See Government Relieved As Canadian Dollar Slips

By HAROLD MORRISON
Canadian Press Staff Writer
OTTAWA (CP)—The Canadian dollar has slipped from its high perch and perhaps no group is more relieved than the government.

The high premium may have frightened Canadian municipalities, provinces, corporations and other organizations from the American money market. It appeared likely their borrowings would increase as the exchange rate dipped. This in turn might have the effect of raising the rate.

Another factor is the increased stability of the European financial situation. Officials here said one cause of the spectacular rise of the dollar last month
