PUBLIC OPINION.

The Meeting at DeGros Marsh.

The Mortgage Government Condemned.

A political meeting was held in the DeGros Marsh Schoolhouse, Lot 55, on Saturday evening, March 4th. The meeting was organized by appointing Mr. Michael McCormack chairman. Stirring speeches were made by Cyrus Shaw, Esq., M. P. P., J. C. Underhay, M. P. P., P. Koughan, Geo. Goff and Jos. R. McLean, Esqs.

All the speakers were unanimous in their condemnation of the policy of the Peters Government. The mortgage vote, the disfranchising of Dominion officials, the gerrymander, and the mongrel legislature attempted to be created by the Reserved Bill—these and other misdeeds of the Government were ably and fully discussed by the several speakers, who exposed the crookedness, treachery, dishonesty, imbecility and utter disregard of the wishes of the people evinced by Premier Peters and his subservient followers.

The following resolution was passed unanimously:

Whereas, During the last session of the House of Assembly of this Province, a bill respecting the Legislature was passed by the said House, by a majority of one, and subsequently by the Legislative Council, and from which the assent of His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor has been withheld;

And whereas, Said bill revived the mortgage vote which was annulled by previous legislation, thus granting to money-lenders undue influence at elections, which will have the effect of nullifying the free and independent expression of the people at the polls;

And whereas, The provisions of said bill will practically disfranchise the young men of this province by granting two votes to property-holders and only one to non-property-holders for the election of members to serve in the Legislative Assembly constituted by said bill;

And whereas, the management of the Provincial Elections by the provisions of said Bill are taken out of the hands of the Sheriffs of the respective Counties, who are nominated by the Judges of the Supreme Court, and vested in persons nominated directly by the Government, is sufficient indication of an attempt to conduct our elections by the most unworthy means.

And whereas, the depriving of Dominion officials of their franchise, and thus preventleg them from having a voice in any laws inlating to taxation, education or any legislation in which they are directly interested, is tyrannical and unjust.

Whereas, The re-arrangement of the boundaries of four districts in King's County, which has been made with a view of changing grit minorities into grit majorities is so glaringly outrageous as to cause the Government to be ashamed of having the provisions of said Bill discussed or voted on with open doors;

Therefore Resolved, That in the opinion of this meeting, the Government, in passing said Bill unsolicited, unasked or without any mandate from the people, has acted in a most arbitary, unjust and tyrannical manner, and unworthy of the confidence or respect of the electors of this Province.

Ottawa Notes.

During last week the earlier part was taken up with the Budget debate, and after that Mr. Weldon's motion respecting the coal combine of Nova Scotia. This subject has occupied a great deal of attention, but the Minister of Justice will not interfere. It has been hinted that his steadfastness in maintaining Provincial rights is preparing the way for non-interference in the Manitoba School Question, which comes up on Monday, 6th March, when Mr. Tarte is expected to speak on the subject.

Among the matters that will engage the House in the near future is the resolution of D'Alton McCarthy, notice of which has been given. Mr. McCarthy has not added to his popularity this session. Both parties are dissatisfied with him. He voted with the Government in favor of protection, thus irritating the Liberals; and his amendments in favor of binder twine, coal oil and agricultural implements does not make him popular with the Government side. As I heard a person saying to-day, he is playing the Liberal cards and they do not thank him for it.

The bill respecting witnesses in criminal cases occupied the afternoon session on Friday, and the debate elicited the fact that it was intended to make defendants to criminal suits, competent and compellable witnesses. Mr. Davies, of P. E. I., spoke strongly in favor of the bill, and made out a good case for the proposed change. Respecting witnesses, it is to be hoped that the local Legislature will not omit to amend the fees now authorized, as it is a monstrous piece of injustice to take persons away from their business for days and only give them 27 cents per diem, besides their mileage.

Senator Howlan is busy collecting facts about the tunnel borings made last summer. He has lately received from Mr. F Bain a plan of the bottom of the Straits so far as bored, with the different strata in colors. He has also been engaged in collecting a quantity of interesting information respecting the early history of Isle Saint Jean when under French rule. He has succeeded in getting a description of the route followed by Mons. Frauquet from Port la Joie to St. Peter's harbor, with the names by which the several rivers and harbors were known at the time, and their names now. In this way the student of Island history can follow the route more intelligently. The material collected will be incorporated into a lecture that is to be delivered this spring.

The principal society event was the tobogganing party at Rideau Hall on Wednesday night. It was a brilliant affair, and was attended by hundreds. Among the Islanders were Hon. Senator Macdonald, Mr. A. C. and Miss Macdonald, and Mr. J. McLean, M. P.

While the budget debate was under way on Tuesday night, or rather Wednesday morning, a number of the members gathered in the place known as "down stairs." They appointed Dr. Landerkin chairman, and then the fun began. A committee of two was appointed to bring in recruits, and they worked so energetically that soon some fifty or sixty were present, including a good representation of the press gallery—who, by the way, generally manage to get around when anything in the way of diversion is going on. Songs were sung and speeches made, interspersed by touching the bell, which at a time like that is a costly operation. The fun reached its height when the Minister of Finance was taken in by force, as he does not patronize gatherings of that kind. He did not stay long, but made an excuse to skip out. About 2 35 a. m. the gong sounded for the division, and the members trooped up to the House to record their votes. Verily some of them were well fortified by their visit "down stairs." The members for P. E. Island were not in it, and whether by accident or design are seldom seen in that section of the building.

The annual dinner of the press gallery is fixed for Saturday, 4th March, and will be among the things of the past when you receive these notes. The dinner is to be held in the House of Commons restaurant, and the Leader of the Government and Mr. Laurier are expected to be present, besides a number of members of the House who have been invited.

On Thursday a meeting was held of the Select Committee on Agriculture. Mr Lowe, Deputy Minister, was examined respecting the scheduling of Canadian cattle in England. Much interesting interesting information was elicited respecting the action of the High Commissioner and the Dominion Government in their efforts to prevent the action that was taken last fall by the English Government. Referring to the diseases of animals that are liable to interfere with the Canadian cattle trade, he said that information had lately been received from the High Commissioner of the contemplated intention to include tuberculosis among those diseases that would incur scheduling. If this were done it would be a serious matter for Canada, as that disease was as common among Canadian cattle, as was consumption among the people, and it extended all over the Dominion. The Fisheries Bill that was contemplated, has been abandoned owing to the absence of Mr. Tupper, and the same regulations as were in force last year, will be carried out this season.

An interesting debate on the bill respecting masters and mates took place on Thursday afternoon. Mr. Baird, of Queen's, N. B., took strong grounds in favor of curtailing pilotage rights, by exempting coasting vessels of under 250 tons from being forced to take a pilot. Messrs. Davies, Welsh and Kenny spoke on the matter. Mr. Kenny made a strong point in opposition to Mr. Davies by showing that the depression in shipping was general all over the world; and could in no way be charged to the operation of the National Policy. With respect to the adoption of a load line, the impression appears to be that no such measure should be enforced.

Mr. Hazen spoke in favor of protecting the pilots, who he said had to pass an examination and provide efficient boats. Without a staff of efficient pilots no port could maintain a first-class reputation. The coasting trade should not be handicapped with regulations respecting masters and mates, as the American laws did not require classed officers in their trade with the West Indies. Difficulties were often met in obtaining men who were qualified. He thought the domiciliation part of the Act should be amended.

Considerable amusement was created on Wednesday night by the action of Mr. Temple, of York, who voted in favor of abolishing the duty on corn. It was sad to see Messrs. Davies, Perry and Yeo voting to take off the duty on corn, as it will have a most disastrous effect on their constituents on P. E Island. One gentleman from Cape Breton says that the abolition of the duty on corn will decrease very materially the sale of oats in that Island. Two supporters of the opposition voted in favor of retaining the duty; so it was no party question, but a matter of expediency. Why it was that the liberals from P. E. Island did not try to conserve the interests of their constituents by voting against the abolition of the duty, will be a pertinent question in the future.
