

A KLEANER'S KORNER

by Ed Orlowski
3rd and 4th Duffy

The Mad Pole (I'm sometimes called that too) is a stick 1x1x3 feet long of exceptional quality, of geometric excellence, and bound in tailored covering to protect it's opponent from the scratchies. Before the 1979 changeover at 3rd and 4th floor Duffy it was used for making Polish sausage, but now it has been converted by unconventional methods in Gordie's Labs. He used it for making saltless sauerkraut by the no magnet method. It's also good for stabilizing a duck hunter's waddle.

This is the ultimate in Lab Dusters. It is the 2001 model being used in 1979. This duster ends all circular motion dusters. Its 'scope' is by the yard, its field of convention is so unconventional that until now it's been unheard of. Say hello to Mad Pole when you pick up your lost book or pencil on 404 Duffy. He's sort of a sexy thing too, and he likes to be petted.

Suzie Slipper is the Love Goddess of 3rd and 4th floors Duffy. Along with her sister Rag-a-Muffin, she is in charge of keeping the blackboards spotless here on 3rd and 4th Duffy.

Suzie Slipper and the Rag-a-Muffin have their own philosophy. They believe that the blackboards should be clean and clear (just like the water you drink) and that each time someone writes on them it should give that person a feeling like that of starting a new page in your writing book.

One would not like to write over a page which has already been written on. One would likely get mixed up a bit, especially at examination time, eh? A person writing on the blackboard should, if at all possible, be helped by that absence of distraction. It's much like looking into the heavens, but only to have a cloud obstruct your view. A clean, clear black board gives a person an unspoken sense of control.

Inhibited by no little fleeting thoughts of another person's work, we all seek a clean clear confidence in things which we do.

Suzie Slipper and Rag-a-Muffin's constant companion is experience and devotion to the 'Board'. Though much smaller in stature, these demonstrative darlings loom above the powerful Sidewinder Sal, or even J. Edgar the Hoover. These two ladies are number one contenders for the 1980-81 Black Board gutter cleaner's Award as voted on by secret ballot from participating black board users. Keep your eyes and ears open, more details soon. The girls say, "Duffians, Happy Black boarding."
