Talks Continue By Gov't.-Avro

By DAVE McINTOSH
Canadian Press Staff Writer

OTTAWA (CP)—A third day of talks between cabinet ministers and officials of A.V. Roe (Canada) Limited ended late Thursday without any sign of solid progress.

Roe president Crawford Gordon, emerging from a two-hour meeting with a five-man cabinet committee, said he is remaining on call for any further conferences.

He added that he hopes the discussions will be concluded this week but declined to comment on their possible outcome.
