

THE DAILY EXAMINER

JULY 16, 1893.

THE COMMISSIONER TAKES A HAND.

While the Liberal Party and Government in this Province are practically leaderless—Mr. Warburton, the nominal premier, having an accepted judicial appointment in his pocket,—an unjustifiable job has been secretly consummated, at the expense of the people, by the Commissioner of Public Works. A new Prince of Wales College building was projected at the same time as the annex to the Hospital for the Insane, and seventy-five thousand dollars were borrowed. The money, as we all know, has been spent. But neither the annex nor the new College building has yet been built. This being the fact, an act of the Legislature was last year passed authorizing the Government to raise $18,000 by debentures, and to use that amount—no more—in the erection of a new college. Plans were prepared and tenders were received. The lowest tender on the accepted plan amounted, so we are informed, to about $36,000. Of course this would not do at all, and the matter was held in abeyance until quite recently—until, as we believe, the Government was practically without a leader responsible to the people. In these circumstances—when the Government is not justified in doing more than the ordinary necessary business of the public—a special contract has been entered into under which Messrs. McDonald, of Pictou, and Schurman, of Summerside, are to erect a building for $28,000. That is to say, this Rump Government,—from which the head has been taken and placed upon the Bench—has committed the country to the expenditure of $10,000 more than the Legislature has authorized. More than that, the job has been done in secret. The plans have, so we are informed, been materially changed. But tenders upon the plans, as changed, were never called. The fact of the change and the fact that the building was to be forthwith erected were both kept secret. Builders belonging to this city and the Province were shut out of the competition. The aggregation of leaderless politicians known as our Liberal Government has deliberately passed over such men as the Messrs. Harper, Parkman and Crabbe, etc., and given the contract to Mr. McDonald, of Pictou, and Mr. Schurman, of Summerside; while Mr. LeMay, of Quebec, has been retained as architect in preference to Mr. Harris, of this city. If the little leaderless junto—known as a Government—were justified in doing anything at all in this matter, at this time, they might perhaps justify in some way their conduct in shutting out our local architects and builders and letting the contract, secretly, without tender. But how can they—how can any Government—be justified in deliberately adding a third to the cost of the building as authorized by the Legislature? This matter smacks strongly of corruption; and the whole business is in direct opposition to the principles of responsible Government. The Government which we now have, is not responsible. The Premier is in it only in name; and this being the fact, there is practically no Government responsible to the people,—out of whom someone is going to make "a pile." It is, surely, time that the people shook off their lethargy in respect to public matters.

—In a general order to the United States army, relative to the health and efficiency of the soldiers, General Miles, the commander-in-chief, says: "The history of other armies has demonstrated that in a hot climate abstinence from the use of intoxicating drinks is essential to continued health and efficiency." It is an interesting coincidence and a valuable temperance lesson that the commander-in-chief of the British army, Lord Wolseley, has expressed a similar opinion, and that with his concurrence Sir Herbert Kitchener absolutely prohibited liquor in the Sudan campaign. As the way General Miles puts it, the Chicago Record very appropriately remarks:

"This precautionary advice of Gen. Miles to officers and men of the army might be heeded with profit by civilians who mistakenly suppose that alcoholic beverages are beneficial in hot weather. The truth is directly the contrary. Other things being equal, he endures hot weather best who is least addicted to the use of intoxicating liquors of any kind. The above remarks apply also to cold weather."

—The members of Zion Church have passed a formal minute expressive of their pain and unfeigned regret for the death of the Rev. David Sutherland, and setting forth the abilities and virtues of their deceased pastor. They also express their deep and sincere sympathy with Mrs. Sutherland and family.

BANISHMENT OF REFUGEE SPANIARDS.

It is a well-known principle of British law that a man is to be counted innocent until he is by course of law proved to be guilty. In the case of Messrs. DuBosc and Carranza, refugees upon Canadian soil, living under protection of our hospitality, there was on trial, no investigation, in which the accused were heard according to British law and precedent. But hear Sir Wilfrid Laurier,—

"The action of Senor Carranza is a violation of the laws of the land, and I have, therefore, to request Senor Carranza to leave this country. I have to make the same request of Senor DuBosc, who, from evidence in our hands, is an accomplice in the establishment of the spy service which was organized by Senor Carranza."

"I have now to ask you to be good enough to convey yourself this request to your clients. I am anxious that they should not be subjected to any unnecessary inconvenience, but I must insist upon their departure."

Taking upon himself to insist upon their departure—as if he were the Czar of Russia—Sir Wilfrid Laurier compelled our Spanish guests to leave the shores of Canada. We have condemned this breach of hospitality as "hasty";—it was hasty because it was done without trial or investigation; we have condemned it as "senseless" because it was contrary to British precedent and British law, contrary to the manly feeling which inspires men to stand by the weak against the strong;—and we believe that all right-thinking men will agree with THE EXAMINER, THE PATRIOT and THE GUARDIAN to the contrary notwithstanding.

If Lieutenant DuBosc and Lieut Carranza had been proved guilty of a violation of our neutrality laws their imprisonment or banishment would have been right. Not having been proved guilty, their banishment was an outrage.

The Mon real Gazette refers to a case in which the Great Napoleon instigated the prosecution of a French refugee in London, and quotes the noble words of Sir James Macintosh who had been retained as the refugees' counsel:

"That he still enjoys the security of this asylum—that he has not been sacrificed to the resentment of his powerful enemies, is, perhaps, owing to the firmness of the King's Government. If that be the fact, gentlemen—if his Majesty's ministers have resisted the applications to expel this unfortunate gentleman from English soil, should publicly thank them for their firmness, if it were not unseemly and improper to suppose that they could have acted otherwise—to thank an English Government for not violating the most sacred duties of hospitality—for not bringing indelible disgrace on their country."

And the Gazette remarks: "What would Sir James Macintosh if he could revisit the glimpses of the moon, be likely to say if he learned that in the close of the century the beginning of which he signalized by those noble words, the stranger seeking shelter on British soil should be rudely and preemptively ordered away at the bidding of outsiders?"

THE CHRISTIAN ENDEAVORERS.

Interesting and Helpful Convention at Malpeque.

The second convention of the Provincial Union of Christian Endeavor was held in the Presbyterian Church, Malpeque, on July 13th and 14th. There was a large attendance of delegates and Endeavorers.

The Convention opened at two o'clock on Wednesday. Rev G M Campbell, President of the Maritime Union, spoke of the work of the year and made fitting reference to the loss the Union had sustained by the death of Rev D Sutherland. Rev Mr Campbell took the place assigned to Mr Gillis and delivered an instructive address on Prayer and Progress.

At the evening session addresses of welcome were delivered by Rev J M Fisher and Mr Ernest Ramsey, to which Rev F A Wightman responded. Rev Mr Dill delivered an address on the pledge after which he put the question box in operation.

Sunrise prayer meetings and committee work in the church constituted Thursday's forenoon business.

At the afternoon session officers were elected as follows:

President—W C Turner.
Honorary Presidents—Ex-officio Rev W J Kirby and Rev G M Campbell.
Vice Presidents for Kings—Rev John Gillis; Queens—Rev C W Corey; Prince—Rev E M Dill.

Sec—Geo McNutt, Malpeque.
Cor Sec—Rev F A Wightman, Malpeque.

General Superintendent—Rev J M Fisher.

County Superintendents—Mr Campbell, Montague; J K Ross, Charlottetown; A S McKay, Summerside.
Superintendent of Junior work—Ethel B Connors, Summerside.

A delegation was received from the Provincial W C T U who asked the co-operation of the Union in the circulation of temperance literature. A resolution was moved endorsing the work of the Union and instructing the societies to co operate in the matter as requested.

Rev. Charles McKay then gave an address on the Tenth Region, and Rev. G M Campbell followed with another on Christian Citizenship.

The evening session was largely attended. Among the resolutions adopted was one referring to the great loss the Presbyterian church had sustained by the death of Rev. Mr. Sutherland.

The question box was then opened by Rev. Mr. Dill, after which Rev. Benj. Chappell discussed the missionary outlook.

After a consecration meeting conducted by Rev. G. M. Campbell the benediction was pronounced and the convention closed.

A Curious Fact

It is really remarkable the number of cheap plated watch cases that are made and sold these days—cases that will wear anywhere from six weeks to three years, and most of them containing a guarantee warranting them to wear for 20 years. A good filled case, one that will wear for 20 years, costs within a dollar of what it did seven years ago. That dollar represents the reduced cost of making—the gold costs just the same.

I sell gold filled cases, cases that have stood the test of years, and personally guarantee every case that I sell in addition to the manufacturers warrant.

I have some of the latest and most desirable patterns in stock, also silver. Any make of movement you want.
