Family Prayer Emphasized At Impressive Ceremony

An estimated 8,000 people crowded into the Provincial Exhibition grounds yesterday afternoon to hear Rev. Patrick Peyton, founder of the Family Rosary Crusade, in a soul-stirring half hour address on family prayer.

Speaking amid rain showers on the platform of the judges' stand in centre field, Father Peyton in his humble and sincere yet forceful manner depicted the beauty of the Family Rosary and its benefits to homes.

His goal, he said, was to receive pledges from 10,000,000 families who were willing to recite the Rosary daily. The 8,000 people who braved the showers bore silent testimony that Prince Edward Island Roman Catholics would do their part.

Most Reverend James Boyle, Bishop of Charlottetown, introduced Father Peyton, Chairman of the Rally was Lieutenant Colonel Leo F. MacDonald.

One-half hour prior to the opening of the programme the Recce Band, under the direction of Bandmaster Tom MacFarlane, played appropriate hymns.

The stage itself was tastefully decorated. The form of a Rosary hung over the back of the stage which had a white and yellow background. Flags were flown from either side and on the front of the platform. The Recce Band members in their black and red uniforms and the Knights in black and purple added greatly to the general appearance.

The vanguard of the huge crowd moved into their seats early. By three o'clock all grandstand seats and most of the bleachers were filled. The area between the stands and the rail was soon filled and by the time the program started there was barely moving room anywhere.

The capable chairman started off the programme by asking the band to play "O Canada." His Excellency then introduced Father Peyton who commenced his address by reciting with the crowd the "Hall Mary."

Father Peyton praised "the beautiful faith of the people of Prince Edward Island." Nowhere in Canada in the past three years and purple added greatly to the general appearance.

Report Reds Get Tanks

Ridgway warned, however, that five Chinese armies (corps) of undetermined strength were capable of striking again. This would mean about 120,000 troops at full strength.

Coinciding with Ridgway's comment was a report from Formosa that Russia recently turned over more than 100 new T-34 tanks to the Chinese at Mukden, Manchuria. Some 1,200 Russian Red Army men were reported assigned to the Chinese Reds as advisers.

TORONTO, May 30 — (CP) — Word got around last night that a large audience at the Festival entered the Lakeshore Boulevard. By the time police arrived, 100 eager diggers had stripped a half-mile strip and were working into the Canadian National Exhibition grounds about 200 feet from the road.

Four prize winning plays in the Junior Class of the Provincial Drama Festival were presented before a large audience at the Festival entered its second evening at Parkdale Hall last evening.

Miss Estelle Bonness, Summer-aside, Convener of the Junior section of the Drama Association, presented each member of the four casts with a pin in recognition of their excellent work. A scholarship which is to be awarded in this class will be presented this evening.

Adj. Mr. J. L. Robertson spoke briefly on each performer and each production at the close of the entertainment, and again offered much constructive criticism. Although four plays usually makes for a very full and sometimes tedious evening, last evening's group was so arranged that waits between plays were cut to a minimum.

Mr. Robertson spoke first on Summerside's production of "Romance in Grey" which he termed a difficult one. He commented favorably on the costuming of this period piece, and on the very personable dowager of Betty Lou Trednick. He also complimented Eric Perry on his sympathetic and understanding portrayal of "George."

Of the second play, Kinkora Convent's "Doctor Manners", the adjudicator stated that last year he had sat back and thoroughly

Mr. McLure Argues Strongly Against Postal Rates Boost

OTTAWA, May 30 — (Special) — Charges that the proposed increases in postal rates for newspapers would work undue hardship in Prince Edward Island were made in the House of Commons this afternoon by W. Chester S. McLure, Progressive Conservative member for Queens.

Mr. McLure made it clear that the increased postage rate on newspapers as set forth in the Post Office Bill now before the Commons, would mean an increase of 166.6 percent for a daily newspaper in Prince Edward Island.

"I do not believe the position of newspapers in my Province can be compared with the position of newspapers in the larger centres," he said.

"There is one newspaper in Prince Edward Island with a circulation of 13,000 or more, which is a fairly large circulation in a province with the population of Prince Edward Island. Of that total circulation of 13,000, there are 8,000 copies delivered through the post office at Charlottetown, for which the newspaper pays an average rate of $40 a day.

"Under the new legislation they will have to pay four cents which means that their daily cost will be $90 or $100 for every day except Sunday. This is more than double what they pay now as their rate is being increased 166.6 percent. This is beyond all reason for a newspaper providing news throughout the constituency and to all parts of the Island. No newspaper in a province like Prince Edward Island can accept that. It will have to find some other way of getting their papers to the public."

"I suggest to the Postmaster-General that he institute a zoning system for the carriage of newspapers similar to that in effect for parcel post. When you consider that a newspaper distributes 5,000 copies through the post office must pay that of an additional $50 a day; sufficient to pay three or four employees, it means something."

"The Postmaster-General should adopt some means that will be agreeable to these newspapers which are to be penalized by this extra expense."

Mr. McLure told Postmaster-General Rinfret that representations for reconsideration of the new postal rate for newspapers in Prince Edward Island would be made to him directly later this week.

Massed Reds Force Withdrawal At One Point

By BILL BOSS
Canadian Press Staff Writer
SOMEWHERE IN KOREA, May 30 — (AP) — Chinese forces attacking in massed hundreds today forced Eastern Ontario troops by sheer weight of numbers to leave positions won just a few hours earlier.

(An Associated Press dispatch from Tokyo earlier told of a Canadian battalion on the central front, which captured a hill Tuesday night, being forced from it in a Red counter-attack at dawn. The AP said the battle for the position was still under way Wednesday night.)

The Chinese attacked in groups of from 90 to 100, hard upon one another.

The Canadians came back hard. Kicking off at 6 a.m. the Canadians, under Lt.-Col. Bob Keane of Fort William, followed up a thick artillery curtain laid onto intervening villages and thoroughly cleared them with flame-throwers and grenades before proceeding.

Lieut. Bill Wilcox of Chatham, Ont., who killed one Chinese who appeared from a ditch near him, said:

"They're burrowed in everywhere. There are none above ground. You've got to poke into every hole to get them out."

Companies under Majors Dick Medland, Toronto; Don Duncan, Hamilton; and Jack Peterson, St. Thomas, Ont., were well forward when a company led by Maj. Harry Boates of Glace Bay, N.S., assaulted a 1,500-foot hump-backed crest. It dominates a little valley.

Just as Boates reported all his platoons pinned down under thick machine-gun fire, Medland, forward and down below, asked for tank help.

Tanks under Lieut. Harold Wiant, Collingwood, Ont., went forward to help out.

Artillerymen Work in Rain
Canadian gunners, including a battery under Maj. Hugh Gillis of Antigonish, N.S., which had just moved into a new position, stripped to the waist in a downpour of rain to keep the guns firing.

Boates reported the Chinese massing on his front. Then in succession Medland, Duncan and Peterson had them coming in, Peterson had them on three flanks of his position.

Boates, his company weakened
