

Parking Benches Hampers Fire Engines

SUMMERSIDE—Action will be taken against parking on both sides of streets in the town near churches on Sunday, due to the interference of fire equipment going to a fire, it was revealed at last night's council meeting.

Coun. Herbert Schurman stated that benches had been created on streets around most of Summerside churches by congregation members parking their vehicles on both sides of the street.

Coun. Schurman stated that if there was a fire near the churches the new bumper would be unable to get through in many cases.

"We are going to do something about it," he said.

He stated that his committee will meet with any or all of the church organizations in an effort to reach some agreement to this problem.

He pointed out that if some agreement cannot be reached, it will necessitate parking on only one side of the streets concerned.

He observed that at St. Paul's Church permission has been given to use the Legion parking lot on Sunday.

He also pointed out that another bottleneck was created by parking near the "V" Centre but permission has been given to use the supermarket parking lot nearby.

Coun. Schurman stressed that action is going to be taken against motorists racing to fires and the police have been instructed to lay a charge against any motorists who hampers fire equipment.

Mayor Morrison stated that outdoor parking would allow traffic to flow through freely but pointed out that many car park near intersections, which would prevent fire engines from turning the corners.

Fire Chief, Coun. Leo Wood emphasized that many cars park in front of hydrants and also stated that the new fire pumper was eight feet wide.

Prince County Area's Hit By Worst Storm Of Year

SUMMERSIDE BUREAU OF THE GUARDIAN

The year's most vicious storm struck the Summerside area yesterday dumping about 11 inches of snow, which combined with high winds to block all highways.

Visibility was nil during most of the afternoon and cars were getting stuck in ditches in some districts. A well known driver who was stuck in a ditch at the intersection of the airport and Middlebourne where late in the afternoon towards 30 cars were stuck across the road, in a ditch and at every conceivable angle making it almost impossible for plow operators to get by.

However plows were trying to make through between the maze of cars to open up a passage for the stranded motorists last evening.

To add to the confusion quite a number of plows had been stripped of winter equipment in preparation for summer work resulting in a shortage of plows. However the supervisor at the government garage at St. Fleuve, Victor Howat stated last evening that several graders were being re-equipped with plows and put back in action and it was expected roads would open up to traffic fairly quickly.

Several power interruptions in Summerside were caused by a combination of wind and ice-breaking lines on Church Street, Notre Dame Street and on the Sherbrooke Road. The longest interruption was about three hours in the Notre Dame Street area during the afternoon.

However line crews worked throughout the supper hour to restore power although they were having difficulty in the Sherbrooke area due to travel.

Dog Catcher To Be Hired For S'ide

Mayor Morrison said the side will soon have a dog catcher. It was revealed at last night's council meeting that the town is going to hire a dog catcher for the S'ide.

Mr. Brophy said the man he had chosen for the position was unable to contact him yesterday, however he stated the man would be contacted right away.

Mayor Morrison said the dog situation is serious. He related how he received a frantic call from a woman who was afraid to let her children play in the yard because of several dogs barking there.

Butter Subsidy Discussed

The consumer subsidy of 12 cents per pound that will be paid by the federal government on butter, was discussed at a meeting of the Dairy Farmers of Canada in Ottawa, it was learned last night from National Director Roland MacDonald, Southport, who attended.

The DFC also sat in on a meeting with Agriculture Minister, Douglas Young, to discuss the matter.

The subsidy will mean that consumers across the country should be able to purchase their butter 12 cents per pound less than they are doing now. The new price, it is believed, will be in the vicinity of 55 to 58 cents per pound to the consumer, Mr. MacDonald said.

Producers will receive 25 to 28 cents per pound, he explained.

The mechanics of how the federal subsidy will be paid have not been worked out yet, the Southport farmer said.

S'ide To Add Generator To Electric Power Plant

SUMMERSIDE BUREAU OF THE GUARDIAN

The Summerside Town Council approved purchase of a new generating unit for the town-owned electric utility at last night's council meeting presided over by Mayor J. Ernest Morrison.

The total cost of the new unit including a new building to house it, is estimated at $200,000.

Oreanda Engines Ltd., low bidder on the recently installed, low cost diesel generator, will be awarded a contract for the new engine which will be a twin 1,200 kilowatt generating engine which was commissioned one year ago. The order for the generator is to be placed immediately.

It is anticipated that delivery should occur about Oct. 1 and it is planned to have the engine installed and operating by Christmas.

Coun. George Key, Jr., outlined the reasons for the decision to purchase another generating unit. He stated that the expansion of the town is being reflected in the rapid growth in the electrical load on the power plant. The peak load reached 3,000 kilowatts in December 1961 and is forecast to reach 3,500 kw in December 1962 and 4,400 by December 1964.

He stated that careful consideration and extensive study had been given to the matter by the council, town manager and electrical superintendent, and it was unanimously decided that the number one or two engines, because of a breakdown, the plant would be unable to provide the peak load without assistance from Maritime Electric.

Mayor Morrison said Coun. Key is to be commended "on the good bargain he put across on this engine. He saved us about $2,000." His Worship said the previous council realized the need for a new engine and "we are following through" on purchasing one.

Loss Of Non-Resident Tax Revenue Causes Concern

working tax was going to effect the town's revenue.

Mayor Brophy said that there would be a direct loss of $8,000 but including electrical and contractors licenses it would possibly reach $10,000.

Mayor Morrison said "it's a thing I can't understand. It is a loss of tax revenue any profession, the outsider doesn't pay any tax."

Mr. Brophy pointed out that one-half of the employees at the town hall were from outside the town and they would not have to pay any poll tax while those employees who lived in town would.

Coun. Key suggested that Mr. Brophy and the finance committee should write the town counterparts to discuss the problem.
