Irish Face Elimination

THE BIS Shamrocks face elimination this evening when they tangle with Canadian Tire Pistons in the fifth game of a best-of-seven City Softball League semi-finals.

The Irish copped the first one but the Pistons have rebounded to grab the next three and now need only one decision to make their way into the final round with National Park All-Stars.

The Parkdale Lions, led by Art Ballem, gave a great account of themselves before submitting to Mike Connolly's Park crew. The Lions had finished a poor fourth in regular season play but they perked up in great fashion as the semi-finals got going.

As far as The Irish and Pistons are concerned, it has been a ding-dong affair right from the start. Mike O'Brien has certainly been the hero to date with his two brilliant pitching performances. O'Brien has come out of semi--retirement to give his mates a big edge in this battle with Vern Blanchard's gank.

However, it must benoted that the last defeat of the Irish was a mighty tough one. The Irish had it in their grasp until a damaging error allowed two runners to cross the plate. It was anybody's ball game but the good luck certainly didn't fall to the Irish Tuesday evening.

BUT a great many times such games are won on these kind of breaks. Naturally the fellow making the bobble feels mighty rough about the whole thing. We know this was the case with this Tuesday defeat of the Shamrocks.

However, somebody is bound to make a miscue and players should not blame themselves if they are really trying. In this case Tuesday, everybody was trying desperately and it was regrettable that the issue had to be decided in such a way.

But these things happen and will continue to happen in the best of leagues. Very often the player that miscues in a crucial spot like this, has been a tower of strength all season long. That is especially true in this case in question.

At any rate, it's a bang up series and the Pistons are the last ones who will claim that it's all but over. These teams are so evenly mated that anything that happens will not be termed an upset.

The teams are playing great softball and the fans are showing up each night in ever-increasing numbers.

Which team will make the finals? We will not predict but we will say that either the Pistons or Irish should give a good accoun of themselves against the Hughes and Bradleys from the Park.

Tune Is Changed

WE have said many nice things about the City Baseball League this season and we ment every word we typed.

There was much to praise in many of the games and the players seemed to give everything they had. Hustle was a must with all teames and the closeness of the battles kept things in a high state of excitement.

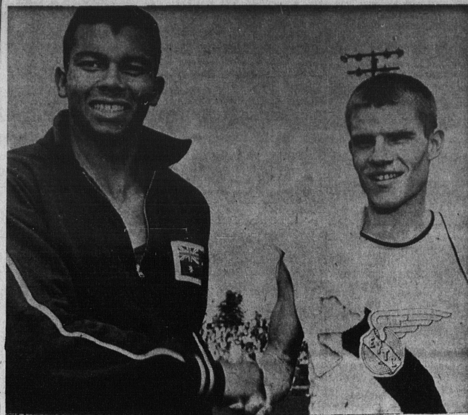
Now we change out tune after watching Tuesday's game between Rovers and Stars. It was a lacklustre affair and the Rovers, of course, beaten 10-3 were the cause of most of the sad state of affairs.

We can't just put our finger on what was wrong, other than the Rovers seemed minus any degree of pep. They were strangely quiet when they were in the field and chatter was definitely a minus quantity.

Perhaps we are all wrong but we have the idea that several players are playing positions for which they are not suited. And that goes for pitchers too. We just can't see this trying to make an infielder out of a player who shows no tendency to play the infield. We can't see this keeping on pitching a chap who is laboring all the time he is on the mound. We can't see allowing pitchers to stay on the hill while the opposition bangs them all over the field.

Some fellows just haven't the knack of tossing them from the mound, so why keep putting them in to be slaughtered. It's surely no disgrace not to be able to hold down a certain position. The best forward on a hockey team undoubtedly would make a rotten goaltender.

Shouldn't things be similar in baseball?



TEAM MATES FOR PERTH

Harry Jerome (left) of Vancouver and Bruce Kidd of Toronto, shaking hands at the British Empire Games trials in Toronto Saturday were selected to represent their country at the BE games in Perth, Australia. Jerome won the 220 yards today while Kidd took the three miles. Saturday, Kidd covered the six miles in 28:09.4 — fastest in North America — while Jerome blazed across the 100 yards in 9.4. Eastern Football Circuit Opens '62 Season Tonight

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

The Eastern Football Conference heads into another season tonight—possibly its most glittering year since Montreal Alouettes ruled supreme for three straight seasons in 1954-55-56.

The defending champion Hamilton Tiger-Cats, with only a few changes in last year's squad, rate as solid favorites in spite of a dismal, pre-season exhibition record of three losses. It has not lured the other clubs — the Alouettes, Toronto Argonauts and Ottawa Rough Riders into any false hopes the Ticats will be easy to knock off.

The Alouettes, however, could be the team to do it with the addition of a highly-publicized rookie quarterback, Sandy Stephens, to solve their quarterback problem. The offence, was the big failing in their last-place finish in 1961. They had the best defensive club in the league but it was not enough to overcome their inability to move the ball.

The Argonauts and Rough Riders, with problems on both offence and defence are not considered as strong contenders. But the Argos' free-wheeling, quick-striking passing attack and the Rough Riders' well-balanced offence, make both clubs dangerous.

MOSS PREDICTS

Except for the Alouettes' Perry Moss, who thinks his three-year rebuilding job now is ready to pay off, none of the coaches will make any predictions as to where their clubs will finish in their 14-game schedules.

Moss is expecting big things from Stephens, who passed up Cleveland Browns of the National Football League to sign a three-year no-cut contract with Montreal at $20,000 a season. The Als' coach predicts his club will finish second at least and it wouldn't surprise him if they do better than that.

The Tiger-Cats, first-place finishers in 1961 with a 10-4 won lost record, and the Rough Riders open the schedule tonight in Ottawa. The Argonauts and Alouettes meet in Toronto Friday night in their opener.

Hamilton, which lost to Winnipeg Blue Bombers in a thrilling, over-time Grey Cup final last season, again will have all-star quarterback Bernie Faloney directing its attack. Jim Trimble, coach of the Tiger-Cats, no longer is worried about the club's offensive power now that veteran end Paul Dekker has abandoned his retirement plans and pass-catching ace Hal Patterson appears fully recovered from knee and shoulder injuries in 1961.

Ottawa which finished in second place last season with eight wins and six losses, has been revamped slightly by coach Frank Clair who says he has "a better club than last year." Clair has about seven newcomers who he thinks will be a big help after they pick up some experience.

Import Ron Lancaster and homebrew Russ Jackson will split the quarter-back job again and back to lead the ground attack are Dave Thelen and Ron Stewart.

Stephens, former University of Minnesota star, is the quarterback Moss thinks will make Montreal fans forget Sam Etcheverry, who led the Alouettes in their great championship years of 1954-55-56 and then was let go in Moss' rebuilding job.

Tracadie Cops Opener

Tracadie Cross downed Johnston's River 11-8 in the first game of a semi-final round in the Southern Queen's Baseball League last Sunday.

Gerry McCallum tossed for the winners gathering seven strikeouts over the route, while Billy McFarlane toed the slab for the losers.

Second sacker, Mervyn McNally, led the winners taking three singles and two free passes in five trips gathering three runs. Mike MacDonald took three singles in five trips totalling two runs for the losers.

Next Sunday Tracadie Cross invades Johnston's River for the second game of the best-of-three semi-finals. Game time is two o'clock.

Umpire for the game was Ernie Trainor assisting him on the bases were John Paul and Mike McKenna.

Holman's Crush St. Eleanors

SUMMERSIDE — Holman's downed St. Eleanors by the score of 20-7 last evening in a Social League softball play-off game to go ahead two games to nil in the best of five semi-finals.

Des Sherry went all the way for the winners, as did Harry Barlow for the losers. Des Sherry also led his team's attack, getting a perfect 6 for 6., and only home run of the ball game.

Jim MacFarlane had 4 for 4. and Leonard MacCausland 5 for 6.

For the losers Gerald Thomas had 4 for 5.

Austrian Wins Ninth Lap Of Tour Du St. Laurent

By STEWART MacLEOD

HULL, Que. (CP) — Frank Gerhard, a slim, shy Austrian, piston-legged his bicycle from Montreal to Hull Wednesday at an average speed of 24 miles an hour to win the ninth lap of the Tour du St. Laurent by a split second.

The win, by a wheel's length over Russia's Victor Kapitonov, boosted Gerhard's standing to fifth from 16th. Despite a six-place finish Wednesday, Russia's Aleksei Petrov remained in the lead. Petrov finished ahead of his nearest rival, Austria's Adolf Christian Wednesday.

Gerhard, peddled the 122 miles in 4:46:37, the same time as clocked by Kapitonov. They strained, side-by-side, for much of the way, gradually pilling ahead of Russia's Gainan Saidkhudzin, who led a closely-packed group of 37, about 11 minutes behind the leaders.

Forty-eight completed the trip under cloud-speckled skies. The only one who failed to finish was Tim Kelly of Santa Monica, Calif. The temperature was in the low 70s.

Seven laps remain in the international competition.

More than 1,000 spectators gathered around the finish line to see the see-saw battle work down to the wire. Gerhard made his final thrust a few yards from the line. Kapitonov just shook his head.

The pack of 37 who followed were all given times of 4:57:33. Both Petrov and Christian, were in the group.

At the end of nine laps, which have covered 596 miles, Petrov leads with a time of 25:09:56, followed by Christian with 25:11:25. Kapitonov, who moved up two notches as a result of Wednesday's second-place finish, is third with 25:16:34.

The Montreal - Hull race left team standings unchanged. They stand in this order: Russia, Austria, United States, Canada, Switzerland, England, Toronto Abruzzi, Charlesbourg, Que., and California.

The 48 cyclists were to race around a 25-mile closed circuit in nearby Ottawa's Rockcliffe Park Wednesday night before starting out for Cornwall, Ont., this morning. Then they work their way back to Montreal and Quebec City for the tour's end Aug. 11.

Big Pays Feature S'side Program

SUMMERSIDE — Some of the best win and place pays of the season were chalked up at Summerside Raceway last night and some close, exciting finishes were seen by a fairly large crowd despite the inclement weather.

Senator Don C owned by Paddy Land Farms, Kensington, won the first dash of the D-2 pace and paid $121.60. Princess Spangler ,owned by A. MacNeill, Summerside paid $44.00 to place in the first dash of the D-1 trot.

Chuck H. also owned by Paddy Lands Farms, paid $22.00 to win in the second dash of the D-2 trot, and the exactor on that race, featuring Chuck H. and Mr. Key, paid $57.60. The quinella paid $8.30 and the two daily doubles paid $44.00 and $23.00.

Chuch H. set a new record of 2.17 2-5 in winning the second dash of the D-2 trot. My Haven did not finish the first dash of the D-2 pace. The horse fell and the driver, Clarky Smith was knocked off the bike but was uninjured.

Harness Racing Slated Tonight

Harness racing returns tonight to Charlottetown Driving Park where nine great looking dashes are scheduled for the big crowd expected.

Feature attraction will be dashes five and nine with Clarke Smith taking his great pacer, Santiago, away on the rail. Santiago grabbed himself a new tab of 2.08 in his last outing.

However, he has a rugged looking opposition to face tonight. Five other classy pacers have their eyes on top money. They are Mr. Rock (Joe Hennessey), Amos Frost (Buddy Campbell), Dominion Byrd (Doug Hill) and Blue Sky Lark (Emmet Bernard).

Dashes three and seven should be almost as exciting as the feature attraction. Here patrons find Ray Grattan Up in the choice rail position. This pacer is looking better each time out and should be tough to head tonight. His competitors are Edgewood Hal, Helen's Dream, Here Am I, Pert Darnley and Homestretch Linda.

Each of the other five dashes should be chalked full of excitement and chances for big parimutuel pays are good tonight.

The first daily double will be on races one and two, with the quinella on dash three.

First dash goes promptly at 8 o'clock.

Baseball Action Slated Tonight

This is the big night at Memorial Field. It was supposed to be last night but wet grounds forced a postponement.

A baseball doubleheader, with the nightcap going under the lights, is the program lined up for the big crowd expected to turn out.

Two Little League teams start the show with an exhibition game at 7 o'clock. These youngsters are just itching to show their abilities before a big crowd and they'll get their chance tonight.

These lads have been well coached all season long and their handlers are anxious to show parents and friends just what they can do.

Following the youngsters' act, King's County All-Stars will play Charlottetown Abbies in an exhibition game under the arcs.

George Smith? Peakes' Bombers manager, is handling the King's boys and he has rounded together a most capable squad that has every intention of trouncing the home team.

Abbies will present the cream of The City Baseball League and to a man they are confident they can take the measure of the visitors from out of town.

A large crowd from King's County is certain to make the trip to the capital city tonight and you can expect them to be really cheering their boys to victory. Abbies are hoping they'll attract a large number of local ball followers.

It should be a night to remember at Memorial Field The Little Leaguers go at 7 o'clock and the King's County All Stars and Abbies will follow immediately with their act.

Here are the lineups for the main contest:—

Kings County All-Stars: — Cox, MacAulay, Murphy, McGuire, MacDonald, Keefe, Pickett, B. MacIntyre, Crane, Coffin, Connolly Smith, Devine, Bradley, Dunphy MacIntyre. Handling the coaching chores will be George Smith of Peakes.

Abbies: — Kennedy, John Arsenault, Ready, Lund, Callaghan, W. MacDonald, B. Gallant, MacLean, Shepherd, D. MacDonald MacLeod, Squarebriggs, MacKinnon, Lewis, K. MacDonald, and L. Baglole. Manager-coach is Buck Whitlock.

Injured Driver Dies Wednesday

The driver, who finished fourth in this year's 500-mile Memorial Day classic at Indianapolis, suffered a fractured skull.

Davis' car looped and bounced 128 feet, rammed into a guard rail, flipped over twice and landed upside down with the full weight on the driver.

Bantam-Midget Playoffs Open

SUMMERSIDE — The Bantam-Midget baseball playoff tournament is under way in Summerside with three teams participating.

The two top teams at the end of the tournament will play a best of seven series for the R. T. Holman trophy.

Thurs. Aug. 9, Giants vs Dodgers; Fri. Aug. 10, Cardinals vs Dodgers; Sat. Aug. 11, (open for rained out games); Mon. Aug. 13, Giants vs Cardinals; Tue., Aug. 14, Dodgers vs Giants.

Golf Tourney Goes Friday

The first round of an Island Invitational Junior golf tournament for both boys and girls gets underway Friday at the Charlottetown Golf Club.

The competition, open to Junior golfers from Summerside and Charlottetown starts at 11 o'clock and will be for 9 and 18 holes.

Entries will be accepted at the pro Shop.

Pictou Driver Is Suspended

TRURO (CP) — Wilfred Shea, veteran Pictou, N.S. reinsman, has been suspended for a period of 15 days following an investigation of a harness race which he won with Jollity Bars at Truro Raceway on July 25.

Saliva tests made following the race showed some trace of drug. Carl MacKenzie, manager of Truro Raceway, said Wednesday a slight trace of procaine was found. He said chemical analysis were unable to locate the origin or source of the drug, but showed there was not enough present to stimulate the horse.

Presiding judge Doug MacKenzie, in announcing the 15-day suspension from July 27, to August 10, said it was in line with rules of the United States Trotting Association, governing body of racing in Nova Scotia.

WILLING WORKRS

OTTAWA (CP)—When workmen were gathering discarded Christmas trees last winter they also "picked up" a growing seven-foot spruce from J. J. Grant's snow - covered front lawn. City council agreed Tuesday night to pay $25.75 to replace the tree.

Midgets Beat Bantams 4-2

In the only Minor Baseball League game yesterday the Midget All Stars edged Bantam All-Stars 4-2 in a well-played game. Harvey Trainor hurled a neat three-hitter for the victory while Allan Doucette fired a five-hitter in a losing cause.

Cyril MacDonald, leftfielder for the Midgets, was the only batter to get two hits while Joe Gallant of the Midgets and Bobby Whitlock of the Bantams each banged out doubles.

The other Bantam hits were picked by Wally MacInnis and Barry LeClair.

Lloyd Blanchard made four running catches in left field for the Bantams.

SPORT ECHOES

By Norman Macdonald
Summerside Bureau of The Guardian

A Unique Event

An event unique in the annals of Prince Edward Island Sports took place at Queen Elizabeth Park in Summerside on Tuesday evening. We have had a good many celebrations for athletes who achieved a Maritime championship, but, to our knowledge, Alfred Groom is the firse Canadian champion to be so honored. We believe Alfred is the Prince Edward Islander to gain a berth on a Canadian team to take part in British Empire games.

It is a honor that did not fall to Alfred as a plum falls out of a plum tree, or like the winning of the Irish Sweepstakes. Long periods of tedious, painstaking training made the honor possible. When we hear of a person who wins fame and glory in athletics, the theatre, the realm of politics, etc., we are inclined to think of them as fortune's favorites. To a limited extent this is probably true, but nearly always behind the glitter and glamour, there are extended periods of drudgery— lightened somewhat, of course, by the person's devotion and dedication to the work he is doing.

Always in our communities there are a few with talents which could carry them far, but the dogged determination to slave-drive themselves to success is lacking. Inspiration is said to be nine-tenths perspiration, and Alfred Groom has certainly sweated a lot to gain his present high pinnacle of athletic achievement.

WAS ALSO A POLE

Was Also A Pole-Vaulter

We don't think it is generally known that Vaughan Groom, Alfred's father, was also a pole-vaulter in his youth. We listened to Bob Clark and Vaughan reminiscing at the airport Tuesday evening about a junior track and field meet they attended together on the mainland. Bob was 13 or 14 at the time and Vaughan was about 16. Vaughan won the pole-vault at that meet with a jump of a little over 10 feet, which was probably in those days a pretty respectable vault.

Baseball fans be sure to attend the old-timer-Legion Junior baseball game at Queen Elizabeth Park on Saturday at 6 p.m. Bring your own peanuts and crackerjacks, and be ready to get the thrills of your lives. Some of the feats you are likely to see: (1) Russ Phaneuf crossing Granville St., crawling under a couple of cars, and making a one-hand stab up on the verandah of a house across the street. (2) A 6 to 4 to 3 double play—Hank Landry scooping up the ball like a seagull going after a fish or a car-ferry ham sandwich, handing it off to Syl Bernard at second, who pivots fast (the little beaver can move when he's in a hurry) and drives it to first.

(3) Pony Daley pitching; Bob Schurman catching. A Legion Junior batter bunts the ball halfway between the mound and the plate. Get the picture? We told you you'd be thrilled. (4) Henry Gallant going into third base and touching the base with his chin a split second ahead of the tag (Guess where). (5) Alan Stewart making a circus catch of the ball in centre field, and drilling it (Alan should be better at drilling now than he was in his youth) to Bob Schurman at the plate as he did in that 12-inning play-off game in Charlottetown quite a few years ago.

A Few Possible Hazards

We can't guarantee that those plays will come off exactly as advertised. There are a few possible hazards. such as arteriosclerosis, lumbago, fallen arches, and occupational neurosis that might slow those boys, (and we use the word "boys" reminiscently) down a trifle. They may not be quite at their peak, but certainly, in their make-hay days, these sons were shining very brightly.

MacKenzies Cop Playoff Opener

SUMMERSIDE — MacKenzie's House of Fashions softball team, last year's Maritime Intermediate "B" champions trounced Gaudet's Save-Easies at Summerside last night in the first game of a best-of-five semifinal series by the lop-sided score of 18-3.

For four and a half innings, the Save-Easy boys stayed in the ball game with the score 4-3 in favor of MacKenzies. Then the roof fell in. Cece Mosher who had pitched the first four innings for Save-Easies gave up two hits and three walks in the fifth and was replaced by Harold Leard.

Leard issued three consecutive free passes to first and was yanked in favor of Mort Thomas. The hectic inning came to an end when the nineteenth batter grounded out to second base after 14 runs had scored.

Gil Amyot went the route for MacKenzies, allowing nine fairly-well scattered hits. He walked four, one intentionally. No less than seven batters hit directly to the box, giving Amyot seven assists.

MacKenzie's poled out fifteen hits in all and walked 12 times. Mosher allowed 8 safe bingles and Thomas 7.

Mort Onyett led the onslaught with three singles and a double in five trips. Gord Lyon had two singles and a double in five tries. Clarence Gillis and Lou Monk each hit 2 for 4.

For the losers Frank Wigglesworth had a perfect 2 for 2, walking and laying down a sacrifice bunt in his other times at bat. The second game of the series will be played tonight at Queen Elizabeth Park softball diamond.
