The Telephone Company

—OF—

P. E. ISLAND.

PARTIES using the Telephone would find talking much more satisfactory if they would observe the following rules:—

1st. Speak with the mouth about four inches from the transmitter.

2nd. Speak in a moderate tone of voice, not too loud, and distinctly.

3rd. Place the telephone so as to cover the ear, just as if you wished to shut out all other sounds.

It is possible to talk and be heard when standing back two or three feet from the transmitter, if you shout loud enough, but it is not a pleasant mode of conversation, is entirely unnecessary, and is a useless waste of wind and lungs, besides being very annoying to all within range of your voice.

Notes and Comments.

Some Toronto clergymen objected to a parade of militia on Canada's Thanksgiving Day. Some New York clergymen arranged their services for the U. S. Thanksgiving for an hour earlier on that day so that their congregations could go to the great football game in time to get a good seat. Unity in doctrine does not always imply uniformity in exposition.

When the United States civil war was over, the pension roll contained 85,986 names, and involved an expenditure of $8,525,153 annually. Twenty-six years after the war, the pension roll contained 676,160 names, and called for payments of $118,648,950. In the current fiscal year the pension list will amount up to $150,000,000, and unless congress repeals some of its recent legislation on the subject, the annual appropriation for pensions is expected to reach $200,000,000 within a few years. Now that a deficit in the finances has to be faced, there is a chance that the list of pensioners will be considerably curtailed.

Montreal Gazette: The exports of Canada for the first four months of the fiscal year, which practically means the harvest year, amount to $53,260,000, of which $7,587,872 represents the growth in value of goods the produce of the country itself. This fact helps to account for the very large increase in the bank circulation noted in the last statement, and in an evidence of the swelling volume of business being done in Canada, compared with former years. Such a growth in exports, which may be expected to continue for some time, cannot but increase also the amount of internal trade, and if competition makes merchants complain that their profits are small, the people know they are getting extra value for their money. Canada should have a happy Christmas in 1892.

The Boston Herald, referring to possible selections of Cabinet ministers by President-elect Cleveland, says that those of the gossips who are assigning the position of secretary of state to Senator Carlisle will do well to remember that this is a position which none but rich men can very well afford to hold nowadays. That office, as it has been filled for several years, involves a personal expenditure of about $25,000 a year in the way of entertainment and other incidental outlays. None of the Cabinet offices leave much margin for those who hold them in a liberal spirit in the way of salaries, but the secretaryship of state by a heavy drain upon the purse of its incumbent. These remarks are equally applicable to Cabinet positions in Canada. The minister at Ottawa who entertains even in a modest way finds his salary altogether inadequate to the demands upon his purses, and moreover, which cannot well be ignored. It is understood that when Mr. W. C. Whitney held the position of secretary of the navy in the Cleveland administration, his expenditure exceeded $100,000 annually, largely for purposes of entertainment.

The Manitoba Free Press is a paper not particularly friendly to the Dominion Government. Its trade policy is favorable to the revenue tariff. But it contends that the Conservative party is deserving of the support of the North-west. It affirms that the Liberal leaders never lose an opportunity in parliament to show their hostility to that part of the Dominion. They oppose every measure or proposition intended to assist its development, and endeavor to excite such prejudice as they can by dwelling on what they are pleased to consider the enormous cost it has been to the Dominion. "From Liberals," says the Free Press, "it has been all kicks and no ha' pence; we may dispute as we will about the ha' pence, but from the Conservatives we have at least received no kicks." To the Conservatives it is due that the country is opened up at all, and to them especially, and the bold policy of their great statesman, that it was put in communication with Eastern Canada. As for immigration, it has been slower than was hoped for; but years are required to overcome ancient prejudices against the climate of the western states. However, the conservative policy is not one of sloth or indifference, and the time is at hand when even the Free Press will give more than a grudging acknowledgment of its merits.

Henry Clews writes from New York: "The unsettled feeling left by the election assuming no definite shape, and the indications at the moment are that, whatever may be the later effects of the new commercial policy, there is no general disposition to attach extreme importance to this factor as an element of current speculation. The course of industrial stocks for the last ten days illustrates this view. The first feeling after the election was a very reasonable one that this class of securities must suffer under a change of tariff with especial severity; and, in consequence, they were sold very freely and their prices declined. It now turns out that, when the sellers of the industrial went to cover their sales, they had to pay a sharp advance to get the stock; which implies, as yet, the point has not been reached at which the principal holders are anxious to get rid of their holdings. This does not mean that holders are entirely indifferent about the bearing of our new industrial policy on investments; it merely implies that, at present, the situation is so complicated that no clear opinion can be formed as to how the change will work or when its effects will appear in market shape. The more the subject is considered the more it is seen that the change will bring advantages as well as disadvantages, and as eighteen months or two years must elapse before any new tariff law can take effect, there is a growing disposition to let this factor await for maturer development, to be watched and weighed during the interval, but not to be reckoned as an extreme influence in current speculation.

It is said that of all the pills in the market Everybody's Pills are the best. That is a high testimonial, but it is borne out by hundreds, using this popular family medicine.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

False Reports.

SIR,—I notice in your last issue "Dundas Notes," in which the writer states that THE EXAMINER is keenly looked for every Saturday, owing to the fact that it contains the most reliable news, both local and foreign. I wish to tell you that this fictitious author is no friend of THE EXAMINER. His notes from beginning to end are false, with the exception of reference to Rev Mr. Goodwill and the status of our roads, which are in much the same condition as in other parts of the Island, where this wonderful paper-distributing piece of mechanism known as the Government, money-saving road machine has done execution. How such an unbiased opinion in reference to the roads should be the outcome of a mind so degraded and polluted, I fail to discover. He quotes consistency as a jewel, puns up THE EXAMINER as a reliable paper, and attempts at the same time to flood its columns with the basest fabrications and most intemperate false statements which his vile, fiendish and disordered imagination is capable of. He speaks about the firm of Newbery & Morrison, enlarging their business, with Edmund Clay as their foreman. Now, no such firm is in existence in this vicinity, neither is there such a firm as Currie & Co. Mr. John Acorn is buying up beef for canning, and this whitewashed Yankee wit-cracker must make a display of his humor when he asserts that Currie & Co. are canning rabbits. What a noble vocation is his! What a high calling! Were the Americans not slow to recognize worth and latent (if any) ability, no doubt this community would have cause to regret the loss of its local celebrity in the person of this wonderful genius and brilliant composer. He next refers to Mr. Gustavus Clay, W. C. of Upton Lodge, and asserts that Mr. Clay has introduced blue regalia into the Lodge, having got the idea from Haverhill, Mass. This is another contemptible underhand thrust, as such an introduction would be contrary to the constitution of the I. O. G. T.

Your correspondent "Grassie's Friend," another and the same fabricator, (as both were written, no doubt, by the same party), refers to the firm of Laird & Nicholson—another firm not in existence in this vicinity, both these gentlemen being clerks in the firm of Matthew McLean & Co. He says they have the ruling of prices for produce, and consequently the stagnation in trade. At this point this grossly obnoxious scrawler, straddled for more calumnious thoughts, asserts that a schooner by the name of Edgar L. had run (in spite of Masson) ashore near Grand River. This is a base falsehood, framed, no doubt, for the purpose of giving the port of Grand River a bad name. In my estimation such news is not calculated to make a paper either reliable or popular. These dissemblers are most crafty in covering up their tracks. They are, without doubt, the best apples seen here for some years. Keep a community in a most confused state of sublime mixedness and chaotic disorder. The best friends become the bitterest enemies, as frequently the authorship of such is attributed to the wrong party, while the illiterate (in this case), though notoriously vicious wag, goes Scott free.

THE EXAMINER is not the only paper that has been misled in this particular, as both the Guardian and Patriot have printed contributions from the same source or from a sink equally iniquitous. SCHOOLBOY.

ITS EXCELLENT QUALITIES commend to public approval the California liquid fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs. It is pleasing to the eye, and to the taste and by gently acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels, it cleanses the system effectually, thereby promoting the health and comfort of all who use it.

WE are informed that on Monday night last the barn of Mr. John Darrach, of Westport, was destroyed by fire. The fire is believed to be the work of an incendiary. Mr. Darrach, we understand, was the principal witness for the defendant in the McPhee-Shaw case.

A BIG TURNIP.—While pulling turnips the other day, Martin Greenlaw, of Bay-side, came across one that he felt sure was anchored. It took quite a strong pull to induce it to let go of the ground, and when it did Mr. Greenlaw had his hands full. When weighed it brought the scales at 17 1/2 pounds.

SAD SUICIDE.—Hamilton Gable, a prosperous farmer of Alywin Township, Ottawa county, committed suicide by hanging himself a few days ago. The deceased was the father of a family and highly respected. His brother, a student for the Methodist ministry, suicided some years ago by shooting himself. The action in his case was also put down to insanity, as no other causes sufficient to account for such an act could be discovered.

SKODA'S GERMAN SOAP. "Soft as Velvet." "Pure as Gold," that tells the whole story. Most highly medicated soap ever made. Try one cake. It is elegant. At all Druggists, Price, 25 cts.

NO ONE ever smoked "Myrtle Navy" tobacco for a fortnight and then took to any brand in preference to it. It bears its own testimony of its qualities, and it is this testimony which is always convincing. The smoker who uses it is never annoyed by getting it sometimes of good quality and sometimes of bad. The arrangements of the manufacturers for keeping its quality equal are very elaborate and complete, and are the results of many years of experience and close observation.

Palpitation of the Heart, Kidney and Liver Trouble, Deathly Faintness and Loss of Appetite CURED!!

THE FOLLOWING LETTER PROVES THE WONDERFUL MEDICAL POWERS OF THE GREAT GERMAN-AMERICAN REMEDY. THE NAME OF REV. H. MILLS (THAN WHOM THERE IS NO OTHER KNOWN MAN IN THE MINISTRY) IS WELL KNOWN IN THOUSANDS OF HOUSEHOLDS IN THE FINE TREE STATE.

GENTS.—I am now 57 years old, and for over 10 years I have been afflicted with weak kidneys so badly at times that I could not rest nights. I could get no position that would be comfortable for my back was so lame.

My Liver also became affected, causing me to become very nervous. I had a Dull Headache continually accompanied by a sluggish tired feeling.

My Appetite was very poor, and I lost a deathly faintness at pit of stomach.

For the last two years I have been greatly troubled with a severe Palpitation of the Heart after preach.

I have used the two Course of SKODA'S DISCOVERY and LITTLE TABLETS you kindly sent me, and through the blessing of God, I am PERFECTLY CURED—have COLD not felt better for 20 years.
