SPECIMENS OF GRIT PURITY.

Looking Backward in a Political Sense.

Some of the Records of the Loud-est Shouters Looked Into.

Sir Richard Cartwright and the Globe in the Old Days.

(Condensed from the Ottawa Correspondence of the Empire.)

Examine the Grit record. So much is being said of hoodlum now-a-days, and the Grit purity is shouting loudly with such enthusiasm of lung power, that it might be supposed their own record was as the whiteness of the driven snow. Fancy M. C. Cameron, for instance, pinning on his capacious bosom the white flower of a blameless political life! Fancy James David Edgar, with his lungs of brass and his cheek of the same material, in the shadow of his famous "Gas" trip to the Champ de Mars, Montreal, passing as a censor of public morals! Fancy the Grit record of 1872 being stowed away among the lumber of the political attic while the men who built up that record now make broad their phylacteries and call on high heaven to bear witness to the sins of the other fellows! The sins of 1872 cannot condone the sins of 1891; but the worst that has been proven this session, save the atrocious robberies of Mercier and his gang, is but a blot compared to the black page of history of the Grit regime.

MR. EDGAR'S RECORD.

Mr. James David Edgar grows red in the face and talks himself hoarse over the iniquities of a clerk in the Interior Department receiving in an irregular manner payment for the work he has honestly and laboriously performed. At the bare mention of such a heinous offence the great soul of Edgar waxes righteously wrath. True, James David is not charged with having taken in an irregular manner money that he had honestly earned by the sweat of his face, or in any other manner; but the following facts speak for themselves:—

In January, 1874, he was defeated in Monck. He showed his fresh and gushing wounds to his party at Ottawa and was at once despatched on the Government's service and at the public expense to the Pacific slope. His bill, as found in the public accounts for 1874, part 2, page 155, and for 1875, part 2, page 178, reads:—

1874—J. D. Edgar, account of expenses to British Columbia.....	$5,000
1875—J. D. Edgar, expenses as delegate to British Columbia.....	1,000
Total.....	$6,000

Except that his poetic soul, gorged with the beauties of the Yosemite Valley, let itself loose upon the Globe in a series of badly-written effusions, the most patient search has failed to reveal any work performed for the $6,000.

M. C. CAMERON'S RECORD.

Mr. M. C. Cameron is another rager after purity. Down to the very depths his virtuous soul is stirred at the bare idea of money improperly bestowed. How he earned his sobriquet of "Ananias" is well known; that he is selected as the exponent of purity in the charges made against Mr. Cochrane is eminently fitting and proper. Mr. Cameron's record for purity dates back a long time. In 1874 he contested South Huron, his seat was protested, he admitted in court having spent from $10,000 to $14,000 in bribery by agents and the Superior Court judges who revised the case, said: "There are strong grounds for thinking that the respondent, Malcolm Colin Cameron, was guilty of personal bribery. Had the judge who tried the case found the respondent guilty of personal bribery we would have sustained the judgment." And it is this rank corruptionist, this debaucher of the electorate, this self-confessed worker of iniquity, that now casts his eyes ceiling-ward and thanks the Creator that he is not even as Edward Cochrane, one of the purest, most high-minded and most respected members of the Commons.

THE GRIT CORRUPTION FUND.

Present day Grits hold up their hands in holy horror at the bare idea of an election fund. In anguish of heart they call on gods and men to witness their proclamation that of this crime they are innocent. They forget this letter:

TORONTO, August 15, 1872.

Hon. John Simpson, President Ontario Bank.
MY DEAR SIR,—The fight goes bravely on. We have expended our strength in aiding outlying counties and helping our city candidates; but a big push has to be made on Saturday and Monday for the east and west divisions. We, therefore, make our grand stand on Saturday. There are but half a dozen people that can come down handsomely, and we have done all we possibly can do, and we have to ask a few outsiders to aid us. Will you be one?
Faithfully yours,
GEORGE BROWN.

And they forgot this letter:
TORONTO, April 17, 1890.
(Confidential).

MY DEAR SIR—Owing to the expenses incurred in connection with the pending provincial election campaign, I take the liberty of requesting you to remit either to the treasurer Mr G M Rose, Toronto, or to myself, $96.66, that being the balance of amount unpaid inclusive of 1890, which you were kind enough to subscribe in 1888 towards the funds of the provincial reform association. We are now on the eve of the elections, and that is my excuse for writing to you on the subject.

Yours very truly,
W. T. R. PRESTON.

And they forgot, above all, Mr. Mercier's deposit of $300,000 before the last Dominion elections, but they cannot have forgotten the revelations in the Baie des Chaleurs railway before the Senate Committee last week.

THE RECORD OF ANOTHER PURIST.

But virtuous to a degree in his time was he of Simcoe, Henry Herman Cooke. True, he is not now in the House, a tussle with D'Alton McCarthy last spring having left him sprawling. But for that happy event he would now be dividing honors with Cameron and Edgar, whose equal he was in every act of corruption. In his election trial in 1876 this sound Liberal and earnest seeker for purity testified in his own behalf as follows: "Speaking from memory, the expenses of my canvass in 1871 would reach about $10,000; it might amount to $13,000, for I do not charge my mind with $2,000 or $3,000 in election matters. I have been examining my accounts for election expenses in 1872, and making a rough estimate, I place them at $13,000 to $15,000. They certainly did not exceed the latter amount. That amount I paid myself." This man who admitted having spent $25,000 in two contests, was he disowned by the party of purity? Not a bit of it. Rank corruptionist as he was, he was the party standard bearer in every election since, and was and is one of the chief pillars in the Grit tabernacle.

THE ROLL OF INIQUITY.

Major Walker, the Reform candidate in London in 1874, fell a victim to the law. Mr. Norris, unseated for bribery, entered his corrupt expenditures as missionary expenses. Malcolm Cameron spent $6,000 in carrying Russell. Hon. W. Ross, Mr. McKenzie's first Minister of Militia, went down to Victoria, N. S., for re-election in December, 1873, and as he put it, "I placed with my committee a certain sum of money to relieve honest, worthy men." In short the following Reformers were unseated for bribery and corruption personally or by agents in the 1874 election: Shibley, Jodoin, McKay, McGregor, Chisholm, Irving, Norris, Devlin, Coupal, Biggar, Murray, Aylmer, Wilkes, Prevost, Higginbotham, Cushing, Tremblay, MacDonald (Cornwall) McNab, Wood, Cameron (Huron) Walker, Mackenzie (Montreal), Stewart, Kerr, MacDougall, (Renfrew), Cook, O'Donohue, McLellan, Dymond.

HOW GRIT MEMBERS BOODLED.

It was only in the constituencies that corruption under the Grit regime was rampant. The "awfulness" of Hon. Thomas McGreevy's guilt is a never-ending theme with the cork-screw chief organ and its following in the House and in the country. What is the record of its own friends? In 1875-76 Mr. Anglin, Speaker of the House of Commons, received from Mr. Mackenzie printing contracts which, having no job printing office of his own, he farmed out to Chubb & Co., of St. John, N. B., pocketing a comfortable sum. Mr. Spencer's bills were: 1875, St. John Freeman, printing, etc., $8,128; 1876, St. John Freeman, printing, etc., $10,264; total, $18,392.
Mr. Jones, of haul-down-that flag fame, member for Halifax, and Mr. Vail, member for Digby, owners of the Halifax Citizen, got for printing in 1875 $10,199, and in 1876 $14,277 a total of $24,476.
A contract for carrying the celebrated steel rails was given to Mr. Norris, member for Lincoln.

Some $10,000 worth of supplies for railway purposes were purchased by the Government from Mr. McLeod, M. P., for Kent, N. B.
Nearly $40,000 was paid in 1875-6-7 by the Government to Mr. Bannatyne, M. P. for Provencenter.

Large sums were paid to Mr. Cunningham, M. P. for New Westminster, and Mr. Workman, M. P. for Montreal, also.

These facts do not excuse Hon. Thomas McGreevy; certainly not. Nor do they excuse the grant of all the timber limits between Edmonton and the Rocky mountains to H. H. Cook by Mr. Mackenzie after his government had been defeated in 1873. But this may be pointed out, that while the present Government's expressed intention and practice is to punish the guilty, the Grit bodied, so far from being punished, were every man of them given advanced seats in the synagogue.

A SPECIMEN SCANDAL.

Here is a copy of a document that in those days Grits did not howl over at all:
PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT, May 5, 1876.

To John G. Sippell, C. E., Montreal:
SIR,—I am directed to authorize you to purchase, until further orders, from Messrs. Frothingham & Werkman, of Montreal, such iron as may be required in connection with the canals under your charge.

(Sgd.) F. BRAUN, Sec'y.
The question of who "directed" the secretary to write the engineer, compelling him to purchase from a member of Parliament, if the transaction had occurred under the Conservative rule of these days, would have reared every fatulent Grit on hind legs for a month.

CANADA'S INTERNATIONAL EXHIBITION.—We would draw especial attention to the advertisement of this exhibition, appearing in another column. The programme is laid out so full that it will not be necessary for us to enlarge upon it. We are informed that the exhibition proper promises to be more successful both in point of exhibits and in their attractiveness, than that of last year. The entries are coming in rapidly, and beside a large number of local exhibits, some very fine ones are being sent from England, United States, West India Islands and some other foreign countries. All the railway and steamship companies are making much more satisfactory arrangements for reduced fares than they did last year. The programme of amusements is so large and varied that our readers will be safe in arranging their visit to almost any day from the beginning to the close of the exhibition.

"How are you?" "Nicely, Thank You." "Thank Who?" "Why the inventor of SCOTT'S EMULSION Which cured me of CONSUMPTION," Give thanks for its discovery. That it does not make you sick when you take it. Give thanks. That it is three times as efficacious as the old-fashioned cod liver oil. Give thanks. That it is such a wonderful flesh producer. Give thanks. That it is the best remedy for Consumption, Scrofula, Bronchitis, Wasting Diseases, Coughs and Colds. Be sure you get the genuine in Salmon color wrapper; sold by all Druggists, at 50c. and $1.00.
