CLAUDE A. PINEAU

The death occurred suddenly at his home, 201 Elm Avenue on April 9, 1962, of Claude Arthur Pineau.

He was born on December 1st, 1910, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Angus Pineau and, with the exception of five years spent in the Royal Canadian Navy during World War II, spent his entire life in Charlottetown, where he was employed for a number of years with the late Howard McInnis.

He leaves to mourn the loss of a loving husband and brother, his wife, the former Evelyn Curley, three brothers, Vincent, Wallie and Harry, all of Charlottetown, and one sister, Mrs. Gerald Murphy, Moncton, N.B.

His largely attended funeral was held from the Charlottetown Funeral Home to the Church of the Most Holy Redeemer where Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Very Rev. C.H. Moreau, C.Ss.R., who also conducted the service at the grave.

The Legion graveside service was conducted by Harry Mortimer. Last Post and Reveille were sounded by Bugler Frank Smith.

Pallbearers were, Ralph Dennis, Thomas Hunter, Leo Duffy, Ronald Greenan, Robert Stewart, and Ivan Morrow.

Interment was in the Roman Catholic cemetery.

CARD OF THANKS

The family of the late Claude A. Pineau wish to extend sincere thanks to all those who sent Mass Cards, Floral Tributes, cards and letters of sympathy, also to kind neighbours and friends who helped in any way during their recent bereavement.

GOLDSMITH'S GRAVE

LONDON (CP) — Playwright Oliver Goldsmith's grave, damaged by wartime bombing, at last has been restored. Goldsmith, who died in 1774, was buried in the Temple, the legal centre where he lived most of his life.

TIMOTHY W. A'HEARN

The death of Timothy Wheelock A'Hearn, youngest son of Mrs. Timothy A'Hearn and the late Timothy A'Hearn occurred in Toronto, June 4th, 1962, as the result of a car accident.

He was born in St. Roche, November 3rd, 1926, and received his early education there. He left the province at an early age and worked for a time in Halifax, Montreal and Chicago, where he joined the U.S.A. Army, serving on active duty in the Korean war, where he was wounded in action. After spending some time in hospital, he again returned to Montreal to enter Sir George Williams College where he received his Bachelor of Commerce degree. He joined the firm of Graham and Hutchinson, Toronto, and furthered his studies in law at the University of Toronto.

Left to cherish his memory are his grief stricken mother, Mrs. Timothy A'Hearn, Montreal, three brothers and five sisters, Elmer, St. John, Frank, Dawson City, Y.T.; Emmett, St. Roche; Margaret, (Mrs. James Buchan) Montreal; Ann, (Mrs. Nick Aldie), Edmonton, Alberta; Gladys, (Mrs. Pat Carbonoro), New York; Inez, Montreal; Marie (Mrs. William Gaudette), Tignish. A brother James died suddenly last August.

His funeral was held on June 9th, from the home of his sister, Mrs. William Gaudette, to St. Simon and St. Jude Church, where Solemn Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. Floyd McGough with Rev. R. Ellsworth as deacon and Rev. R. Phalen as sub-deacon. Master of ceremonies was Rev. M.J. Rooney.

Honorary pallbearers were, E.C. Gaudette, Arthur Chaisson, Austin A'Hearn, Fred Ryan, Roy Griffin and Joseph Handrahan.

Active pallbearers were, Holland Cahill, William Profit, Chester Ellsworth, Wilfred Griffin, Claude Wallace and Leonard Handrahan.

Flower bearers were, Crawford A'Hearn, Claude Gaudette, Roy Handrahan, Curt Phie, David Gaudet, Dannie LeClair, Ronald Profit, Brian Gaudette.

Members of the Tignish Canadian Legion attended the funeral in a body. The Legion service of remembrance was conducted by Hector J. Buote. Interment was in the church cemetery. Service at the grave was conducted by Rev. Floyd McGough.

The numerous mass cards and floral tributes bore silent testimony to the esteem in which he was held by his many friends.

May he rest in peace.

ENGAGEMENTS

ROSS — MACKINNIN — Mr. and Mrs. John Alexander Ross, Flat River announce the engagement of their daughter, Margaret Charlotte, R.N., to Charles Murchison MacKinnon, son of Mrs. Mary B. MacKinnon and the late Charles MacKinnon of Charlottetown. Marriage is to take place at St. John's Presbyterian Church, Belfast on Saturday, July 21, 1962 at 3.00 p.m.

CROKEN — MacDONALD — Mr. and Mrs. Aloysius Croken, Kensington, wish to announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary Rosita to Edward Raymond MacDonald, son of Mrs. Carl MacDonald and the late Carl MacDonald of Grand River. Marriage to take place in the near future.

IN MEMORIAM

GREEN — In loving memory of our father, Alfred Green, passed away July 2nd, 1957.
Beautiful memories woven in gold
This is the picture dear Dad we hold
Deep in our hearts your memory is kept
We loved you so dearly to ever forget.
Lovingly remembered by daughter, Hazel, son-in-law Arthur.

NICKERSON — In loving memory of our dear Dad. Edmund Nickerson, who passed away June 30, 1952.
We had a Father we were proud to own
How much we miss him will never be known
The tears in our eyes we'll wipe away
But the ache in our hearts is here to stay
Sadly missed by daughters, Stella, Emma, sons, Albert, Lester, Louis.

STEWART — In loving memory of Mrs. William Stewart who departed this life July 1st, 1953.
None knew her but to love her;
None named her but in praise.
Ever remembered by her sons and daughters.

MacPHERSON — In loving memory of our dear father and brother Daniel W., and Warren J., who passed away June 14, 1948 and June 30, 1961.
Like falling leaves the years slip by,
But precious memories never die.
They live with us in memory still,
Not just today, but always will.
Lovingly remembered by Willard, Mur. Ed, Christine, Lenore and Anne.

DEEGAN — In loving memory of John A. Deegan who passed away July 2, 1954.
We often sit and think of him when we are all alone
For memory is the only friend that grief can call its own;
Like ivy on the withered oak, when all other things decay,
Our love for him will still keep green, and never fade away.
Always remembered by wife and family.

OBITUARY

MISS ANNIE MAY MONTGOMERY

maica Plain, Mass. of Miss An-

The death occurred in Jamaica Plain, Mass., of Miss Annie May Montgomery, RN, in her 76th year. She was the eldest daughter of the late Angus and Mary Montgomery of Valleyfield, P.E.Island.

At an early age she went to the U.S.A. where she trained for the nursing professions in Boston and New York hospitals. Of a quiet and retiring disposition, she was seldom heard but her conscientious devotion to duty kept her working continuously at her profession until her retirement some years ago, except for short periods spent on P.E. Island, where she nursed both parents in their last illness.

Having had a heart ailment for some years, she suffered a severe attack early in March from which she never fully recovered and on the afternoon of June 16th the tired heart ceased to beat and she passed peacefully away in her sleep.

She was for many years a true and faithful member of the Church of the Covenant (Presby.) and was frequently visited by her pastor and other members of the church during her illness.

The funeral service was conducted by her pastor, Rev. Mr. Meuch and was attended by many friends and relatives and the many floral tributes bore silent testimony to the love and esteem of those who knew her best. The remains were interred in Mt. Auburn Cemetery beside her sister Sarah.

She is survived by two sisters, Margaret, Mrs. Nicholas Paul Woburn, Mass. and Christine, Mrs. Lauchlin MacKinnon, Murray River, P. E. Island, also 6 nephews and nieces and 14 grandnephews and nieces. Six brothers and a sister predeceased her.

LIVELY ORIGIN

LONDON (CP) — The Royal Artillery band, one of the oldest military bands in the world, is celebrating is 200th anniversary. It was started in 1762 when men of the regiment "kidnapped" a group of German musicians and brought them home with them.
