Eccentricities of Diet
The French small-eating habit is said to be growing apace in America. Its ultimate popular adoption should by no means occasion surprise. Small-eating is no more queer than turtle-eating.
The development of cooking is the miracle of civilization, and yet the American custom of pickled pigs' feet might offend the African, whose diet is upon elephants' feet baked in a hole in the ground. Battered black snakes and lizards were all pronounced edible by the late Frank Buckland, the naturalist, and are no more repulsive, in a way, than the misshapen frog in New Zealand a great delicacy is the boiled grasshopper, afterwards crisped in an oven and served headless. The flavor is said to resemble that of shrimp. Here is a suggestion for the Kansas farmer. Why not the pate de grasshopper as a rival edible to the hors d'oeuvre of snail?

A Song of England.
I've wandered east. I've wandered west.
In every-wise a random roamer,
Of men and maidens I've known the best.
Like that far-travelled King in Homer.

Oh for the land that bore me,
Oh for the stout old land,
Of breezy Ben, and winding glen,
And roaring flood and sounding strand!

I've stood where stands in pillared pride The shrine of Jove's spear-shaking daughter,
And humbled Persia stained the tide Of free Greek seas with heaps of slaughter.

I've stood upon the rock crest, Where Jove's proud eagle spreads his plumage,
Where looked the god far east, far west,
And all he saw was Rome's dominion.

I've seen the domes of Moscow far,
In green and golden glory glancing,
And noted where slept the mighty Czar, By Nova's flood so grandly streaming.

I've stood on many a famous spot, Where blood of heroes flowed like rivers,
Where Deutschland rose at Gravelotte, And dashed the strength of Gaul to slivers.

I've fed my eyes by land and sea With sights of grandeur streaming o'er me;
But still my heart remains with thee, Dear Scottish land that stoutly bore me.

Oh for the land that bore me,
Oh for the stout old land,
With mighty Ben and winding glen, Stout Scottish land, my own dear land!

—John Stuart Blackie.

shoe superlatives.
When you buy a pair of new shoes never put them on a shelf higher than your head, unless you want to bring back luck; and if you blacken the re-flectors you have had both shoes on you may meet with an accident, or even have a sudden death. This is an old Irish superstition. The Scotch girls believe that if they drop their shoes before they are worn trouble will ensue, while a French lady losing her heels is sure of a disappointment in love, and a German mother in the same predicament, feels that she will soon lose one of her children. You must not put your right shoe on your left foot or your left on your right, nor must you put your left shoe on before the right unless you want bad luck. This superstition dates back to one of the Emperors of Rome, who, it is recorded, put on his left shoe first one morning, and came near being assassinated during the day.

WOMEN WERE ELECTED.—At the municipal election in Florence, Oregon, last month an entire woman's ticket was elected. As soon as the result was known, a question of the constitutionality of the election came up, and it was decided that women could not hold office except by courtesy. The mayor was left to the old city council, which has decided against the women. The council will appoint men in their places. One of the features of election was the candidacy of a wife against her husband, and the defeat of the latter. The terms of the old officer having expired, and those elected having failed to qualify, the town is without a governor.

20 YEARS OF SUFFERING.
20 Failures to Cure

For 20 years I suffered the torments of the damned with blind and itching piles.
Had I known of any cure I would not have hesitated to have given hundreds of dollars to obtain it. I followed the instructions of an eminent physician in using syringe treatments. I used Fowler's Pile Cure and 20 others of different kinds.
From some a little relief was gained, but nothing approached a cure. I was about resigned to the fate of having to pass through an almost uninterrupted course of suffering so long as I lived, when Chase's Ointment was brought to my notice. The statements in regard to it were so strong and bore with them a sense of conviction sufficient to overcome my scepticism in regard to its being no better than the rest. I used it, with the result of receiving immediate relief and permanent cure. For weeks and weeks I was fearfully afraid of a return to misery, but it did not occur. I started using Chase's Ointment, hoping for relief and realized a cure that is permanent. I do not believe there ever was a worse case of blind and itching piles than mine, which leads me to think there is not a case to be recited that Chase's Ointment will not cure.

Yours truly,

"If You Should Die To-night" Well, it would be your own fault, if it was consumption that took you off, and you refused to take Miller's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, which has been pronounced by scientists to be a positive cure for that dread disease. If you have any lung trouble, if you are threatened with consumption, lose not an hour in obtaining a supply of Miller's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil. It is the great blood maker, and cures Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Scrofula and all lung affections. In Big Bottles 50c. and $1, at all Drug Stores.

An examination of the eyes of white and colored children in the Washington schools

Parents Must Have Rest.
A President of one of our Colleges says:
"We spend many sleepless nights in consequence of our children suffering from colds, but this never occurs now. We use Scott's Emulsion and it quickly relieves pulmonary troubles."

A peculiarity of the rooks of England is that, while those of other parts of Europe retire to the wildest solitudes when the winter comes to build their nests, the former gather round the steepest of human habitations to rear their noisy squabs.

THE CASE.
Physicians Universally Admit the Diagnosis to have been Correct.

OTTAWA, April 23.—The diagnosis in the case of G. H. Kent, of this city, whose recovery from Bright's disease by the use of Dodd's Kidney Pills has been so extensively chronicled appears to have been a very correct one. The swelling of the body and extremities to an abnormal size the fearful convulsions and subsequent insensitivity, the racking pains, the formation of the hard ridges across the pit of the stomach and the great loss of albumen are all symptoms of this terrible disease, and it is universally admitted by all who have been approached on the subject that the case was unmistakable in its character.

It is also universally admitted that he owns his restored health to the above mentioned remedy.

A great many cases occur in such a hurry that they have no time to live.

Five Lines on K and L.
I find the people around here prefer Dr.
Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills to any other I have in stock. They are a wonderful pill.

Heart Disease Relieved in 30 Minutes.
Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart gives perfect relief in all cases of organic or sympathetic Heart Disease in 30 minutes, remedy for Palpitation, Shortness of Breath, Smothering Spells, Pain in Left Side and all symptoms of a Diseased Heart.

One dose convinces. Sold by S. W. Dodd.

There is always a hand of welcome

If too rapid eating causes dyspepsia, and if its turn produces nervous exhaustion, step in effecting a cure is to eat slowly.

The second and most important is to take tonic, which aids the process of digestion, invigorates the stomach, renews the vital ity of the blood, relieves brain fatigue, and makes weak nerves strong.

Get the Best.
The public are too intelligent to purchase a worthless article a second time. On the contrary they want the best! Physicians are unanimous in saying Scott's Emulsion is the best form of Cod Liver Oil.

Wisdom does not always come in the RELIEF IN SIX HOURS.—Distressing Kidney and Bladder diseases relieved in six hours by the "Great Scottish Kidney-Cure." This new remedy is a great surprise and delight on account of its exceeding promptness in relieving pain in the bladder, kidneys, back and every part of the urinary passages in male or female.

It relieves retention of water and pain in passing it almost immediately. If you want quick relief and cure this is your remedy.

Glad Tidings of Great Joy There could be no gladder tidings than news of a cure for consumption. Miller's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil cures consumption and every disease of the lungs and respiratory organs. Why? Because it supplies new blood to the exhausted system, thus giving a new lease of life. Miller's Emulsion is made from the Oil of the Norwegian Cod Liver, and in conjunction with hypophosphites of lime and soda forms the greatest fertilizer of the age.
Miller's Emulsion is the great nerve strengthening and blood maker, and cures Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Scrofula and all lung affections. In big bottles, 50c. and $1, at all drug stores.

RHEUMATISM CURED IN A DAY.—South American Rheumatic Cure, for Rheumatism and Neuralgia, radically cures in 1 to markable and mysterious. It removes at once the cause and the disease immediately disappears. The first dose greatly benefits 75 cents.
