their having been previously directly instructed by their several constituencies, as to the mode in which they wished them to deal with it. Their abhorrence of treachery, their integrity of purpose, and their amor patriæ, would all, we incline to believe, operate to make them shrink from a task so insidious and unconstitutional—the settlement, final and irrevocable, of a great question with which their constituencies had never empowered them to deal. In our last, we gave it as our opinion, that, soon after the return of our Delegates to the Island, the Governor will issue his proclamation for an early assembling of our Legislature in Session, for the especial purpose of having submitted to their consideration the Report of the Convention; and that, as soon as it shall have been duly weighed and considered by them, and the usual sessional business shall have been despatched, the House of Assembly will be forthwith dissolved, and, by a General Election, the people be afforded a fair opportunity of determining, according to their own will, by the choice of their representatives, whether they shall, or shall not, be included in the Confederation. Should our Government attempt to procure a settlement of this great question without submitting it directly for a solution to the constituencies, they would, indeed, we hesitate not to say, be acting as conspirators against the rights and liberties of the people. We trust, however, they will not act with respect to it with so arbitrary and unconstitutional a manner; but—as they aspire to be reputed either liberal minded, enlightened, or patriotic statesmen—afford the people an opportunity of deciding for themselves a question which involves not only their own immediate condition for good or ill, but that of their posterity, perhaps for many centuries to come. However, willing as we are to believe that our Government will adopt the proper course, we are, at the same time, well aware that it is quite possible they may not; and we, therefore, now earnestly advise the people to arouse themselves to active vigilance in time, and to form organizations, in every electoral district of the Island, to resist, constitutionally, yet in the most determined manner, any attempt which may be made to determine, without their own consent, the position which they are to occupy with respect to the sister Provinces.

THE REVIEWS.

Of the Reviews, the only two which have come to our hand this month are, The North British Review for August, and Blackwood's Magazine for September. Having, since our receipt of them, been too much engaged in business to be able to allow ourselves the pleasure of even a cursory perusal of them, we can, in our present notice, do little more than note their contents.

The North British Review. The articles in the No. before us are: 1. "Wordsworth: The Man and the Poet;" 2. "Todleben's History of the Crimean War;" 3. "J. H. Newman's Apologia;" 4. "Education at Public Schools;" 5. "Russia under Alexander II;" 6. "The Scotch Lawyer of the Seventh Century;" 7. "Berkley's Theory of Vision;" and 8. "Tennison's Enoch Arden, &c." Of these, so far as we have been able to dip into them, we incline to pronounce the first, "Wordsworth," the most pleasing; the second, "the History of the Crimean War," and the fourth, "Russia under Alexander the II," the most interesting; and the fifth, "the Scotch Lawyer of the Seventeenth Century," at once the most amusing, suggestive, and instructive. From such passages of the article on "Education at Public Schools," as we have glanced over, we are of opinion that the governors of our College and Grammar School, as well as the Professors of the one and the Master of the other, would do well to study it; the Report of Her Majesty's Commissioners, concerning certain Colleges and Schools—of which Report the article is a review—might, indeed, we think, be read with much advantage both by the governors and masters of all endowed educational institutions.

Blackwood's Magazine. The present No. of this Magazine is well stored with its usual variety of intellectual nutriment. Its contents are: 1. "Chronicles of Carlingford;" 2. "Cornelius O'Dowd, upon Men and Women, and other things in general;" 3. "Rev. Charles Kingsley and Dr Newman"; 4. "Tony Butler—Part XII;" 5. "The Alphabeticals;" 6. "Letters from the Principalities." Of these we are only able to say that "Cornelius O'Dowd" is still lively, satirical, trenchant, and instructive; the article on "Charles Kingsley and Dr. Newman" will doubtless be relished by such readers as delight in polemics; Tony Butler will be found as deeply interesting as ever to the novel reader—to the ladies in particular; and the peculiar and pleasingly imparted information contained in "Letters from the Principalities" will well reward an attentive perusal.

☞ An editorial article on the Land Question with reference to the projected Union of the Colonies, has been withdrawn to make room for what our readers, we doubt not, will for the present justly account more interesting matter—the Hon. Mr. Whelan's last communication from Quebec.

☞ We understand that there is still, in some parts of the country, a considerable quantity of grain unharvested, and a great many potatoes are yet in the ground.

SUPREME COURT.—The Michaelmas Term of the Supreme Court for Queen's County commenced yesterday—their Lordships the Chief Justice and Judge Peters on the Bench. The business of the term was, we understand, unusually small.

TEMPERANCE LECTURE.

The President of the St. Dunstan's Temperance Society, (D. O'M. Reddin, Esq.,) will deliver a Lecture on "Temperance," at the St. Andrew's Hall, Pownal Street, on Monday Evening next, 7th Nov., at 8 o'clock. Doors open to the public.

Charlottetown, October 31st, 1864.

At Vancouver's Island the troubles between the Indians and the settlers grow more numerous. The Colonist of Sept. 13th publishes a rumor that the crew of a sloop—three men—were murdered by some Indians of the Clayoquot tribes. The Governor in his speech at the opening of the Legislature on September 12, said:—"The relations between white men and the Indian tribes become daily more complicated, affording indications of future difficulties, which it will be well to obviate by the adoption of timely precaution and suitable laws."

On Monday evening a miner was shot in the face at Waverly, N. S., by a soldier on military lookout duty. The soldier was drunk and the assault unprovoked. The offender has been arrested.

There is now landing in this city, from the United States, six cases of Machinery, valued at about five hundred pounds, which is intended to be added to the extensive Cloth Mills of Charles E. Staufield, Esq. now in operation at Tryon. We trust the enterprising owner will receive that encouragement from the public which he most assuredly merits.—Com.

The Barque Lotus, belonging to Hon. D. Davis, McDonald, Master, from Liverpool, G. B., arrived here on Thursday morning, with a cargo of general goods for Charlottetown merchants.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.—This medicine has been constantly increasing in public estimation for years, and is now acknowledged to be the most wonderful remedy in the world. It acts directly on the system, removing all obstructions from the stomach, renovating the springs of life, and purifying the blood, eradicating liver complaints—that main spring of so many diseases—indigestion, loss of appetite, pain in the side, and general debility. It is also a remedy on which the asthmatic may place the greatest dependence, and obtain perfect restoration to health. The hypochondriac and dyspeptic should resort to these invigorating Pills, which are capable of converting the gloomy shadows of their life into beaming sunshine, and bringing back those really happy thoughts engendered by a [illegible].
