The rare and critical operation involving an artery in the region of the heart, was performed on Tuesday, February 26th, by Dr. Gross, one of the very few surgeons on the continent capable of correcting such a condition, which in this case was discovered by Dr. Downing, one of Summerside's clever young practitioners, and on the 15th, the patient was able to sit up and take nourishment. It was expected that she would remain in the hospital until the 25th of February, when she would probably spend a few days at 17 Thatcher St., Medford, Mass. where her mother, Mrs. Ernest Dunning, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Champion.—Bur.
