that nothing would interfere with the work as it was so much needed and so deeply appreciated.

The following are extracts from several letters received through the summer by the secretary: Marlborough House, 13th July. Lady Constance Milnes-Gaskell has passed on all the correspondence to me of the Charlottetown Branch, Queen Mary Needlework Guild.

If you are going to be kind and send a parcel would you address it to me at Marlborough House, Her Majesty, Queen Elizabeth, and expressed a strong wish that nothing would interfere with the work as it was so much needed and so deeply appreciated.

The following are extracts from several letters received through the summer by the secretary: Marlborough House, 13th July. Lady Constance Milnes-Gaskell has passed on all the correspondence to me of the Charlottetown Branch, Queen Mary Needlework Guild.

If you are going to be kind and send a parcel would you address it to me at Marlborough House, Her Majesty, Queen Elizabeth, and expressed a strong wish that nothing would interfere with the work as it was so much needed and so deeply appreciated.

The following are extracts from several letters received through the summer by the secretary: Marlborough House, 13th July. Lady Constance Milnes-Gaskell has passed on all the correspondence to me of the Charlottetown Branch, Queen Mary Needlework Guild.

If you are going to be kind and send a parcel would you address it to me at Marlborough House, Her Majesty, Queen Elizabeth, and expressed a strong wish that nothing would interfere with the work as it was so much needed and so deeply appreciated.

The following are extracts from several letters received through the summer by the secretary: Marlborough House, 13th July. Lady Constance Milnes-Gaskell has passed on all the correspondence to me of the Charlottetown Branch, Queen Mary Needlework Guild.

If you are going to be kind and send a parcel would you address it to me at Marlborough House, Her Majesty, Queen Elizabeth, and expressed a strong wish that nothing would interfere with the work as it was so much needed and so deeply appreciated.

The following are extracts from several letters received through the summer by the secretary: Marlborough House, 13th July. Lady Constance Milnes-Gaskell has passed on all the correspondence to me of the Charlottetown Branch, Queen Mary Needlework Guild.

If you are going to be kind and send a parcel would you address it to me at Marlborough House, Her Majesty, Queen Elizabeth, and expressed a strong wish that nothing would interfere with the work as it was so much needed and so deeply appreciated.

The following are extracts from several letters received through the summer by the secretary: Marlborough House, 13th July. Lady Constance Milnes-Gaskell has passed on all the correspondence to me of the Charlottetown Branch, Queen Mary Needlework Guild.

The Old & The New

The old is new, the new is old, How strangely strange the tale is told! The rays that moved the Atomic Pig Were in the world when it was made, How long ago, not one can tell, Yet, newly sown a petrol well, And wonder waves of light and sound That travel the whole wide world around, Were surging free in the gloom of night When God proclaimed, "Let there be light."

Can we forget or who would blame The law that banished brother Cain? Has raised in famous modern towns The prison walls that scowl and frown? The new is old, but old is new, When cleansed and plated by the true, When error's rust corrodes life's tools The wisest people go to school— With wonder toys all new and bright. By radar, radio, and light—

On wheels, on wings we soar away, Like happy children out to play, Forgetful of our thoughtful part, As people grown; and of the heart Of God, our Maker, who inlays A soul within a house of clay. That "clay" was His commanding word, That soul by Him in spirit stirred, 'Tis old, 'tis new, yet who can say How many billion years away, Are seconds new, when cleansed from rust, The soul set free give dust to dust?

Nor did He plan to scrap the old When He new wonders should unfold But cleansed from error's mud and grime, The firm and sure laid truths of time, Like pillars strong placed by His hand, Beneath the new supporting stand, 'Tis new to us, to God 'tis old, 'Tis only new, as He unfolds, So by His arm, new heights we gain, Who buildeth sure but not in vain. —Fern Costain.

always been a grand help in giving our children that "well cared for" appearance and have been greatly appreciated through the years. Our very best wishes, Sincerely, Anna D. Stewart, Sec'y.

Mount Herbert, 30th June. We wish to extend sincere thanks to all the ladies of the Queen Mary Needlework Guild, for such a large and beautiful assortment of clothing. Saying thank you, year after year for all those lovely things seems so little, but if you could see the happy expression on the faces of the little girls as they put on their pretty new dresses for Sunday School, I think you would be well repaid for all your efforts. We would be pleased to have visits from the members of the Guild and we do appreciate everything you are doing for the little ones. With kindest regards, Sincerely, A. Wright, Matron.

KOREAN RELIEF and SAVE THE CHILDREN FUND. In the early part of the summer three boxes of clothing, consisting of fur coats, men's and women's overcoats, suits, dresses, shirts, skirts, gloves, underwear, shoes and socks, in all seventy-eight pounds of clothing in excellent condition were sent to Korean Relief per the Unitarian Service Committee. These boxes were gratefully acknowledged.

Unitarian Service of Canada, Montreal, 22nd May. Thank you for the wonderful cartons of clothing which arrived a few days ago in excellent condition. All these things will be included in our last shipment for Korea until September. Please convey my thanks to your Guild. Sincerely, Olivia F. Holmes, Hon. Chairman.

Two cartons of children's clothes were at the same time sent to the "SAVE THE CHILDREN" Headquarters in Toronto. Jarvis Street, Toronto, 30th June. We received a very fine donation of clothing from the Queen Mary Needlework Guild of Charlottetown. I wish again to thank most sincerely the members and to tell you all how much your lovely things were appreciated. I assure you many children and parents will think lovingly and gratefully of Canada when your clothing is given out. Thank you all for helping to lessen some of the misery among the world's underprivileged children. Yours sincerely, Pattie Tanner, Executive Secretary. Since the dispatch of these

Charlottetown, 30th June. As Secretary of the Prince Edward Island Protestant Orphanage Board, I have been asked to pass on to the members of the Guild, a vote of sincere gratitude for the lovely donation of clothing received by our orphanage children. These articles of clothing have Received your letter of July 8th, just after writing you from Marlborough House. It is more than kind of the Guild to send me one of those lovely blue knitted shawls so much admired by Queen Mary, and I do very much appreciate the charming thought on the part of the Committee in sending me this token of our association while "I was in waiting." I will write again on receipt of the parcel with a personal message of thanks. It is sad that I shall no longer have the pleasure of the regular correspondence with the Charlottetown Branch which I have enjoyed for so many years, but perhaps sometime you will send me a line as where she will attend a wedding of her cousin. She was accompanied by her aunt Mrs. Boundery, City.

Mr. William Watts, York, was a visitor to the City on August 14. Miss Catherine Wood was the guest of Mrs. Peter Proud on Saturday.

Mrs. Abner Vessey, York, was a visitor to the City on Thursday. She also visited her granddaughter in the P. E. Island Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter MacFarlane, Central Royalty, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Vessey on Aug. 16.

Mr. and Mrs. Neil B. Darrach, Borden, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Vessey on Aug. 16.

Miss Ethel Edwards, Summerside, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Vessey on Aug. 16.

Mrs. Edison Hardy, York, left Wednesday morning for Summerside.

Advertisement for Borden's Evaporated Milk. It features a woman in a hat holding a can of milk. Text includes: "I've switched to Borden's Evaporated Milk! My family prefers the flavor!" and "If it's Borden's it's GOT to be good!". A can of Borden's Evaporated Milk is shown at the bottom right.

A MARITIME PRODUCT Made by Borden's at Truro, Nova Scotia

boxes several donations have come in, waiting for shipment when the Depots open in September. All men's, women's and children's garments suitable for winter wear, will be received at 12 West Street, Charlottetown, and dispatched in due course. Mary F. Cosh, Secretary, Queen Mary Needlework Guild, 12 West St., Charlottetown.

Lannan-Jones Wedding

With Rev. R. S. Miller officiating in Holy Cross Church, Toronto, Ont., the marriage took place of Mrs. Kathleen, daughter of Mrs. Jones and the late P. J. Jones, to Mr. James Gerald Lannan of Weston, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Lannan of Charlottetown, P. E. I. Mr. F. J. Higgins gave the bride in marriage. Her gown of Chantilly lace over white satin had an insert of accordion-pleated net in front; her veil was three-quarter length, and she carried red Sweetheart roses. Miss Hazel Reel, maid of honor, and Miss Helen Lannan, bridesmaid, chose dresses of American Beauty taffeta with matching full overskirts of nylon net, and red velvet caps. The flower girl, Miss Judy Anne McGee, was frocked in taffeta with net overskirt and little puff sleeves. All wore red halos and carried white bouquets. Mr. Roy Devins was best man, and the ushers were Messrs. Earl Power, Ted Reel and Steve Murnaghan.

DAILY CROSSWORD

- ACROSS 1. Artificial waterway 6. Verso: left-hand page (abbr.) 11. Custom 12. City (Neb.) 13. Binding, as with tape 15. Male deer 16. Small 18. Evening (poet.) 19. Period of time 22. Commander 24. Snubbed 27. Preceding 28. Dent on a surface 32. Relying on (formal use) 34. Clubs (golf) 37. Insect 38. Monetary unit (Bulg.) 39. Lizards 42. Goddess of discord (Gr. myth.) 44. Ice cream served with sauce 48. Takes dinner 50. Artless 51. Smooth and shiny 52. Shoot, as of grass DOWN 1. Slice 2. Man's name 3. Short sleep 4. Exchange premium 5. Furnish temporarily

A crossword puzzle grid with numbers indicating starting positions for the clues. The grid is 15 squares wide and 15 squares high.

Yesterday's Answer 41. Thin, brittle cookie 42. Obaerva 43. Perish 46. Polynesian drink 47. Ever (poet.) 49. Sack on words (pl.)

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE—Here's how to work it: A X Y D L B A A X E L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

A Cryptogram Quotation VDN KSVNJ AB DNPP SLN AGNI IRKDV SIU USM; JOAAVD VDN UNJQNV, SIU NSJM RJVDN CSM—ULMUNI.

Yesterday's Cryptogram: I WOULDN'T LEASE MYSELF BY DESCENDING TO HOLD NO CONVERSATION WITH HIM—DICKENS.

Short and Sweet Bake it with MAGIC!

Advertisement for MACE & ORANGE SWEET BREAD. It includes a recipe: "Mix and sift 3 times, 2 1/4 c. once-sifted pastry flour (or 2 1/4 c. once-sifted hard-wheat flour), 3 1/2 tps. Magic Baking Powder, 1/2 tsp. salt, 1/4 tsp. ground mace. Cream 1/2 c. butter or margarine and blend in 1/2 c. fine granulated sugar; beat in well-beaten egg, 1 tsp. grated orange rind and 1/2 tsp. vanilla. Add dry ingredients to creamed mixture alternately with 1/2 c. milk. Turn batter into a loaf pan (4 1/2" x 8 1/2") which has been greased and lined with greased paper. Bake in moderate oven, 350°, about 1 hour. Allow loaf to cool in pan. Spread sliced cold bread with butter or margarine for serving." A can of MAGIC BAKING POWDER is shown at the bottom right.

Advertisement for Fleischmann's Fast Rising Dry Yeast. It features a large image of a yeast container. Text includes: "In Hot Weather THIS FAST-ACTING YEAST KEEPS WITHOUT REFRIGERATION!" and "Thousands of Maritime women have found the perfect answer to yeast problems in hot weather. It's the new Fleischmann's Fast Rising Dry Yeast! This modern form of famous Fleischmann's Yeast keeps full-strength and fast-acting in your cupboard! No refrigeration! If you bake at home—get a month's supply of Fleischmann's Fast Rising Dry Yeast. Always on hand for speedy baking and grand results."