Cardinals Blast Cubs 9-1; Braves Defeat Cincinnati

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

The St. Louis Cardinals rode a seven - run seventh - inning to a 9-1 National League rout of the Chicago Cubs Wednesday.

St. Louis sent 12 batters to the plate in the 34-minute seventh at Chicago. Eight of them hit safely as loser Lew Burdette, Bobby Shantz and Lindy McDaniel — all former Cardinals—took turns trying to get the side out.

In another National League contest, the Milwaukee Braves knocked out Joe Nuxhall with five runs in the first inning and went on to a 6-2 victory over the visiting Cincinnati Reds.

A two - run double by Joe Torre sparked the uprising which gave Tony Cloninger an easy path to his 10th victory.

In Chicago, Ken Boyer singled twice during the spree and later added another single.

GAINED 11TH VICTORY

Veteran Curt Simmons gained his 11th victory as the surging Cardinals raced to their fifth straight victory.

Simmons yielded six hits after giving none for the first 5 1-3 innings. Burdette bunted safely for the Cubs' first hit.

In Milwaukee, Cloninger pitched seven-hit ball and set a club season high of 11 strike-outs. He had most of his trouble with the first two men in the Reds' batting order, Pete Rose and Chico Ruiz. Rose singled, tripled and walked and scored the Reds' runs on Ruiz's single and double.

Nuxhall retired only one batter before being withdrawn in the big first inning. Denny Mke opened with a single and after Felipe Alou was retired, walks to Henry Aaron and Rico Carty filled the bases.

Torre then doubled two runs home and Lee Maye and Mike de la Hoz each singled for one. Then Ryne Duren replaced Nuxhall and Frank Bolling squeezed the last run home with a bunt.

Cecil Mosher went the distance for the Movers in recording his second victory. He fanned two batters and walked four and was clipped for six hits.

Hard luck pitcher Bob Sleigh took the loss for Inman Plumbing, his seventh against one win. Sleigh, rapped for 11 hits, recorded no strike outs and issued only one walk.

Sleigh cracked out the game's only other home run, a two run belt in the fourth inning. John Pleson picked up a double and a single as well for the vastly improving Inman Plumbing 'nine'.

Northumberland Swim List Is Increased To Fourteen

The number of swimmers in the Northumberland Strait Marathon race from Cape Tormentine to Borden was increased to 13 yesterday with the entry of Charles Grover, Boston, Mass.

Grover, who has been on the North American marathon swim circuit for more than 10 years, has placed fourth in the Canadian National Exhibition swim and sixth at the 26-mile Atlantic City marathon. He arrived in Borden yesterday; and is rated a good chance to finish in the money in Saturday's nine mile swim.

Herman Willemese, Utrecht, Holland, and John LaCoursiere, Point Aux Trembles, Que., are rated as co-favorites to capture top money, but a victory by any one of the 'professional' entries would not be considered an upset.

EXPECTS TO WIN

Willemese, who arrived in Borden Sunday night accompanied by Carlos Larriera, Argentina, and Willemese's trainer Ron Grade, practiced in the Northumberland Monday and Tuesday. He expects to win; and knock close to an hour off LaCoursiere's last year record crossing time of seven hours, ten minutes.

LaCoursiere, a great favorite with the spectators at last year's swim, was expected to arrive in Borden last night. In the Atlantic City Marathon July 21, LaCoursiere placed third behind Willemese, who won the event for the fifth consecutive time in 10:30.5. Second was Abdel Latif Abou-Heif of Egypt.

Gail Clowse and Wendy Birch, both of Atlantic City, were expected to arrive in Borden last night, and are scheduled to hold workouts in the Strait this afternoon and tomorrow. Expected to arrive in P.E.I. today are Jean Anderson and George Park, both of Toronto.

RULES MEETING

Swimmers will be given rules and regulations at a meeting at the Abegweit Hotel, Friday, 1 p.m. The swim will start near the Cape Tormentine pier Saturday, 9:30 a.m. The winner is expected to arrive in Borden between 4-5 p.m.

Prizes will be as follows: First — $1,200; Second — $900; Third — $500; Fourth — $300; Fifth — $100.

The Islander finishing first will win $100. The sole Island entries to date are Helen Carragher, Ebbsfleet; and Morgan Mitchell, Charlottetown.

New Brunswick swimmers entered are Ralph Brooks, Hatfield Pt., and Ron Burns, Cape Tormentine.

ABOU HEIF IN

Officials of the Northumberland Strait swim announced late last night that Abou Heif. the famous Egyptian swimmer, phoned Borden last night to enter the big swim. Heif's entry increased the entry list to fourteen. The addition of the famous Egyptian also gives the swim the honor of having the top three distance swimmers in the world competing for top honors.

Giardello's adviser, Arnold Giovanetti, said at a press conference here the champion will be guaranteed $100,000 from gate receipts and theatre television for the 15-round bout.

Giardello won the title Dec. 7 in Atlantic City, N.J., from Dick Tiger of Nigeria.

Golf Royalty Has Arrived

By W. R. WHEATELY

MONTREAL (CP)—The royalty of golf arrived at the Pinegrove course late Wednesday in the wake of a crackling lightning storm and deluge of rain, and the figurative red carpet laid out was six inches thick.

Arnold Palmer and Jack Nicklaus were driven to the club in a car by a liveried chauffeur from Dorval Airport where they had landed in their planes 20 minutes apart.

The flew in from their homes, Palmer from Latrobe, Pa., and Nicklaus from Columbus, Ohio.

Crowds jammed the entrance to the clubhouse. Uniformed officials had to make way for the two top-money men of golf.

There was an implication of protocol as Palmer and Nicklaus were whisked swiftly to the contestants' locker room. It was promptly barred to newspaper men.

WENT OUT BACK

The two went out a back door and made their way to the first tee for a practice round in preparation for Thursday's opening round of the Canadian Open golf championship.

George Knudson of Toronot played along with Palmer and Nicklaus.

Big Race Tonight

FIVE OF the Maritime's top pacers take part in the 4th and 8th dashes at the Charlottetown Driving Park tonight for a purse of $1,500.

The invitational field consists of Dee's Boy (Myron MacArthur), Dominion Byrd (Joe Hennessey), Edgewood Scott (Elmer Smith), Willie's Adios (Dave Pinkney), and Port Wallis Boy (Art Porter).

Origionally scheduled for last Thursday, the big race was postponed seven days because of the 'epedemic' scare at Maritime tracks. The 'epedemic' is past however, and they're all set to go tonight.

One of the last big Maritime free-for-alls was at Sackville Downs, July 11, when New York horses Meadow Don and Kelly Blackstone were brought in. That one wasn't too successful with Meadow Don winning by more than three lengths over Edgewood Scott, Willie's Adios and Bob Brook. The time was 2:05.

I've checked with some of the City's more knowledgable race followers and the consensus is that it will likely be Willie's Adios or Dominion Byrd.

Dee's Boy hasn't been going too well lately and I'm told that Port Wallis Boy is stepping a little out of his class. No one had much to say about Edgewood Scott, but it's generally understood that the Stanley Mayhew owner horse rates with the best in these parts.

There will be the usual three preliminary double-dashes on the program. Post time is 7:45:

Off The Cuff

NEW YORK Mets bought infielder Bobby Klaus from Cincinnati Reds Tuesday night and sold first baseman TIM HARKNESS to San Diego, the Reds' farm club in the Pacific Coast League. Harkness, a 27-year-old native of Lachine, Que., was sold after he played with the Mets against Los Angeles Dodgers Tuesday night. He had 13 RBIs and two homers in 38 games this season. His batting average was .282. He had only recently return to the Mets' lineup after suffering a pinched nerve in his shoulder May 17. Klaus, 26, played in 40 games for the Reds with a batting average of .183.......... DOUG MACAFEE, 17-year-old Sussex golfer, is the favorite in this weekend's N.B.-P.E.I. junior golf championships set for the Westfield Golf and County Club. MacAfee has already won a spot on the N.B.-P.E.I. Willingdon Cup team by leading the sectional playoffs two weeks ago at Fort Fairfield, Me. Last year RON GIGGEY, Charlottetown, made both the Willingdon team and junior team. Giggey is over the 18-year age limit this season as is last year's junior champ GORD LESLIE, Saint John .... Charlottetown's big track and field meet for the season is set for Memorial Field, Sept. 5. A record entry list of more than 150 athletes is expected. Invitations have been sent to all Maritime clubs .... BILL GAIRDNER of Toronto, Canada's best in the decathlon, doesn't have much hope of beating the world record holder, C. K. YANK, in the Canadian decathlon championships this weekend. But he hopes the Formosan will push him to a spot on Canada's Olympic team. Gairdner, 23, is shooting for a national record-breaking performance during the championships, part of the Canadian Olympic trials, that would give him a ticket to the Summer Olympics at Tokyo

S'side Racing Action Is Called After Fifth

The harness racing action at the Summerside raceway last night was called off after the fifth dash as heavy rain made racing conditions extremely poor. The race card will go as completed as four dashes constitutes a full card.

Calamity Boy owned by Stanley Mayhew, Kinkora captured the first and fifth dashes on last night's card. Junior Chappell was in the sulky and he brought the gelding home in times of 2.17 and 2.19.

The largest pay on the program was the first daily double feature which was held on the first and second heats. The winning combination was Calamity Boy, in the curtain raiser and in the second heat it was Rudy Frisco, a Frisco Dale stallion owned by M. Dawney, St. John, N.B. and teamed by Ron MacArthur. The combination returned $88.50 for a $2.00 ticket.

The fastest time on last night's card was clocked by Northfield with George Frizzell up on the bike. The gelding circled the oval for a mile in 2.12 to capture the win position in the fourth dash.
