Marvel D. Dunbar, B. TH., Minister of the Central Christian Church in Charlottetown for the past thirteen years, has accepted a call to the McKinley Park Christian Church in Tacoma, Washington. Mr. Dunbar will be leaving the Province the first week in July and will visit in Western Canada before taking up residence in the United States on or about August 15th.

Central Christian Church has enjoyed an era of blessing and growth under the leadership of Mr. Dunbar and more than 360 members have been added to the membership. Perhaps the most effective and productive work has been done through the Sunday School department. Additional facilities are presently being planned to accommodate the well over 200 members attending regularly. It is expected a new goal of 300 attendants will be attained during the second quarter of this year.

Mr. Dunbar has given untiringly of his services to many civic interests. He was particularly active with the Canadian Red Cross in the department of Swimming and Water Safety. As Provincial Chairman of this department a vigorous and extensive program was conducted.

The Christian Churches will remember Mr. Dunbar as an ardent Camp enthusiast. The interest of youth was his constant concern and any effort in camp promotion either through direction and building was his interest. Having figured in Evangelistic meetings, Week of prayer services throughout the Province; radio work under the auspices of the Charlottetown Ministerial Association in the Morning Devotional program and direct from Central Christian, Mr. Dunbar has gained many, many friends who will regret his departure.

The prayers and interest of the citizens of Charlottetown and particularly the members and friends of Central Christian will go with him.

The original charge was for mischief and damage to the dwelling referred to in the charge was estimated at about $50. However, on the advice of the crown prosecutor, Magistrate Gilbert E. Gaudet amended the charge to "wilful damage to property not exceeding $50."

Failure to pay either the fine or the damage costs would bring a sentence of 30 days on each count.

A charge of illegal selling of liquor to another person, brought against a Charlottetown man, was dismissed this morning. Magistrate Gaudet said, that having deferred his decision from last week, he could find no substantial evidence to incriminate the accused.

A Marshfield man was fined $20 and costs or 30 days when he pleaded guilty to a charge of illegal possession of liquor. Another man, charged with the same offence, had charges withdrawn.

The bottle was confiscated from the two men last night and at the time neither claimed it.

A Parkdale man, on the complaint of a neighbor, was fined $20 and costs or 30 days when he was convicted of being intoxicated in a public place. A reprimand was issued to a St. Peter's Bay man for driving an automobile on the provincial highways without license plates. The charge was dropped when it was noted that the accused had borrowed the car from a local dealer and did not notice the lack of license plates at the time.

Fines of $5 and costs or five days were handed out to a York youth who pleaded guilty to driving a vehicle not mechanically fit for highway travel, and a Bedford man who pleaded guilty to failing to register his vehicle for the current year. A similar fine was given to a Southport man for failing to stop at a Stop sign.

A fine of $10 and costs or five days was the reward of a Lower Freetown man when he pleaded guilty to speeding. Arresting officers said that the accused's vehicle was travelling between 70 and 80 miles an hour in a 50 mile speed zone.

P.E.I. Home Ec. Discusses New Trends In Diet

The Prince Edward Island Home Economics Association had a supper meeting, Monday, March 31st at the Rendezvous banquet room. The special feature for this meeting was a panel discussion "Newer Trends In Diet". Mrs. W. H. Hogg was the

Ministers Study The Story Of The Church In Britain

Addressing the monthly meeting of the Charlottetown Ministerial Association held Tuesday afternoon in the National Film Board Auditorium, the Rev. D. T. H. B. Somers, M. A., S. T. M., gave the second in a series of three lectures on the Protestant Reformation.

Introduced by the President, the Rev. D. H. L. Mitton, Mr. Somers began with an outline of the earliest records of the Church in Britain, Tertullian, who believed that Christians were found in Britain before the close of the second century and then, in turn, dealt with the work of St. Alban and the presence of British Churchmen at the Councils of Arles in 314, and that of Rimini in 359. Strange to relate, none was present at the great Council of Nicaea in 325.

The lamp of Christianity in Scotland was first kindled by S.

chairman and Miss Baxter, dietitian at the P. E. I. Hospital and Sister Joan Mary, dietitian at the Charlottetown Hospital introduced the topics: diet in the celiac syndrome, low cholesterol diet, diets in tuberculosis and emotional factors in obesity.

The audience showed their interest by a lively participation in the discussion. An interesting fact reported was that Miss Anderson had many inquiries for the special gluten-free recipes she has developed for celiac patients since her work was mentioned by Sister Joan Mary in a panel at the last Canadian Dietetic Association meeting in Quebec City. The panelists were thanked by Mrs. Acorn.

The nominating committee brought in the following slate of officers which was unanimously approved: President, Mrs. Lemuel E. Prowse; Vice President, Mrs. Allison MacLean; Secretary - Treasurer, Mother Frances Loyola.

Ninian, among the Picts of isolated Galloway, where he erected the first stone Church at Whitborn in the heathen wilds of Galloway in 397. Though Whitborn has never drawn to itself the glamour and veneration which invest the island of Iona, it is, nevertheless, the true cradle of Scottish Christianity.

Christianity came to Ireland probably early in the fourth century. While we are ignorant as to the manner of its introduction, traders from Gaul doubtless played a prominent part. Palladius was sent in 431 to organize the Church there but the mission was brief and apparently ineffectual.

S. PATRICK
The strong assumption is that it was terminated by his early death. It was in the following year, 432, that the real organization of Irish Christianity began with the advent of S. Patrick. So great was the extent of his work that in succeeding centuries the

7-Day Sentence Imposed In Traffic Case

A Central Royalty man, appearing before Magistrate K. M. Martin in City Police Court yesterday, pleaded guilty to a charge of driving while intoxicated and was sentenced to seven days in the Queen's County Jail plus a one-year suspension of his driver's license.

On the complaint of his wife, a Richmond street man was sentenced to 20 days on a charge of being drunk and disorderly. Another 20 day sentence was meted out to a 68-year-old man for being drunk and incapable. At the time of his arrest he was appealing a 40 day sentence imposed on him on March 3 for vagrancy.

Other drunk and incapable fines were given a Summer-steads woman, a 29-year-old Stewart Street man and a resident of Douglas Street. All were fined $5 and costs or two days.
