

Overheard... the Other Day

A lady remarked a few days since—"Why Miss—these ready-made suits are the prettiest I've seen—and I've visited every store in town."

Come in today—and see whether her opinion was not correct. Prices $7.00, $8.50, $12.50, $13.75, and so on right up.

Now for example—wouldn't you like this one. Suit of fawn cheviot, the trim little coat has a golden brown velvet collar and is lined with Roman satin. Skirt of newest cut, lined with percaline, bound with velvet. Suit.....$15.55

Then here's another, medium weight, brown tweed—in a pretty indistinct check. Skirt of a circular pattern with box plait back—rows of stitching at one side, lined with percaline—bound velvet.

Single breasted coat, light fitting, lined with taffeta silk... $17.00

BOER BOYS BEING TAUGHT TO SHOOT.

The determination of the Boers to fight "till the last man is killed" evidently contemplates a long war, and an army of boys, if need be, to take the places of their fathers after the last man is killed." BLOEMFONTEIN TO BE THE BASE

FROM WHICH BRITISH ARMY WILL ADVANCE.

Burgers Still Continue To Surrender.

Edward Blake hooted at a Nationalist Banquet—Boers to be prevented from retreating North—Mafeking still all right—And relief getting nearer.

SPECIAL DESPATCH TO THE EXAMINER.

NEWS CONTINUES GOOD.

LONDON, March 21.—The news from the front yesterday was favorable to the British arms. The Dutch revolt in Cape Colony is practically over and Lord Kitchener has entered Prieska without opposition. Kendhardt, another centre of the movement, is likely to submit as tamely. Brabant is moving on Rontville, and Free State Burgers continue to surrender.

MAFEKING HOLDING OUT.

Mafeking is still holding out while the relief columns are getting nearer every day. The blowing up of the bridge over the Modder river shows that the Boers intend to hamper Lord Roberts' advance as much as possible.

Meanwhile supplies are being accumulated, and Bloemfontein is converted into a great base for the next advance.

When the right moment arrives three armies are likely to be put in the movement the main force under Lord Roberts in the centre, marching on Koonstadt, the right wing, under Buller, threatening the line of Biggarsburg, then probably making a great turning movement via, Vryheid and to the north, and the left wing, under Methuen or Kitchener, advancing on Klerksdorp and Potchefstroom.

In consequence of Boer threats to destroy Johannesburg and demolish the plant and machinery of the surrounding gold mines, Her Majesty's Government have resolved to issue a proclamation at once in South Africa holding the members of the Transvaal Council responsible for any acts committed contrary to the usages of civilized people.

The proclamation will give formal effect to the warning conveyed by Chamberlain to Kruger some time ago.

The Rhodesian field force, five thousand strong, is to be commanded by Sir Frederick Carrington, whose mission it will be to prevent any Boer trek from the Transvaal into British territories to the north of the Limpopo river.

LONDON, March 21.—The War Office has issued the following despatch from Lord Roberts, dated Bloemfontein, March 20:

"Lord Kitchener occupied Prieska yesterday unopposed. The rebels surrendered their arms and the Transvaalers escaped across the river.

"Mr. Steyn is circulating a notice by means of despatch riders in reply to my proclamation, to the effect that any Burgher who signs a declaration that he will not fight against us again will be treated as a traitor and shot.

"The Bloemfontein people are affording us every assistance in the matter of hospital accommodations. We have consegently been able to arrange for five hundred beds.

"Thirty-three prisoners were taken at Prieska, two hundred stands of arms, and some supplies and explosives.

"The Boers have begun to surrender on the Basutoland frontier."

LONDON, March 21.—At a Nationalist banquet last night John Redmond, leader of the Nationalist party in the Commons, who presided, said he regarded the last nine years of public life in Ireland as a "hideous nightmare."

"Our reunion is sincerely," he continued, "and there is nothing human speaking which the eighty-six Irish members in Parliament cannot obtain from the exigencies of British parties.

It is incredible that English statesmen can be so blind to history as to imagine that serious political grievances can be mitigated by the Royal visit to Ireland or by the British celebration of St. Patrick's Day.

EDWARD BLAKE HOOTED.

Edward Blake, the member of Parliament for South Longford, who proposed the toast, "Ireland a Nation," was greeted with hostile cries. A disturbance ensued and the police were called in to restore order.

LONDON, March 27.—A despatch to the Daily Mail from Donkersport, dated the 19th, says a reconnaissance towards Philippolis, 25 miles west of Springfontein found the farms all flying the white flag. The British troops were cordially received.

It is reported that Steyn is trying to rally the Boers, but the latter say that they have enough.

LONDON, March 21.—Winston Churchill, in a despatch dated Port Elizabeth, warmly resists the contention that the relief of Ladysmith arose out of Lord Roberts' operations. On the contrary he says the operations of Roberts were assisted by the fact that Buller kept sixteen thousand Boers occupied. It would be a cruel and unworthy thing to deprive the Naval army of their hard won laurels, and none would more vigorously repudiate such a suggestion than Lord Roberts himself.

ADAMSON'S BOTANIC BALSAM is the most deadly of all diseases of children. It gives very little time in which to seek remedies. A little tiredness—a cough—feverishness—stifled coughing—weakened voice—feeble pulse—delirium—convulsions—and even at this critical period LIFE IS SAVED if this wonderful balsam is administered. It should be always on hand and given at the first symptom but it will nearly perform miracles whenever used.
