

YOU KNOW IT'S FALLFEST WHEN

1. The liquor stores are all out of beer.
2. You don't have to go to Victoria Park to watch submarine races. You can see them at the Barn.
3. You can't remember where you've been for 3 days.
4. It takes you two weeks to get the empty beer bottles out of your room.
5. When you crawl into bed with 5 empty beer bottles and 2 empty quarts of wine.
6. You finally make it to that 8:30a.m. class on time, and you find out it is Saturday morning.
7. When that short walk home from the Barn seems to take forever.
8. When your breath melts your toothbrush in the morning.
9. When you look in the mirror in the morning and your own reflection looks away.
10. Nobody shows up at the cafeteria for breakfast, and it isn't because of the food.

Fall Fest this year starts on Friday and ends Saturday, October 13th, and is run by Sue Parlee and Pat. We are interested in helping out, so if you are interested, please contact Pat at the Barn with Pat, the Panther.

This year we hope to have a lot of events. It's only a matter of time before we are sure to get down to the Barn.

Fall Fest starts Thursday with chugging contests and a beer bash. One night is the weekly Pig and The Boys.

Friday afternoon sees the Beer Bash. This time around it is a beer bash, crib, and checkers tournament. If you are interested in playing, please contact Pat before Wednesday the 10th. The Harvest Ball at the Club is six dollars a couple. This year was not available at press time. The campus for posters telling you about this is the first formal event. On guys get out there and had your eye on for the pig.

Saturday starts with a beer bash at McAdam field at 1:30p.m. See our U.P.E.I. Panthers and Bombers. Following the beer bash will be a pub at the Barn. Fall Fest wrapping up with a beer bash at the Barn. Once again the names are available at press time.

Advance tickets for the Beer Bash will be available starting October 9th. Get them to avoid line ups. Doors for Beer Bash open at 8:30p.m.

Fall Fest is a break for students who go to school and the people who helped make time to put Fall Fest together well. We know it will be a success and takes part and enjoys it. Get out and take part in Fall Fest.
