Budget Storm Appears Over For Finance Minister Gordon

By FRASER MacDOUGALL

OTTAWA (CP)—Has Finance Minister Gordon safely weathered the budget storm?

Two months ago in the political turmoil that followed the June 13 budget, political circles buzzed with reports that Mr. Gordon would be out of the finance ministry before many months, probably shifted to another portfolio.

This week when Opposition Leader Diefenbaker renewed a call for the minister's resignation there wasn't the faintest answering echo from the Liberal circles which last June were just as actively engaged as the opposition in speculating that Mr. Gordon's days as finance minister were numbered.

Some Liberals who took that line then now have changed their minds. They say now that, barring unexpected developments, Mr. Gordon's hold on the finance portfolio is secure.

Talk of a possible change in ministry for the 57-year-old Toronto accountant got its start and quickly reached its height in the week after his budget, when it was disclosed that outside consultants hired on a temporary basis helped prepare the document and saw the final draft.

PEARSON INTERVENED

Prime Minister Pearson personally intervened to squelch resignation rumors, apparently originating in Toronto and Montreal financial circles.

He said there was no question of the minister resigning and any censure motion aimed at him would be treated as a non-confidence challenge to the minority Liberal government.

The prime minister's statement didn't immediately halt speculation that there might be some change for the minister later on.

However, this sort of talk tended to die down during the late stages of the Parliamentary session and virtually disappeared after Parliament recessed Aug. 2 until Mr. Diefenbaker revived it this week.

Informed sources, who stress they don't really know and can only make educated guesses, doubt that any shift will be made as a direct consequence of the budget.

They concede the possibility that if circumstances, even beyond the minister's control, bring a period of financial crisis for Canada at home or in international dealings, he might be moved to a different portfolio. In such a case, he would simply be a victim of events, like many political figures before him.

They stress that Mr. Gordon, as the chief architect of the Liberal election program and in large part the organizer of the Liberal return as power, still has the confidence of the party organization.

They also look on him as the party's idea man. Much of the legislation already approved, and much that remains on the order paper for consideration when the Commons resumes Sept. 30, originated with him.

In these factors, they see a great source of Gordon strength in the party's inner councils, quite apart from the high regard in which he is known to be held by the prime minister.

CONTRACT BRIDGE

QUIZ

You are the dealer, both sides vulnerable, and have open ed One Heart. Partner responds Two Notrump. What would you now bid with each of the following four hands?

1. ♠72 ♥AK972 ♦Q5 ♣AJ64
2. ♠AQ8 ♥KQ843 ♦AQ9 ♣QJ
3. ♠Q ♥KQ74 ♦AJ52 ♣Q983
4. ♠AJ ♥AK65 ♦AQ3 ♣J942

1. Three clubs. The three bids to consider are three notrump, three hearts and three clubs. It would not be wise to unilaterally commit the hand to three notrump without first sounding out the possibility of playing a heart contract. Hands with 5-4-2-2 distribution, especially when the high-card values are concentrated in two suits, are not ideal for notrump, and for this reason the raise in notrump is undesirable.

The best alternative bids are three hearts or three clubs, and, of these two, the three club bid is better because it draws a more complete picture of the hand. The intention is to pass three notrump if partner bids it, or go on to four hearts if partner bids three hearts over three clubs.

2. Six notrump. This is simply a matter of arithmetic. The two notrump response shows 13 to 15 points, balanced distribution and strength in the unmentioned suits. Since we have 20 points, we are assured of at least 33 pts. the magic number for a slam. The hand is suitable for notrump play and a raise to six is therefore clearly indicated.

3. Three notrump. This is by no means an ideal hand for notrump, but the raise to three is nevertheless the best bid available. Hands with singletons are generally best played in a suit, but where the distribution is 4-4-4-1 and there is no major suit game in prospect, it is generally better to undertake nine tricks in notrump than eleven tricks in a minor suit. This is particularly true when the singleton is an honor card.

Suppose we were to bid three clubs or diamonds instead. Then if partner rebids notrump, our minor suit bid turns out to be a wasted call, while if partner rebids three hearts, we would probably still bid three notrump, knowing partner has only three hearts in support of our four-card suit.

4. Four notrump. This has nothing to do with Blackwood— it is simply a jump raise to notrump showing the possibility of a slam. Partner is expected to bid again with a top-level two notrump response, and to pass with minimum values for the two notrump bid.

The four notrump bid shows 18 or 19 points and a balanced hand. Since partner may have only 13 points, we cannot go to six single-handed, and are consequently forced to consult him in the matter.

Mother Urges Some Hobby For Homemaker

TORONTO (CP) — Canada's Mother of the Year, Mrs. A. J. Gutsell of Toronto, said here every homemaker should pursue a hobby or interest for her own self-improvement.

Mrs. Gutsell, a Women's Day guest at the Canadian National Exhibition, recently began flying lessons—"something I had wanted to do all my life."

The mother of two sons, Robin, 13 and Paul, 19—and 24 foster children from the Children's Aid Society during the last five years — also paints, sews many of her own clothes and is learning to speak French from library records.

BOAC Plans Slash In Top Employees

LONDON (Reuters)—The government - run British Overseas Airways Corporation, heavily in the red after a prolonged slump in traffic on its international routes, is going to retire some 125 top employees prematurely, it was learned here.

They include 19 airliner captains with salaries of more than £4,000 a year.

BOAC still has more than 20,000 people on its payroll, after letting go nearly 1,000 employees in the last year.

Senior employees — some under 50—who now are leaving will receive a cash payment as well as a pension. BOAC would not say how much they would get in cash, but it was understood their remuneration will be similar to that of British military officers retired prematurely in recent years.
