FREDERICKSON is preparing to receive the Governor-General.

SIR JOHN McDONALD left Ottawa for New York, en route for England, on Monday.

Six more cases of yellow fever are reported. Two additional deaths have occurred at Memphis.

THE Orangemen walked in procession at Ottawa on the 23rd inst; and everything passed off quietly.

NOTHING has yet been heard of the prisoners Donnelly and Nelson, who recently escaped from custody.

LORNE HOTEL, on Sundays, will be closed to all except guests of the House.—CYRUS TAY, Manager,—July 25, eod pat 4in

WE drive white horses in Rocklin House back, in preference to either brown, red or black; as they're easier seen, to the strangers' delight, when coming by rail to the station at night—li

THE Ottawa correspondent of the St. John "Telegraph," says:—"Those who profess to know, say that the Lieutenant-Governor will be disposed of this week and Dr. Robitaille, M. P., appointed to succeed him.

It is "Canada first" with a vengeance. A year ago we astonished England with the biggest bullock ever seen; then there was the big Canadian cheese weighing a ton; then Hanlan, and now Col. Gibson.—Toronto Mail.

THE LETELLIER MATTER.—The dismissal of Lieutenant Governor Letellier will take place this week. It is considered highly probable that his successor will be Dr. Robitaille, M. P. for Bonaventure.—St. John Sun.

ZION CHURCH Sabbath School picnic was fairly attended yesterday; and those present enjoyed themselves very much. The sail up and down the river in the Southport was exceedingly pleasant.

BROKE HIS LEG.—A fine horse belonging to Mr. John Tory, of this town, broke his leg on Tuesday last while running loose on the square. Finding that he was useless the owner had him shot immediately. He was valued at $80.—K. C. Advertiser.

WE WERE shown to-day a number of giant strawberries—the best of the season—which were grown in the garden of Mr. A. Lord, Esq., on Brighton Road. The greater number of those exhibited measured over five inches and a quarter in circumference, and one of the number measured five inches and a half.

A PARIS despatch says that the disunion of Bonapartists is becoming daily more apparent. Some advocate the claims of Victor, son of Jerome; others are only willing to accept Jerome on certain conditions, and now Graves de Cassagnac urges, in Pays, that lineage is nothing and that every thing should depend upon the result of a plebiscite.

ALL agree that "Zera" was a great success at the Market Hall last night. The Hall was packed, and the entertainment was of the funniest. The Professor's ventriloquial powers are certainly very good, and his tricks are clever. The giving away of a barrel of flour, a set of Chinaware, a bedroom set, and other articles was a pronounced feature of the play.

THE steamer Carroll sailed for Boston yesterday evening, with a cargo consisting of 201 barrels mackerel, 675 boxes of lobsters, 530 cases of eggs and 11 barrels of calfskins, valued at $6,522. She had also on board the following passengers: Mr. A. Roy, Master Roy, Master A. Roy, Wm W Harper, A. B. McKinnon, Miss A. Simpson, Mrs A. Keating, Mr Peter McCrudden, Miss T. Dinn, Mr Thos Cavanagh.

A BOY about thirteen years of age, named Charles McDonald, was, last night, arrested for uttering a counterfeit five dollar bill at the Market Hall. Some mischievous person gave the note—which was "Commercial College Currency"—to the little fellow, and he thinking it was as good as gold, presented it in payment for three tickets of admission to Professor Zera's performance. Officer Cameron was at the door at the time, and at once detected the spurious note, and arrested the boy. This morning, the Magistrate, seeing that the boy was misled, acquitted him of all blame in the matter.

A MAN NAMED McCarthy was last night set upon by a gang of roughs while passing through "Hell Street" and robbed of two dollars. This gang was attracted to McCarthy by a bottle of liquor which he carried on his person. One of the gang seized the bottle, but McCarthy wrenched it from his grasp and in doing so fell on the street. The fellow again seized it—but McCarthy took a firm hold with both hands and resolved to stick to the bottle till death. This gave the thieves every chance to rifle his pockets—and that they did—of the sum above mentioned.
