GENERAL INTELLIGENCE.

OHINA. PROGRESS OF THE REBELLION.—RE-CAPTURE OF AMOY, AND EXECUTION OF 1000 OF THE REBELS.

HONG KONG, Nov. 27.—The local news of this place is of the usual dull character, and is of trifling interest, but the intelligence which the present mail conveys to Europe is important in relation to the progress of the rebellion, which is fast breaking up the Chinese Empire.

The health of Hong Kong is somewhat unfavorable, owing to the late hot sultry weather, and has been marked by increase to the sick list of the garrison. Civilians, too, have felt the effects of the high temperature. Of the garrison no less than 113 are in hospital, and of this number 75 belong to the 55th Regiment. Fever, bowel, and chest complaints have been and are still prevalent, and four deaths have been taken place in the garrison since the middle of the month. About seventy invalids will shortly proceed home, and the whole of the Ceylon Rifle Regiment is in orders to return to Kiof, leaving the military strength of the garrison at 1000 men.

At Canton, and in its immediate vicinity, all was quiet. The number of executions for political offences affords clear evidence of the impotence of the rebels, and the strike terror into the minds of all classes of the population.

From Shanghai advices have been received to the 13th inst. The Imperialists keep up a desultory warfare with little or no effect, and the struggle is aided and prolonged by some injudicious foreigners, who are not hesitating to furnish the imperialists and the insurgents with arms and ammunition. But for the supplies so furnished it is probable that both parties would have quietly each year to fire out and exhaust the patience of the other, instead of which they are tempted to struggle for mastery without the probability of accomplishing anything. It would also appear that the Imperialists, having heard that some guns were about to be removed from a foreign hong to the headquarters of the rebels, endeavored to prevent the rebels carrying the guns away, and it would also seem that these imperialists had provided materials which induced the foreign community to believe that they would assist in the destruction of the rebels, consequence was a general turn out of all the foreign residents, aided by armed parties from the ships-of-war. With Mr. Wadell, the last of the foreign residents, who had been foreign residents drove the Imperialists from their settlement, although not without exchanging shots, in which some six or seven Chinese were wounded.

On the following day Messrs. Wade and Meadows were sent by the British Consul with a despatch to Kiof, the judge, to demand the return of the British Consulate, and that the imperial soldiers were under the general, and that strict orders had been given them not to enter the British limits. On the 13th inst. the British Consul stated that the imperial soldiers were under the general, and that strict orders had been given them not to enter the British limits. On the 13th inst. the British Consul stated that the imperial soldiers were under the general, and that strict orders had been given them not to enter the British limits.

AUSTRALIA.

We have further news from Melbourne to the 13th October. These accounts are very interesting, and show that the progress of the great movement is making in the interior. We have very little certain information of the doings of the rebels, but it is generally believed that the emperor is besieged in Pekin, and various rumours are current up and down the coast, but it is not certain, but of this no certain information has been received.

On the subject of the present position and prospects of the great movement, the Friend of China is of opinion that the Tartar dynasty is now at its last gasp, and that the year will not unwarrentably be called as the year of Hangeun-tai-chen, the Prince of Peace.

INDIA.

The India Mail has arrived with dates from Bombay to the 24th October, and from Hong Kong to the 27th November. The intelligence from Burmah is contradictory. There was a rumour that the British had recaptured Pegu, but that a combined movement against the British was about to take place. We have also the old story of the Russians being at Khiva. The Africans have recaptured the British in accepted our terms. In China the news has given evacuated Amoy, and the Imperialists have committed horrible massacres there, and are now being driven back by the British
