Canada's Champ Battling Clay?

By JIM CULLEN

George Chuvalo, Canadian heavyweight boxing champion, is attempting to lure heavyweight king Cassius Clay into a championship bout by agreeing to fight for a mere 12 1/2 per-cent of the gate.

This observer would like to see a Chuvalo-Clay bout rather than a battle between Clay and former champion Floyd Patterson who is on the comeback trail.

We are terribly curious to have an opportunity to see just how good the 'flannel mouthed' heavyweight king of the world really is.

He never really fought anybody ranked with the best in the business until he dropped Sonny Liston in two successive fights which didn't last long enough for anyone to get a look at Clay's abilities.

This columnist is convinced Floyd Patterson is a good scientific boxer, but after his two sorry attempts to battle Sonny Liston we would be afraid he would 'stink' the arena out in a battle with Clay.

Although, the Canadian battler from Toronto apparently doesn't have too much polish in the ring he is rated as a real tough slugger and we believe Mr. Clay would know he was in a fight if he climbed into the ring with Chuvalo.

Ernie Terrell, WBA champion, has been mentioned as a possible candidate for a battle with Clay from time to time, but due to lack of fan appeal we don't think you will see Terrell get a crack at Cassius Gemus.

Chuvalo has received a very lucrative offer from Terrell's management for a bout in Chicago.

Tourney Drawing Near

Entries are coming in rapidly and officials of the first annual Canadian Legion Atlantic Provinces golf tournament have announced they expect 200 entries for the tourney which is scheduled for the Belvedere Golf and Winter club, July 24 and 25.

This tournament is open to all golfing members of the Legion who have been in the active service and approximately 70 players from P.E.I. will be taking part in the competition.

There will be five divisions when action gets underway at the local club. Divisions will include: championship, first, second, third and fourth.

The Legion has donated several prizes for this competition and the first four low gross and low net performers in each division will receive an award.

Top name golfers on the local scene who have indicated they will be taking part in the action are: Art MacKenzie and Bill 'Pud' Beer. MacKenzie has captured the club championship at the Belvedere club on numerous occasions and has also been a member of the Willington Cup golf team as well as placing well in practically all the Maritime tournaments he has entered over the past several years.

There is a reception scheduled for the players on Saturday evening at which time the presentation of awards will be taken care of.

This affair is being made possible through the efforts of the Charlottetown Legion in co-operation with the provincial Legion Command and the Belvedere Golf Club.

Club professional, Cecil Dowling is in charge of entries for the tourney. Cecil has announced caddies will be available and may be reserved on request.

Entry fee for the two day action is $7.00 and this will go towards paying for the prizes and green fees for the competition.

There will be a Senior Championships division for the more elderly members of the Royal Canadian Legion who plan to take to the fairways for this first of what promises to be an annual competition.

Johnny Sears Retains Lead

FREDERICTON (CP) — John Sears of the Edmundston golf club opened up a five-stroke lead Tuesday in the New Brunswick-Prince Edward Island amateur golf tournament here. Sears carded a 71 to go with an opening 69 he shot Monday for an even-par 140 total with 18-holes remaining.

Sears holds a five-stroke lead over Dave Irving of the host Fredericton club and 18-year-old Doug MacAfee of the Sussex golf club. Irving shot a fine 71 Tuesday while MacAfee scored a steady 73.

The three lowest scores of the day were 71 recorded by Sears, Irving and defending champion John Estabrooks of the Abercrombie Golf Club in New Glasgow, N.S. Estabrooks shot himself back into contention and is tied with Pierre Rossignol of the Gowan Brae Golf and Country Club in Bathurst. Both have 146 totals heading into the final 18 today (Wednesday).

Sears last won the N.B.-P.E.I. in 1960 on the Fredericton course with a 284 total, 11 strokes over the rest of the field.

Juergen May Breaks Mark

BERLIN (AP)—Juergen May, East German middle distance runner, bettered the world's record in the 1,000-metre run Tuesday night at Erfurt, the official East German News Agency ADN reported. ADN said May's time was 2:16.2. The record is held by Peter Snell of New Zealand with a 2:16.6 clocking. Snell was present for May's record run, ADN said, and "was one of the first to congratulate him." ADN gave no other details.

Los Angeles Bombs Twins; Yankees Topple Red Sox

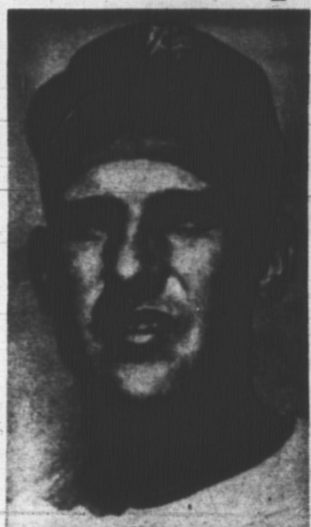

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

Bobby Knopp got four hits and drove in three runs to pace a 15-hit Los Angeles attack which buried first-place Minnesota Twins 9-1 Tuesday in the American League.

The defeat was the Twins' fifth in seven games. Marcelino Lopez breezed to his 10th victory against eight losses, setting the Twins down on four hits.

The Angels tore into Twins starter Camilo Pascual for five runs and seven hits in two innings-plus, then kept up the bombardment as a 3-1-3 three Minnesota relievers.

Los Angeles broke a 1-1 tie by cracking six singles for four runs in the third inning. Four of the hits were off Pascual and two more off Mel Nelson. Five of the singles came in succession.

WINS OWN GAME
In another American League game, pitcher Mel Stottlemyre clinched his own game with an inside - the - park grand slam home run as New York Yankees whipped Boston Red Sox 6-3.

The youthful right - hander lined to Yankee Stadium's deep left centre - field against Bill Monbouquette in the fifth inning after the Yanks had loaded the bases against the Boston pitcher on a walk to Joe Peppone, Clete Boyer's bunt single and a walk to Roger Replogle.

Stottlemyre, now 10-5, scattered 10 hits.

St. Louis Cardinals showed uncharacteristic muscle with three home runs and edged Philadelphia Phillies 4-3 for their fifth victory in six games. Tito Francona, Lou Brock and Tim McCarver homered off Philadelphia right-hander Jim Bunning. Dave Rowe, Mike Larier, Rick Gallant, Eric Toombs.

NEW YORK (AP)—The sale of the champion Boston Celtics to a New York brewery was formally approved Tuesday by the National Basketball Association's board of governors.

The club, which will remain in Boston, was purchased last month for a reported $3,000,000 by Ruppert - Knickerbocker Brewing Company from Lou Prier and Mrs. Walter Brown.

Crothers' supremacy over Snell began here June 10 when he defeated the New Zealand ace over a half-mile for his first victory over the latter.

Since then Snell has not won a race at any distance, losing 31 straight, and Crothers, the pharmacist from nearby Markham, has not been beaten over 800 yards or 800 metres.

Crothers, a silver medalist at the Tokyo Olympics last October, says he does not know what has happened to Snell "but he seems to be tying up at the end of his races."

"He says he doesn't figure he's in top condition, but he's been doing a lot of running. "Other runners feel badly to see him like this, but now they consider him just a good runner rather than a great runner. He seems to have lost that little spark that made him great."

Canadian Champ Chuvalo Calls Cassius A Chicken

GRAVENHURST, Ont. (CP) George Chuvalo, Canadian heavyweight champion, said Tuesday that world heavyweight champ Cassius Clay does not want to fight him because "he's scared of me."

Chuvalo, 28, of Toronto, was speaking in an interview following announcement of his offer to take only 12 1/2 per cent of the revenue from a fight with Clay in New York.

Irving Ungerman, Chuvalo's manager, said that Clay is holding back.

"If he doesn't accept the offer of 12 1/2 per cent, it means he's just afraid of Chuvalo. Floyd Patterson would take at least 22 per cent."

He said that although the bid for a fight in Madison Square Garden at New York, he didn't care where it took place. "We'll fight Clay any place."

"Even Yugoslavia," chimed in Chuvalo, who currently weighs 212, about two pounds over the weight he would come in for a fight with Clay.

Chuvalo said he is also interested in a rematch with Patterson, the former world champion, to whom he lost a 12-round decision in New York last February.

GEORGE CHUVALO

"I want to fight him. I've made a million offers of big money, but he won't take it."

Contrary to the opinion of most ringside viewers, who thought the former champ won handily, Chuvalo feels the unanimous decision should have gone his way.

"Facially, I was worse, but I know he suffered more body damage. I outpunched him two-to-one."

Chuvalo said he wasn't concerned with the strategy he would use against the fast-punching Clay. Asked how long the fight would last, he said:

"Just as long as it takes me to catch him. I'd close the gap and bang him around the body. Soften him up."

WOULD MEET TERRELL
If Clay refuses, the Chuvalo camp will look toward a meeting with Ernie Terrell, the World Boxing Association champion. The Terrell people last week offered Chuvalo $50,000 to fight in Chicago, Terrell's home town.

Ungerman, who said he is seriously considering the Terrell offer, said:

"If we're going to have to fight Terrell, we'll do it in Toronto on our own ground."

Terrell's handlers showed little interest in fighting outside of Chicago where Terrell won the WBA title March 5 by out-punching Eddie Machen of Portland, Ore.
