Applesauce Walnut Cake Is Very Popular Recipe

By IDA BAILEY ALLEN

On a snappy, wintry day the chef and I received a warm welcome in Buffalo, the first stop of a personal appearance tour on radio and TV in upper New York state.

We were rushed to a TV station for an interview on a popular program, "Meet the Millers," a charming husband-and-wife team.

EXCELLENT COOK
Mr. Miller, who owns the largest turkey farm in that section, is a real gourmet and an excellent meat and pastry cook. In fact, he earned his way through college cooking for a private family.

Mrs. Miller, chic as a fashion plate, specializes in hors d'oeuvres, salads and delicious knickknacks.

A second guest on the program was a capable and poised little 10-year-old Buffalo school-girl, who demonstrated how to make an applesauce walnut cake.

Here is her recipe.
Applesauce walnut cake: First, set the oven to heat at 350 degree F. Next, grease and flour a 13-in. oblong pan.

Into a bowl, put 1 pkg. of honey spice cake mix. Add 3/4 tsp. baking soda and stir in 2 1/2 c. water. Beat mixture 2 min. in an electric mixer at medium speed, or 300 strokes by hand.

Add 2 unbeat eggs and beat the batter 1 min. Add 3/4 c. thick, tart applesauce. Beat 1 min. more (150 strokes by hand) and fold in 1-3 c. chopped walnuts.

Pour cake batter into pan and bake about 35 min.

Turn out cake to cool on a cake rack.

The cake is ready to top with penuche icing or a sifting of powdered sugar.

This recipe is from a new cook book for boys and girls which is a great deal of fun.

Tomorrow's dinner: Tomato bouillon in cups, ragout of lamb, parsnip potatoes, tossed salad, lettuce - gree, peas - scallions squares of applesauce walnut cake.

All measurements are level; recipes proportioned to serve 4 to 6.

Ragout of lamb: Cut 3 lbs. boned breast of lamb in serving pieces. Mix 5 tsp. flour, 1 tsp. salt and 1-3 tsp. pepper with the meat. Slow-brown in 2 tsp. fat.

Add 2 c. boiling water and 2 beef bouillon cubes. Top with 4 halved, small, scraped carrots, 3 peeled, sliced onions, 1 c. diced celery, 1/2 c. diced rutabaga and 12 large, washed, sliced mushrooms. Stir in 1 tsp. lemon juice and 1/4 c. each grape juice and water. Cover.

Simmer 2 hrs. or until the meat is fork-tender.

Trick of the chef - Season ragout of lamb with 1 tsp. dried mint flakes.

BONSHAW W.I.

Roll call was answered by 9 members naming their first day at school.

The secretary read minutes of last meeting which were approved.
